LAST McCOOK NEWS.

Mrs. James Harris is down from Hagler on a visit to her son Thomas.

The 15th anniversary of the organization of the U. M. S. Sunday-school was observed, last Saturday afternoon. A. C. Marsh was elected superintendent. The Sunday school is lining up for more successful work in the future.

The other officers chosen are: Bessie Kuesel, secretary; Daisy Porter, assistant secretary; A. C. Marsh, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Helen B. Field, organist.

Miss Mabel Randal entertained a small company of young friends, last Friday evening, at the farm home, with happy results.

In the Baptist Church.

A series of revival meetings will be held in the Baptist church beginning February 21st. Rev. J. H. Clay of Holdrege has been secured to do the preaching. Mr. Clay is a very able preacher and a powerful evangelist. Get ready to hear him.

C. R. Klager, the Jeweler, 1000 Virginia avenue, Holdrege, Neb., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Finally I used Foley's Kidney Remedy and my complexion cleared up, my back aches and the irregularities disappeared, and I could not stand to bust every day, and recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." A. McMillen, druggist, McCook.

IN BLACK AND WHITE.

The Tribune has for sale a nice display of local view post cards in colors and in black and white. Also a well selected line of greeting and other post cards.

Hexamethylene-tetramine.

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the most valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylene-tetramine is recognized by medical text-books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. Sold by A. McMillen.
