A weekly newspaper that publishes twenty-one columns of good, reliable news each week is rare in these days of cheap weeklies, intended only to sell some article that the publisher is interested in. Credit is due The Weekly Inter Ocean for keeping its columns filled with fresh and up-to-date news. Give it a trial by subscribing through THE McCOOK TRIBUNE.

The Chautauqua is a great institution. It is distinctly an American enterprise and stands for better things in recreation, entertainment, and education. It furnishes the greatest possible amount of all these at the least possible expense. More than that, it tends to increase the respect of the country for the city, and to make all classes of people better satisfied with home life and its pleasures. —Ex.
