TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 7, 1908

NUMBER 37

Caught His Man in Tennessee.
Sheriff Peterson arrived from Tennessee, Sunday night, with a young man named Albert Cregar, who has been wanted here for over a year for stealing and selling a horse owned by J. A. Modrell. Cregar worked for Modrell and taking one of his employer's horses came to McCook, sold the animal to James Kirby for $72.50 and decamped. Modrell was compelled to go to court to recover his animal, in which, of course, he was successful. Cregar was first taken before Squire Berry, where he pleaded guilty, and was bound over to district court. Cregar's case came on in district court, Monday afternoon. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was given a term of two years and a half in the state penitentiary at Lincoln, whither he was taken, Monday night, to enter upon his sentence.

Bring with you the size of your rooms and we can tell you just how much it will cost to adorn them with some of these superb papers.

The organization of an orchestra of ten or a dozen pieces, composed of young lads and directed by Dr. J. A. Toren, is one of the musical events of recent days. They will make their initial appearance at the Congregational church, next Sunday evening, in several numbers.
Only two worthwhile items enter into the value of advertising, namely, quantity and quality--that is how many and how good. THE McCOOK TRIBUNE is in a field by itself, locally, on these two points. We challenge and invite inspection and comparison. We can give you from two to three times the value for your money that any other Red Willow county publication can offer you.

A class of boys in the Congregational Sunday school recently organized themselves into an association under name of the R. B. Rs. and with "Purity and Love" for a motto. Last evening they met for the first time in their new hall which is very conveniently arranged and especially adapted to putting on their work. The boys are greatly encouraged over the growth of their association, averaging one new member every meeting. Names of the officers will appear next week.

Burglarized the Residence.
The G. W. Furrows home in the extreme northeast part of the city was burglarized, between 9 and 10 o'clock, Thursday morning, by presumably two tramps, who possibly slept in the barn during the preceding night.
After the men left the house in the morning the tramps appeared at the house and with oaths and in an intimidating manner demanded breakfast. On plea of getting some kindling Mrs. Furrows got out and to a neighbor's house, from which she telephoned the police.
During her absence the tramps hurriedly ransacked the house, securing $25 in money, a watch and other articles, and succeeded in getting away.
Mrs. Furrows was unable to note the direction they took and up to date the police have secured no trace of them.

Died Under Operation.
Word was received here, Wednesday, of the death of Con Getman in Denver, under an operation. The remains were brought to McCook, last night, for burial.
Getman was recently discharged from the repair force, in the late reduction of force, and he and his wife went to Loveland, Colo., on a visit. On his way home from Loveland he determined to have an operation performed, not having been well for some time. He did not recover from the operation.
Deceased will be buried from the German Congregational church, Saturday afternoon, interment in Riverview cemetery.

EVERY FARMER
As well as every business man should have a bank account.

WHY?
BECAUSE:
Your money is safer in the bank than anywhere else. Paying your bills by check is the simplest and most convenient method. Your check becomes a voucher for the debt it pays. It gives you a better standing with business men. Money in the bank strengthens your credit. A bank account teaches, helps and encourages you to save. This bank does all the book-keeping. Your bank book is a record of your business. We cordially invite the farmers to make this their banking home.
