Mrs. Northrup Injured.

Mrs. Mary A. Northrup had the misadventure to fall down the stairway at the home of her daughter Mrs. C. H. Boyle, Thursday morning, and to receive severe injuries—chiefly an ugly gash over the forehead, which required the surgeon's skill. She also sustained a severe shock to her nervous system. Happily, her injuries are not dangerous, she is resting comfortably, and a little time will fully accomplish her recovery.

Charged With Boot-legging.

Red Willow county's jail is now safe-keeping a Federal prisoner. William R. Spain was placed in the jail, Monday evening. He is charged with selling liquor without a government license. Spain is a Tennessean, but has been living and operating in Frontier county for the past year and until Federal minions brought his boot-legging career to a period.

Assaulted the Night Policeman.

Arthur Forbes appeared before Squire LeHew, Tuesday, on a charge of venue from Squire Barry's court, charged with assault and battery, with Night Policeman Ed Fitzgerald as complainant. The defendant demanded a jury trial and six men were duly selected and sworn for that purpose, who promptly brought in a verdict of guilty. Squire LeHew imposed a fine of $50.00 and costs. Forbes appealed his case and provided a bond of $200 conditioned upon his appearance in district court.

It appears that Forbes and several other young men were drinking, and on the streets at a late hour. The night policeman took Forbes by the arm and sought to have Forbes go home. It was then that Forbes is claimed to have struck Fitzgerald in the face with some iron weapon, after which he took to his heels and escaped from the dazed and blinded policeman. It is claimed that threats had been made against the policeman by the party, but it was difficult to get testimony to this effect, witnesses being afraid to testify.

Anti-Saloon League.

That was an earnest gathering of McCook citizens in the Methodist church, Monday evening, when the Anti-Saloon League was reorganized and officered for business.

The new officers are: H. E. Culbertson, president; T. B. Campbell and Howe Smith, vice-presidents; O. E. Pearson, secretary; Clarence Rozell, treasurer. The board of directors will be composed of two members from each of the churches of the city and of two members of each of the temperance societies and labor unions of the city which may desire to cooperate with the league along the lines of temperance, law-enforcement and civic righteousness and purity.

THE TRIBUNE believes that the good work of the organization will be effectively continued and that results will be accomplished.

Union Temperance Meeting.

The churches of the city united, last Sunday evening, in a temperance meeting in the Congregational church. The interest in the subject of temperance was strongly indicated by the large attendance—the church being crowded.

The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Edker Burton of the Baptist church, who made plain the need of temperance work in McCook. He urged that the best way to control the liquor traffic was to annihilate the traffic entirely, a sentiment in which his hearers were well agreed. The meeting showed that McCook has a growing and strong sentiment against the liquor business and that the future may develop a campaign along that line such as the city has never before experienced.

Might Have Been Serious.

A cubed cigarette stub was the innocent cause of an incipient fire in the court house, Tuesday evening, in the hallway leading from the main upper hall into the offices of the clerk of the district court and the sheriff. Fortunately County Assessor T. A. Endsley and Court Reporter L. W. Stayner discovered the fire in a wooden cuspidor and removed the burning article from the building before any damage of note had been occasioned. The cuspidor was filled with sawdust, which the cubed stub easily ignited. A hole in the floor was the extent of the damage.

Come Take It Away.

The work of excavating for the new Masonic temple-opera house is now in progress, and vast quantities of earth are available for all who have use for it in filling up low places and grading. The earth will be loaded onto your wagons free. Come and take it away.

McCook vs. Cambridge.

With games between McCook and Cambridge, this forenoon, and tomorrow forenoon, the fans will have nothing to complain of in the realm of base ball. Both clubs are dingers and will put up the best game possible.

An Artistic Success.

Viewed as an artistic effort the organ recital in St. Patrick's church, Monday evening, was a success, the work of Dr. John Mills Mayhew, A. M., of Lincoln, on the pipe organ was excellent and inspiring, while the vocal efforts of Mrs. P. F. McKenna, Mr. Arthur V. Coupe and Mr. Francis M. Colfer were not lacking in full appreciation. The attendance, however, fell below expectations and deserts. The program following indicates the excellent character of the music given:

Marche Pontificale.....Lemmens
(a) Fairy Music.....Volkmann
(b) Humoreska.....Dvorak
(c) Largo.....Handel
(d) Divine Redemption.....Gounod
Arthur V. Coupe

The accompanists were Miss Millicent E. Elbert, Mrs. G. H. Thomas.

