IGNORANCE is at once a profound blessing and a great curse.

IMPERIAL will assume the frills of a third-class—presidential—post-office, July 1st.

NOWADAYS nothing gives the average sinner cold feet more frigidly than an old-style brimstone sermon.

CONGRESS has come to be more or less a delightful tete-a-tete between your Uncle Joe Cannon and Milord Aldrich, with the Big Stick doing a monologue for the people. Great is the council of the "Elder Statesmen."

J. F. CORDEAL was up from McCook, Monday and Tuesday, looking after legal matters. Mr. Cordeal is prominently mentioned as a candidate for State Senator from this district and is very well qualified for the position, should he be favored with the nomination and election. He is a tireless worker and a splendid scholar.—Imperial Republican.

The fact that our prescription trade is rapidly growing every day encourages us to believe people appreciate the accuracy and care we take to prepare their medicines just as their physician wishes it done.
