THIS sounds strange, but mighty good:

"The Burlington has nothing whatever to hide from the public these days," says a Burlington man in a position of authority. "We are going to make friends with the people, try to give them good service, make an effort to perform every function that a well regulated railroad should perform for its patrons and the territory it serves. We are making no secret rates, giving no special service to favored patrons, and are trying to obey the law. The service given is service for the public and the public may learn what it inquires about. We are not seeking newspaper notoriety nor newspaper discussions, but anything about the operation or management of the road is open and may be made public. The roads wants to keep on friendly terms with the people. It wants to serve them."

The "stand patter" has his uses, but can never have the undivided admiration of the world's doers. In political economy he represents what the breaching does in horse millinery—but even that strap has fallen into innocuous desuetude in the modern harness.

An exchange refers to the water wagon as the bus to the savings bank. Can you state it more cleverly?

BARILEY.

The reception and social at the new M. E. parsonage, Tuesday evening, was a very pleasant affair. The building is now completed and Rev. and Mrs. Heggeman are pleasantly and comfortably at home to their many friends. Rev. Heggeman deserves much praise for the energy and daily toil he has shown in the building and management of this new residence.

Mrs. Charles McKnight is quite sick with lung fever.

The Free Methodists closed a three weeks' meeting here, Sunday night.

Thos. Saul was here, this week, on his return from a visit to New Mexico and Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hoover returned, Wednesday evening, on No. 5 to their home in Wauneta after a week's visit here with relatives and friends.

Merl Hodgkin is sick, this week.

Miss Lilly Fox, teacher in the primary department, has been quite sick for some time. We are pleased to learn she is now much better and expects to soon be able to resume her place in the school room.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harte went to Benkelman, last Saturday evening, to attend the wedding of Mr. Hart's brother Elvin to Miss Julia Arbogast at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Arbogast, Wednesday of this week.

Billy Bush is visiting a sister in Missouri, this week.

The chairs for the new opera house have arrived and will soon be put in place ready for the opening play.

Marshall Cox came in from Denver a few days ago to visit his father General Reuben Cox and attend the play in the new opera house in which the "General" is a conspicuous character.

McMillen's cough cure is just what its name indicates—A Cure for Cough.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

W. M. HILLER was a Lincoln business visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. EMERSON HANSON was down from Denver, over Sunday.

C. A. Barnard, the Burlington auditor, was in Lincoln, last Sunday.

Miss VIRGIE LUDWICK was a visitor of Lincoln relatives, close of last week.

ROBERT ALLEN returned to Des Moines, Iowa, and to school, end-of-week.

L. MORSE, the Benkelman politician and stockman, was in town, Tuesday, on a short visit.

JOHN POWERS of political fame was down from Trenton, Tuesday, on some business matters.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER SHEPPARD of Fairfield, Neb., were visiting with Mrs. Dole, Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. J. R. PENCE and the children are visiting her brothers Frank and Earl Calhoun at Cambridge.

Mrs. HARRY A. BEALE arrived home, Tuesday night, from a month's visit in Elgin, Illinois, with homefolks.

B. H. HAWKINS was over from the Cedar Bluffs, Kansas, neighborhood, Saturday, on a visit of tender moment.

W. B. MILLS arrived home, Monday on No. 1, from his visit to his mother in Michigan, whom he left improving from an operation.

I. F. BARGER was down from Quick, Frontier county, Saturday last, arranging details for a sale to be held by him on January 30th.

Mrs. A. S. CAMPBELL and Gertrude spent Thursday afternoon and night in McCook on their way home from a visit in Pittsburg, Pa.

MR. AND MRS. A. HARRIS returned, Tuesday, from Trenton, Mo., where they were visiting the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Elliott.

Miss KATHRYN SAWYER went into Omaha, Sunday morning, to spend the week with her mother, who is receiving treatment in a hospital in that city.

C. R. LIVINGSTON, the well-known automobile dealer, has moved to McCook, and will push that business here with his usual and characteristic energy. Mr. Livingston represents such popular and reliable machines as the "Reo" and the "Ford," of which he will have a carload on hand as soon as conditions of weather will permit. He will have announcements for the public in these columns in due time.

REV. J. J. LOUGHRAN, late of McCook, is the successor of Father Bernard as pastor of St. Mary's congregation. The heartiness of the farewell reception tendered him on the eve of his departure by his own congregation and the people of McCook is the best evidence of his sterling worth. In extending a cordial welcome to Father Loughran we can sympathize with the people of McCook, but trust the new pastor will find here a people—if not so demonstrative—none the less appreciative.—Dawson News Boy.

What is a Mission?

A Mission is a series of religious service. There is a daily celebration of the Holy Communion; there is a daily preaching of the Word; and there are expositions upon Scriptural texts. The object of these services is to instruct people in things that make for righteousness; to stir up their consciences and their wills; and to awaken in them sorrow for sin. No one can attend a Mission, and give heed to its teachings, and not be better for it. Such a series of meetings is profitable in making better citizens, a better husband and parent, and a better neighbor. A Mission is to be held in Saint Alban's Episcopal church, beginning on Tuesday evening, February 4th, (D. V.) The missioner is Rev. Lewis A. Arthur of Grand Island, Nebraska. Rev. Arthur is an able exponent of the Word. Those who hear him will surely be helped and edified. We invite you to attend this Mission.