A Sad Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cain and family have the profoundest sympathy of this city in the death of their son Edward, aged 18 years, Thursday morning at 7 o'clock. The young man was recovering from an attack of diphtheria, when complications—not uncommon in that terrible disease—set in involving the heart etc., and death resulted, yesterday morning, despite every effort made for his recovery.

Edward was born in Red Willow county and had grown up into a vigorous young manhood, when death brought his young life to a sad and untimely end. The burial occurred, this afternoon at four o'clock, in Calvary cemetery, Rev. W. J. Kirwin, pastor of St. Patrick's church, conducting services at the cemetery.

This is the second death in the Cain home within a few weeks and they are the objects of special sympathy of the city on that account.

No Need to Fear.

There has been lots of comment lately on the injurious effects of some complexion creams, face lotions, etc. and no doubt some of the stories told are true. We would be the last to countenance the use of any of these deleterious substances, and with the object in view of protecting our customers, we have only the very best and most highly recommended face creams, face lotions, talcum powders, baby powders etc., that can be bought. You need have no fear of any of these brought of C. R. Woodworth & Co., Druggists.

Pleased a Large Crowd.

The second park concert, last evening, by the McCook band, pleased a large and animated crowd in the city park. These concerts will be given every Thursday evening during three months of the summer. The band is improving with each concert and gradually attaining oldtime standard of excellence. You should treat yourself too well to miss any of these concerts.

Farmers, Attention.

I am receiving cream for the Fairmont Creamery Co. of Crete, Neb. Bring your cream to me and I will guarantee good results. You get your checks every shipment. To those parties that are delivering cream to other creameries, if you will divide—give one-half to me—I think after a few shipments you will bring it all to me.

Judgment For One Hundred.

N. E. Barger brought suit against Andrew Sherman before County Judge Moore, Monday, for damages and breach of contract in the sum of $200. Barger was allowed $100 damages. The matter was the outgrowth of some difficulty connected with the sale and purchase of the machine shop on West Dennison street.

New Method of Billing.

The Burlington road in the future will use revised methods of marking the company freight. G. W. Holdrege, general manager of the road, has sent out the following order regarding the marking of company materials:

In order to save time and labor on the parts of agents, trainmen and others engaged in the handling of company materials, and enable us to get them over the road more promptly between company storehouses, it has been decided to designate each company storehouse by a number so that in the future it will be necessary to stencil this number on the material. This will also do away with the necessity of itemizing the different articles on way bills.

The stencil to be used will be larger and plainer than a written tag, and will enable employes to identify it with less handling of packages, and the marks will also be less subject to obliteration than is the case where tags are used. It will also enable agents to immediately ship to the proper designation materials which may be "over" at their stations, as the stencils will give them the proper destinations. It will also save the marking of Over and Short Reports in many cases, and will enable the company to get material into service instead of having it lie around waiting for consignees to be found. The storehouse number will invariably be stenciled or painted on the material in white paint.

Under the above plan billing will not be itemized, but will read as follows: —pieces of company material marked—in white paint.

In the space before the word "pieces" the total number of pieces, or packages, will be shown. In the space before the word "in," the storehouse number stenciled on the article will be shown.

The billing must show that the storehouse number on the material is in white paint, so that it may be designated from any other number that may appear on the material.

Each and every item less than full carload lots, consigned to one store, will positively be stenciled.

Visit From Early Residents.

Engineer and Mrs. Charles Dietrich of Denison, Texas, together with their three children, spent Thursday in the city visiting friends of the olden times. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich were among the earlier residents of McCook. Mr. Dietrich ran an engine out of here for years, as did Mrs. Dietrich's father, Engineer Carl Clark, now of Emporia, Kansas. They found quite a number of friends here, but the city greatly changed during the eighteen years they have been absent. They returned to Lincoln, this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich and son will return from there to Texas, while the two daughters will extend their visit on east. Mr. Dietrich is an engineer on the Houston & Texas Central railroad and a brother of Master Mechanic Dietrich of Lincoln.

The Melt-In-Your-Mouth Kind.

Paul Anton has just secured about fifty head of corn fed cattle to meet the needs of his meat market. A finer bunch of cattle have never been seen in McCook—indeed it is claimed for them that the best markets of the country cannot beat them. These animals will be served to customers of Mr. Anton's market, and the juiciest, richest cuts are guaranteed at reasonable figures all the time. These meats will almost melt in your mouth.

Opening Auspicious.

