

FOR A YOUNG GIRL

EMBROIDERY FOR TEA GOWN.

AFTER THIRTY YEARS

PRETTY FROCK MADE UP IN PALE BLUE VOILE.

Good Thing to Bear in Mind When Replenishing Daughter's Wardrobe—Hints on Proper Outfit for Student Days.

At this season of the year it is often necessary to replenish the schoolgirl's wardrobe.

frocks. To keep them in order is a great nuisance unless she has a personal maid. Besides this, for a girl away at school a large wardrobe is not convenient.

While the schoolgirl should not take a violent interest in clothes, it is impossible and indeed unwise to seek to make her utterly indifferent to her appearance.

A very attractive costume illustrated is of pale blue voile. The skirt is finished with two rows of three tucks each around the bottom and two rows of flit net insertion embroidered in blue to match the material of the frock.

Cosmetic Ball for Wrinkles. In France they have a way of plumping out thin cheeks which may be tried with excellent effects.

Then there is the massage with the finger tips to rub the cream in, and last of all the dash of hot water.

Make a Waist Form. Fit a lining of unbleached muslin to your figure over the corset. Let it extend below the hips.

A paper pattern for the board may be obtained by bending a wire around the figure below the hips.

Ribbon Work May Be Relied On to Produce Good Effects.

Ribbon work embroidery is no longer new, but for a tea gown in some light, delicate shade the dull soft tints of the ribbon all tone in excellently.

In no style of dress is there so much opportunity of obtaining the becoming as in the tea gown. Soft, loose lines are almost invariably becoming.

A long train is becoming alike to short and tall, slender and would-be slender, and a teagown without a long graceful sweep or train would scarcely seem a teagown at all.

CARE IN WASHING LACES. Precautions Will Prolong Usefulness of Dainty Garments.

Colored embroideries should be washed in suds made of white soap in moderately warm water.

Sunlight will fade the colors, and boiling or lying in a wet heap will cause them to run.

An added precaution well worth adopting is to immerse the piece previous to washing it in water containing a cupful or two of vinegar.

Embroidered and lace-trimmed pieces should be taken from the line while but half dry and immediately ironed to secure the best result.

Never iron lace with the point of the wrong side over several layers of flannel covered with a sheet of old linen.

When ironing circular centerpieces and tablecloths see that the iron moves with the straight grain of the cloth.

IN POMPADOUR SILK.

For a theater or dinner gown this is a charming suggestion in pink pompadour silk, with coat of plain pink satin.

RELEASED PRISONER CASHED CHECK FOR LARGE SUM.

Mystery of a Deposit of $25,000 to Account of Man Subsequently Convicted of Murder—Was It Payment for Crime?

In the case of the Mechanics' and Traders' bank of New York city there is a record of a payment made some years ago of a large sum, $25,000, and with a corresponding or balancing record upon the ledger showing that this account had been carried for some unknown or mysterious depositor for nearly 30 years.

The state officers examining the accounts or books of this bank by chance ran across this item, and having asked an explanation, received one of the strangest in the history of banking in New York.

Some years ago the ownership of the Mechanics' and Traders' bank passed into new hands and the choice of president was fixed upon Mr. Thalmessinger. He made microscopic examination of the books, determined to master every detail, present and historic, for the bank had a history dating back to the year 1830.

He had discovered, he said, that there was a credit upon the books of the Mechanics' and Traders' bank of $25,000, and that this deposit had remained with the bank for nearly 30 years untouched.

Two days later the bank president again called upon his counsel and was plainly in much excitement. He stated that a check for the $25,000 had that morning been presented to the bank and that he had declined to pay it on the ground that he was not satisfied as to the identity of the maker of the check.

The president was advised to permit suit to be brought against him, saying that it would be the better part for the bank to pay that $25,000 on judgment than to run the risk of paying it to the wrong person.

A man had been arrested for murder nearly 40 years ago. Soon after his arrest $25,000 was deposited in his name, no one knows by whom. He was convicted and sentenced to be hanged, but the sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life.

The testimony was sustained in the trial, the identity of the man proved, the check was paid and after that this man disappeared as completely as though swallowed by the earth.

Rode Year on Railroad Train.

A German commercial traveler recently won a bet which he made with an "American sportsman" by taking a continuous trip of one year. The story is vouched for by the Salzburger Volksblatt.

Tattoo as Temperance Pledge.

Kim Kyong Syop is a big, strapping fellow, energetic in body and zealous in spirit, who is engaged in selling the Scriptures in Korea.

Five years ago he was worshipping evil spirits, says a missionary who sends home the story to the British and Foreign Bible society. For three years he sacrificed a cow to them each year. When Kim became a Christian he cleared out of his house and premises 27 "devils' nests" made of paper and old rags.

On the ball of each thumb Kim has a black spot, and the missionary asked him if they were tattooed.

"Yes," said Kim. "I did that when I vowed to give up strong drink—so that if ever again I raised a glass of liquor to my mouth in either hand I should see that spot and remember my vow."

Unkind Deduction.

Mrs. Benham—I'm going to give a big party on my birthday. Benham—Who will be invited? Mrs. Benham—Just my friends. Benham—I thought you said that you were going to give a big party.
