Sunday's Temperance Meeting.

(Too late for last week.)

The Temperance mass meeting held Sunday afternoon and evening at the Baptist church was well attended, the church being crowded in the evening. Mrs. Nesbit was present and spoke in the afternoon on "Parents' Responsibility to Children and Children to Parents," and in the evening on the "Ten Commandments and the Liquor Traffic."

Her talk was good in every part, and proved without a doubt that every commandment is broken through this awful liquor traffic.

In her advice to parents, recommending them to get acquainted with our teachers, not only acquainted but a confidant, so that they may not be afraid to tell the parents the misdoings of their children in school, is worthy of our consideration. Visit the schools and find out what your children are doing. She told of so many of our boys dropping out of school before they finish the higher grades, too often it being on account of bad habits. Why put temptation on every hand and expect our children to escape without evil habits? The saloons get one boy from every fifth family and one girl from every eighth family. Com.
