TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 17, 1908

NUMBER 8

We Must All Dig Deeper.

While it is gratifying to note the progress already made by the temple-opera house boomers in the way of securing subscriptions to this enterprise, we must continue to call attention of the citizens of McCook to the fact there still remains to be done no small stunt in the work of securing additional subscriptions.

To carry on to completion this magnificent enterprise will require that $10,000 or $15,000 more stock be sold, assuming that the work shall be carried out on the scale contemplated, in a first-class manner.

This burden should be carried by the entire community—every patriotic citizen should have a part in this building. If you have not done your duty in this regard see one of the committee right away and be liberal.

Get the habit. Become a boomer. This is a most deserving place to put some of your surplus or earnings. It is a safe investment and besides will benefit the entire city.

Remember, that it is required that this enterprise shall be completed without debt and this places upon the finance committee the added necessity of providing all the funds in advance of its completion. Have you, my fellow citizen, performed your part?

Spar Deln Geitl

A New System.

Anticipating the establishment by the postoffice department of its free city delivery system, the city officials are arranging an entirely new system of naming the streets of the city, and an ordinance covering the matter is now in preparation, and will shortly be promulgated.

The new system in fine provides for designating the names of the streets running from south to north by the letters of the alphabet; that is, what is now known as Railroad street will be styled A street; Dennison street will be B street and so on north to the end of the platted streets of the city.

The streets running east and west will be designated by numbers, using Main avenue as the center and retaining that name; that is, Marshall street will be 1st street east, or east 1st street; and Manchester will be 1st street west, or west 1st street; and so on to the last platted street, both east and west.

This will provide for any probable expansion the city may have, without changing the system, and provides the simplest possible manner of designating streets,—the system now being used in late methods of naming streets.

Under the new plan, one now living at the corner of Main avenue and Dakota street will be at corner of Main and 1st street west. A resident of Marshall and Dearborn will be at the corner of E and 1st street east.

This will be a radical change, but is easily understood and with a little attention by the people of the city will soon be grasped, and the matter of directing strangers in the city will be much simplified.

All streets will be designated by signs and all houses and business places in the city will be compelled to have their proper numbers indicated on their buildings.

Down Town, Next Week.

Col. Sutton and his spell-binders pleased the usual large crowd in the city park, last evening. By arrangement the concerts will hereafter alternate between the park and Main avenue. Next week, the concert will be down town. Rev. Carman among his announcements referred to the need of further contributions to finance the concerts for the summer season.

Interment in Hastings.

Mrs. Clara M. Olmstead, sister of Miss Genevieve Feeny and cousin of Mrs. P. F. McKenna, died in Denver, Tuesday morning, July 7th. The remains were shipped to Hastings on No. 2, last Thursday morning, accompanied by brothers, sisters and relatives of McCook, and the funeral was held on that day from St. Cecilia's Catholic church.

Was Joyous and Enjoyable.

The "Delta Alphas," Mrs. W. H. Dungan's Sunday-school class of the Methodist church, gave a successful and enjoyable ice cream and cake social at the church, Tuesday evening. They were quite liberally patronized. Music and a social good time were among the items enjoyed by those present.

In New Location.

Attention is directed to the change of place of holding services by the Christian Science friends from the Diamond block to the front room in the Morris block over Ludwick's furniture store. Also to the fact that the room will be kept open at all times to all persons interested.

Farewell Surprises.

The convocation of the "Awl-O's," this week, came on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Anna Hannan. It was an extraordinary session.

Firstly, in the form of a surprise farewell on Miss Kathryn Sawyer. A "peanut search" was the entertainment feature of the evening and refreshments followed. Miss Bessie Peterson acquired the prize. Miss Sawyer received a souvenir spoon from the club as a memento. She expects to leave for Greenacres, Wash., tonight.

Secondly, while in the mood, a "surprise" of Mr. and Mrs. Lester T. Pedley, at train No. 6, where and when the groom was swathed in cheese cloth, and rice and old shoes were added to the advertising of the newly-wedded couple.

This interruption of the young married couple's "get-away" was hilarious and strenuous and unexpected and not entirely appreciated by the retiring and modest groom, but it was all in good part by the "Awls".

Wants to Help Us Boost.

