RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted by McCook Lodge No. 599, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers on the death of Brother George Snoko:

Whereas, through the sudden death of George Snoko we have lost a faithful friend and brother, whose loyalty of purpose helped to advance our welfare; therefore be it

Resolved, that the members of this lodge do hereby express a keen sense of gratitude for the benefit his assistance has been to our order; that we hold dear the memory of our late brother and take comfort and consolation in the knowledge that our temporary loss is his eternal gain; be it further

Resolved, that as a token of respect to the memory of our late brother George Snoko, that a page of our records be set apart to his memory; that the charter of this lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to his nearest surviving relative and that a copy be published in the local paper.

How to Beat the Mail Order Folks.

There, Mr. Man, don't cry!
They have broken your heart, I know,
And the trade that you had, which made you glad,
Is a thing of the Long Ago.

But still you can get it back—
There is hope for the man who tries.
To recover your trade you have got to wade
Right in and ADVERTISE!

He's From Missouri; You Have to Show Him.

Governor Folk is from Missouri. He's regarded as a pretty good citizen himself. See what he says about a certain sort of citizen:

"I do not believe in the mail order citizen. IT IS BETTER THAT WE SHOULD HAVE A THOUSAND TOWNS THAN ONE LARGE CITY. If a place is good enough for a man to make his money in, it certainly should be good enough for him to spend his money in. The merchants have a just right to all the business of the town in which they have their stores, and every good citizen will help them to get it."

Did you ever see a FINE LARGE FACT so simply stated?

Patronize Home Talent—It Pays.

Last month a merchant a thousand miles from Chicago wanted to place over his store an electric light sign he had heard about in Chicago. Made a special trip there for specifications and terms. Too high!

Mr. Merchant returned home and incidentally told the local electrician about his troubles. Mr. Home Electrician replied that he could reproduce the Chicago sign, with improvements, at a price that suited. And he did so. JUST THINK THIS OVER, WILL YOU?

When you give a present you like for it to be the proper present, do you not?

Therefore, should you not come and buy these presents before "the rush" and while you have a large line to pick from and when you will be sure to get just the things you wish to give away.

Clothes make sensible presents, especially for your family.

A nice pair of stockings, silk neck-ties, a silk umbrella, a fur scarf or good table linen will make suitable, sensible presents for your friends.

Suppose you come and see if we have not just the things you wish for gifts.

Cordially,

C. L. DeGROFF & CO.