AS THE TRIBUNE goes to press today the indications are promising for successful races. The weather bids fair to be propitious. The track is in fine condition. There is a splendid string of horses on the grounds. The way the people are coming in, this morning, indicates that the attendance on the opening day will be very encouraging and that tomorrow's crowd will be large.

PARTICULAR ANIMALS

Are They With Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows?

To those who are loitering on the circus ground when the magnificent parade of the Carl Hagenbeck & Great Wallace shows returns to the tents in this city, McCook, Neb., Friday, July 10, one performance, it may appear that the massive cages and dens of animals are placed indiscriminately in the menagerie tent, but this is not the case. It is absolutely necessary for the family represented that the arrangement of the animals be the same day after day. If the lion cage is first, the monkey cage next, the polar bear next, the seals next, the hippopotamus next, the ocelot next, the tigers next, and so on down one side of the mammoth menagerie tent and back on the other one day, the same arrangement is necessary after that. The ends of the cages are closed, so that the animals cannot see their neighbors, but they can smell them. Any change of order among the dens will promptly start something in the zoo.

When the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus exhibits here, the circus patron can obtain much interesting information by closely observing the first-prize, colossal menagerie.

No Cause For Alarm.

While there are several cases of diphtheria in McCook, and the same can be truthfully said of other towns in this part of the state, there is absolutely no occasion for alarm, and the fact should keep no one away from enjoying the splendid races arranged for this afternoon and Saturday afternoon by the Driving Park association.

We make this statement simply because some silly and idle rumors have been spread abroad concerning the prevalence of diphtheria in this city, and some have been frightened thereby.

There have been some cases and still are some, but there is not now and has not been at any time cause for alarm. Come to the races.

Postponed to July 9th to 19th.

The very heavy rains which overflowed Epworth Lake Park and much of the street car track leading to the ground made a postponement of the Nebraska State Holiness camp meeting absolutely necessary. The camp meeting has been postponed to July 9th to 19th. There will be no change in the place of the meeting, the program as advertised in the folder and only a slight change in the working force. The time is now so short I ask all who read this notice to assist in advertising the postponed meeting. W. H. PRESCOTT, Secy.

Fortunate Patrons.

Patrons of D. C. Marsh are fortunate in that they are able to secure at his meat market the richest and juiciest and tenderest meats obtainable in any market anywhere at any price. Prime corn-fed cattle of first grade are placed on the block for his patrons every day. Meats too, which have been refrigerated long enough to make them the most palatable. These qualities, with prompt, courteous and square dealing and right prices spell success.

Surprised Him Some.

Earl Spencer was the object of a successful surprise, last Saturday evening, upon the occasion of his 28th birthday. About thirty friends were in the secret. Mrs. Spencer presented Earl with a gold watch and his friends' present was a large fine chair. Refreshments were enjoyed and a big time socially.

No Charge Without Service.

The State Railway commission has adopted an order prohibiting telephone companies from making a 10 cent messenger charge when no messenger was used to get the party to the telephone. The order becomes effective August 1. The complaint was against those independent companies connected with the Nebraska toll lines. It has been the custom when calling the party over long distance to charge the messenger fee. If the work of getting the party consists only of switching from the Independent to the Nebraska lines no charge after August 1 can be made.

Last of the Normal Series.

The Chicago Glee Club in the high school auditorium, Monday evening, July 13, will close the junior normal series of entertainments. Their vocal work, trombone efforts and the "Hoosier" impersonations of Mr. Dixon altogether make an entertainment of a high and most entertaining order. THE TRIBUNE hopes to see the high school auditorium filled to its fullest capacity. Tickets at McConnell's, Saturday, July 11th, 50 cents.

McCook Took All Three.

McCook and Franklin played three interesting and warmly contested games of baseball on the local grounds, this week, and by close scores McCook captured the whole bunch. The games were well patronized, especially the closing game, and the interest was lively in the entire series. The scores of the three games were as follows: Monday—5 to 1; Tuesday 5 to 4; Wednesday 3 to 0.

Harry Barbazette Buys the Bakery. Monday, Harry Barbazette took charge of the McCook bakery and news stand, buying from G. C. Heckman, the late proprietor. All Printed in McCook.

Our attention has recently been drawn to the fact that some of our readers are overlooking much of the local news of THE TRIBUNE, acting on the mistaken theory that the four inside pages of the paper are patents. THE TRIBUNE has for several years, except at short intervals, been all home print. It is now all printed in McCook, and every one of the eight pages contains more or less local news and advertising, both of interest to our readers. Read them all. THE PUBLISHER.
