

COMING TO MCCOOK

Chief of Staff of Hot Springs Doctors on Annual Tour

COMMERCIAL HOTEL, MAY 5

He Will Make No Charge for Consultation or for Examination

The Chief of Staff of the Hot Springs Doctors is making his annual tour of the state, visiting the towns and cities, calling on their patients in each community, and consulting with new patients who are desirous of the great treatment that cures all chronic and nervous diseases of men and women. The phenomenal success of the Hot Springs treatment is due to the fact that it removes from the patient's system the cause of disease; usually doctors treat the symptoms of the case, instead of making a complete diagnosis and then removing the cause as do these specialists.

The human body has been the life study of these noted specialists, their skill in the matter of medical diagnosis puts them in the front ranks of American Specialists. After they make a painstaking examination they are in a position to state positively whether or not a cure is possible; if not they tell the patient so and refuse to undertake a cure. If they do undertake a cure the patient is cured. They do this at extremely reasonable cost, they ask no fee at all until the patient is completely cured.

The highest standard of quality is the only standard in the medicines used by the Hot Springs Doctors. These expensive medicines are especially prepared for each case, they are from the world's best laboratory, guaranteed by the pure food laws, eliminating all possibility of anyone taking into their system any poisonous drugs. A cure is sure and permanent as a result of taking the world famous Hot Springs home treatment.

Chronic and nervous diseases like rheumatism, asthma, bronchitis, goiter, diseases of the heart, blood and lung diseases, catarrh, gallstones, epilepsy, kidney, stomach and bladder troubles and female diseases must yield to the treatment as given by these noted Specialists. In their Lincoln offices are thousands of letters from people who have been restored to health, in many instances these people could not have been cured were it not for the Hot Springs treatment. For example take the case of Mrs. White who lives at University Place, Nebraska. These Specialists made a careful examination of her case and found that she was suffering from rheumatism, kidney and stomach trouble. After taking treatment, here is what she says in her own words:

University Place, Nebraska, April 18, 1909.

Words almost fail me to tell how thankful I am for renewed health and strength after suffering with stomach trouble which eventually reached a stage where I could scarcely retain food, and suffered great pain. To add to my trouble I was also afflicted with rheumatism which swelled my feet and hands so that I was helpless. I tried several local doctors but their treatment failed to give me any relief. I began to take the Hot Springs Doctors' treatment and commenced to improve at once, and now at the end of twelve months I am entirely recovered and feel as well as at any time of my life. I am glad to recommend the Hot Springs treatment for what it has done for me, to any who may be afflicted in the way I have been.

Mrs. H. R. White.

Here is a testimonial letter from Smith Center, Kansas, that is interesting:

Smith Center, Kansas, April 14, 1909.

Mrs. Amis is getting along just fine; has not had any of her old dropsical trouble at all this year. It has been just about one year since Kind Providence sent you to Smith Center, and we are certainly thankful for the help you have rendered us. Wishing you unbounded success, we are as ever, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Amis.

The treatment that has cured these people and restored thousands of others to health is available to the people in this section for it is this wonderful system of treatment that the Chief of Staff of the Hot Springs Doctors brings to us on May 5th, at Commercial Hotel.

As the Specialist will be here only one day, it is respectfully requested that people do not call out of idle curiosity. He will be busy with patients who really need his services and it would be an imposition to take up his time idly. It is also important to announce that married women who wish to consult the Chief of Staff must be accompanied by their husbands, and all minors by their parents. If you are suffering with any chronic or nervous disease and desire to be restored to health, vigor and happiness, don't fail to call MAY 5th, 1909.

The permanent offices of the Hot Springs Doctors are located at 14th and O streets, Lincoln, Nebraska.

THE PURE FOOD LAW

Effects the meat question. In fact, one of the vital points in eating is the securing of pure, fresh meats—wholesome flesh. That's the kind we sell. Quality is the first consideration with us. We keep our large and increasing patronage on that basis.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN

Conducted by the McCook W. C. T. U.

THE DAYLIGHT SALOON LAW.

In the closing hours of the legislature a great surprise awaited both temperance and liquor forces, when on Friday the bill providing for closing the saloons on primary election days, and from 8 p. m. to 7 a. m. This bill had been defeated in the House early in March, but as Senate File 283 it returned to the House where its passage was one of the most dramatic events of the session. Representative Fogarty of Greeley county voted, was recorded "aye" by the clerk, and returned to his newspaper, when he became so much engrossed he did not hear the two roll calls for verification. At their close a friend commented upon his vote, and he woke up to the fact that he had been mistakenly recorded. The question was raised and Mr. Fogarty asked to change his vote, but it was too late. There was great excitement thereupon, as the measure had carried by one vote. The gentleman from Greeley refused to avail himself of his parliamentary right to move a reconsideration, and declared he would make no effort to change it. The legislature adjourned in less than twenty-four hours, and the bill went to the Governor.