George Irving of Chicago, representing a Town Boosting organization appeared before the businessmen of our city, Monday and Tuesday, in the hope of getting a contract to give McCook their services, which consists in lectures along the line of city improvement and development, an expert engineer service, and in general a service which is designed to stimulate, educate, organize, boost. He was given close attention, and invited to stop on his return from Colorado and receive the decision of our people. The service will cost $500 and its profitability will depend upon the earnestness, energy and persistency with which the people will receive and digest and make effective the information imparted, the directions given.

National Corn Exposition.

J. T. O. Stewart, traveling representative of the Burlington, was in town, yesterday morning, in the interest of the National Corn Exposition to be held in Omaha, December 9 to 19. He sought to interest schools, farmers and business men.

The exposition will be national in scope and educational in purpose. The display will include grains and grasses. The premium list foots up $100,000, with 5,000 prizes, giving all classes an opportunity to compete, including lodges, churches, societies, clubs etc.

An alfalfa palace will be erected and dedicated.

The object of the exposition is to secure better and more scientific farming, and it should appeal to all.

Not by Meat Alone.

Meat isn't the only item of important food on the list, but it is practically indispensable to the average American citizen. And this suggests that good meat is more desirable and essential than indifferent or poor articles. Selling good meats is the exclusive business of D. C. Marsh. To be able to sell good meats you must be able to know good beef cattle when you see them. That is part of Mr. Marsh's business. He goes farther—when he sees good ones he buys them. And then the process of placing the best meat in the world before his customers is the regular every-day routine of his market. And good meats at his shop are just as cheap as poorer articles.

Many New Things.

Believing that the people of McCook have never had the proper chance to preserve the life of their shoes, or improve their looks by using the right kind of dressing for them, we invite you to call at our store and let us show you that one kind of polish won't do for ALL kinds of shoes. We've just received a very complete assortment of different kinds of dressings, friction polishes, pastes and creams, and can show you many new things.

Respectfully,

VIERSEN & STANDISH.

A Promising Session.

The session of the city council this evening bids fair to be of more than usual interest, and to have the presence of a number of citizens. Several matters of moment are incubating. McCook is an expanding town of multiplying interests and her council sessions may well receive more attention from her citizenship.

Moved With Safety.

The large frame store building of the C. L. DeGroff Co. was safely moved, end-of-week, to its temporary site on East Dennison street, immediately north of where their new two-story brick will be built, and which they hope to occupy by the first of the year.

Baptists Have a Social.

The Baptists people promoted a profitable ice cream social, Tuesday evening, on the lawn at W. F. Everist's residence. Chinese lanterns in numbers provided the illumination. They were well patronized and a jolly good social time was had.

Great Circus and Menagerie.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace shows which spread their canvas in McCook, last week Friday, gave a splendid circus performance and the finest exhibition and performance by animals ever seen in McCook.

But the amazing thing about the affair was the brazen openness of their gambling, which was carried on in the animal tent without any effort at hiding or covering up. The "barkers" and "cappers" were in evidence and the procedure in open violation of the law.

But another even more amazing fact remains to be mentioned, namely, this gambling was witnessed with apparent unconcern by the officers! No arrests were made! No attempt made to close up the games by which the unsophisticated were fleeced!

A Private Wedding.

Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock, Miss Kerstin Stangland of our city and Mr. Lester Theodore Pedley of Curtis were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knud K. Stangland in our city. The ceremony was very private and was performed by Rev. M. B. Carman.

The bride has been a teacher in the Bertrand public schools for past few years. She spent most of her life in McCook and has a large circle of friends who will join us in wishing her much happiness.

The groom is a druggist at Curtis, where they will make their home.

They departed the same night for Curtis, via Holdrege, to be "at home" after September 1st.

Famous Case Closed.

The city authorities closed the famous water damage case, this week Monday, by paying James McAdams $830.51. This case has run the gauntlet of the courts for years, both district and supreme. The amount paid Mr. McAdams represents the amount of damage allowed by the courts, together with interest.

Besides, a warrant was also ordered drawn in the sum of $109.85, representing the costs due the clerk of the district court and the sheriff in this case, making the total $940.36.

Junior Normal Feature.

Chapel hour at the normal, Wednesday morning, was featured by Mr. George J. Heckman's violin numbers. He opened with "Apple Blossoms," a reverie; responded to generous applause, and for a final encore gave an appealing rendition of "Home, Sweet Home" in tender, touching tones. Miss Deborah Heckman accompanied her brother. Mr. Heckman has a studio in Denver, but is enjoying a vacation at home. He is a young violinist of much promise and is winning his way in Denver.