Great speculation was rife as to what he would do with it. All day Sunday both sides were gathering momentum to descend upon him with an index of popular opinions. His Sabbath rest was broken by bags of letters and telegrams, and even delegations of visitors from Omaha. Monday morning the temperance people took possession of the State House an hour before the Governor arrived, the Lincoln people having an audience at ten o'clock, and those from Omaha at eleven. The tragic death of Ex-Governor Poynter, threw a pall over the proceedings, and from that time the Governor refused to see the delegations and met only committees from them. Mrs. Heald was addressing the Governor when Mr. Poynter was carried from the room, but fortunately she knew nothing of it then.

A committee from the Omaha union was received by him, and given assurance that there was an element not small—in the metropolis who greatly hoped he would sign the bill. But there were other species of delegations awaiting him. A special train with 700 men seeking his veto, came in also Monday morning and besieged him with the argument that it would ruin Omaha. Alas, if Omaha's prosperity is built upon the open bar-room and the hosts of ruined boys and girls each year, the fate of San Francisco is too good for her, and alas, if a measure that is beneficial to all other towns must be defeated because it might work a financial sacrifice to a certain line of business in Omaha.

However, the Governor gave no intimation to his visitors on that day how he would act, but on Thursday, April 6, just before closing his office to go to Ex-Governor Poynter's funeral he set his name to the bill and it became a law to go into effect July 1st.

The measure has with the exception of Omaha, been well received throughout the state, and the Governor honored for his manly action. The temperance people feel it to be the greatest victory of the year, indeed of many years, and while it has no doubt worked a hardship in causing many towns that would have become "dry" on Tuesday, to accept this measure as a compromise, it will prove as it has in Lincoln, no abiding substitute for prohibition. Not a note has been sounded that would indicate that it has put off the day—state-wide prohibition. It has tightened the cords of restriction about the saloon-keeper, especially in its provision, "a violation shall be followed by forfeiture of license whether an appeal is taken or not. Surely the day of judgment is hastening on, for the business, and the W. C. T. U. will answer the slogan "Nebraska dry in 1910 for it is not by might nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

Simple Remedy for LaGrippe.

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. A. McMillen, Druggist, McCook.

If Your Tastes Are

too fine for letter press printing—if they demand engraving and steel die embossing—come and get our figures on such work. Don't send away or give your order to some traveling shark—that is, don't do it before you have seen our samples of such work and gotten our figures.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package.—A. McMillen, Druggist.

If you have headache and urinary troubles you should take Foley's Kidney Remedy to strengthen and build up the kidneys so they will act properly. As a serious kidney trouble may develop.—A. McMillen, Druggist.

Things Theatrical.

Miss Consuelo Bailey has been engaged for Roy McArdeil's play, "The Gay Life."

Alice Fisher is to appear in vaudeville in a condensed version of "Captain Jack."

William Collier is writing the book and A. Baldwin Sloane the music of a new musical comedy.

Clyde Fitch's new comedy, "The Bachelor," was produced recently with Charles Cherry as the star.

William A. Brady and Joseph Grismer have completed arrangements to star Cyril Scott in a dramatization of the popular novel "The Brass Bowl."

Why Tailors Sit Crosslegged.

A tailor making a dress coat sat crosslegged on a table, like a Turk. "Why do tailors always work in that uncomfortable position?" asked a visitor.

"Women's tailors don't. Only men's do," was the reply. "And for men's tailors it is the most comfortable and the most convenient position possible. You see, the sewing on men's clothes is very fine. The work must be held up close to the eyes. Well, in this position I lean the work on my elevated knees, and thus it is nearer my eyes, while at the same time my back remains straight. Analyzed, the position is a fine one. It keeps the back straight and the chest out, the knees make a table close up to the face, and eye strain is avoided."

"Tailors for women sit on chairs. For one thing, the sewing on women's clothes is less fine than on men's. For another, the woman's tailor has to get up every few minutes to go to the manikin, and all that rising, if he sat crosslegged on the floor, would tire him too much in the day's run."—New York Press.

No Suffering Too Great.

Not long since a young woman suffering with an incurable disease applied for admission to a hospital in a southern city.

"I know I must die," she said simply to the attendant physician, "but do something to keep me alive for a little while for my babies' sake. In a few years they will not need me so much."

Her one chance lay in a very painful operation, but her heart was so weak that the surgeon dared not administer an anesthetic. Very gently he explained the situation—the operation would make but a year's difference at most; it seemed hardly worth while to suffer so much for so brief a respite; she would best go home and wait. But the little woman shook her head.

With mother love shining in her eyes, she allowed herself to be strapped upon the operating table and there willingly underwent the torture of the knife that gave her a few months to devote to her precious babies.—Delineator.

Marlborough House.

Marlborough House is one of the numerous buildings of Sir Christopher Wren. It was built at a cost of £44,000, the whole of which was defrayed by the duke. Here the great duchess lived till her death in 1744, wearing an incessant warfare upon the society of her time. Here, too, she received a deputation of the lord mayor and sheriffs of London while still in bed, an incident which was satirized by Gay: Acquainted with the world and quite well bred, Drusa receives her visitants in bed.

In the earlier years of the nineteenth century Marlborough House was rented by Leopold, king of the Belgians. It was afterward bestowed by the crown upon Queen Adelaide, the dowager of William IV.—London Chronicle.

The Savage Pike.

There are several instances on record of bathers being attacked by pike, and an old writer, Crull, tells of a giant pike inside which was found the body of an infant. Not long ago a good sized retriever which was swimming in the Thames just above Chitty's bathhouse at Richmond was tackled by a pike, which bit one of its hind legs so badly as to sever an artery. It was another Thames pike which attacked that well known naturalist and fisherman, Mr. Cholmondeley-Pennell. He had actually landed the fish, when it sprang from the ground and fixed all its sharp teeth into his leg just above the knee. The creature lunged so fiercely to its hold that a stick had to be used to pry its jaws apart.—Chambers' Journal.

Force of Habit.

In reward of faithful political service an ambitious saloon keeper was appointed police magistrate. "What's the charge agin this man?" he inquired when the first case was called. "Drunk, yer honor," said the policeman. The newly made magistrate frowned upon the trembling defendant. "Guilty or not guilty?" he demanded. "Sure, sir," faltered the accused. "I never drink a drop." "Have a cigar, then," urged his honor persuasively, as he absently polished the top of the judicial desk with his pocket handkerchief.—Everybody's.

A Want.

"I have here a device," said the inventor, "to increase the speed of motor cars." The patent attorney frowned and shook his head. "But what we really want," said he, "is a device to increase the speed of the pedestrians who have to dodge them."—Exchange.

And Catches Him.

"Man," declared the old fashioned preacher, "is a worm." "And," said a man who had been married three times and who was occupying a small space in a rear pew, "woman is the early bird."—Chicago Record-Herald.

An Impossible Man.

"Why did you marry me?" "Because I thought you were different from other men." "And now you want a divorce because you were mistaken?" "No; because I was right."—Cleveland Leader.

I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all distant hopes that lure us on.—Groves.

County Commissioners' Proceedings.

McCook, Nebraska, April 17th, 1909.

The board of county commissioners met pursuant to the call of the county clerk of which the following is a true copy:

State of Nebraska, Red Willow county, ss.

To all whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that a special session of the board of county commissioners will be held at the clerk's office at the court house at McCook, on Saturday, April 17th, 1909, at one o'clock P. M., for the purpose of approving official appointments and bonds and to transact such other business as may properly come before the board.

Dated this 12th day of April, 1909.

(County Seal) CHAS. SKALLA, County Clerk.

Present, S. Premer, C. B. Gray and F. S. Lofton, county commissioners, Sidney Dodge, county attorney, and Chas. Skalla, county clerk;

A motion was made by Lofton, seconded by Gray, as follows: Whereas, on the 9th day of March, 1908, at a session of the county board then held, public road No. 42½ was granted establishing a public road in Perry precinct on the north side along the railroad right-of-way to the point of intersection of said right-of-way with the west line of section 18-3-30, and thence north on said section line to the northwest corner of said section 18-3-30, which latter part of said road is on the county line between Red Willow and Hitchcock counties, and which latter part of said road was granted with the understanding that it was concurrent action with the county board of Hitchcock county; and whereas, it appears to the county board, that no concurrent action on said part of road No. 42½ was taken by the county board of Hitchcock county, as required by Sec. 6087 of Cobby's Compiled Statutes of 1907, concerning roads along county lines, the county clerk is therefore instructed to notify the overseer of highways that he is hereby instructed and ordered by the board of county commissioners not to open that part of said road No. 42½ running north and south on the county line between Red Willow and Hitchcock counties, on the west side of section 18-3-30, nor to appropriate any part of the land along said section line to Red Willow county for road purposes. Motion carried unanimously.

The following official bonds were examined and on motion approved: Chas. W. Kelley, deputy clerk of the district court; A. C. Childers, overseer of highways, district No. 39, Lebanon precinct.

Articles of agreement with Dr. R. C. Campbell, Dr. H. J. Arbogast and Dr. C. L. Fahnestock, county physicians, were examined and approved and ordered placed on file.

The petition of Andy Barber and others, asking for the vacation of that part of county road No. 335, commencing at the northwest corner of section 14-4-28, and thence running east one mile to the northeast corner of section 14-4-28, was read and considered, and the board being of the opinion that the public good requires said vacation, as said road has not been used by the public since its establishment, on motion said petition was granted and the road vacated as petitioned for and the clerk was instructed to notify the overseer of highways of said vacation.

On motion the county treasurer was instructed to refund to C. G. Cogizer the sum of $2.50, being the amount of poll tax illegally assessed against him in 1908 and paid by him under protest.

On motion the county treasurer was instructed to refund to W. S. Coleman the sum of $15.50, being the amount assessed on improvements on lot 13, block 29, Indianola city, in 1908, when said improvements were erected after the time for assessing, and which amount was paid by W. S. Coleman under protest.

The claim for refund of A. Monks, for taxes paid under protest, for reason of uneven assessment, was on motion rejected, as the board has no right at this time to equalize valuations.

On motion the board adjourned sine die.

S. PREMER, Chairman.

Attest: CHAS. SKALLA, County Clerk.
