Qualifications of Voters.

The recent legislature passed a law which goes into effect in July which is very important to voters who do not have their second papers of citizenship. When a foreigner takes out his first papers he may vote for five years by virtue of those first papers, then he can take out his second papers. If he fails to take them out at the end of five years he is not to vote until he does take them out. Heretofore men could vote without taking out their second papers but they cannot do so after next July. This is the information given by the clerk of the district court. Thus it stands voters in hand to take out their final papers before another election or run the risk of being refused to vote.

Mrs. Frank DeLong is Dead.

After long suffering with cancer, Mrs. Frank DeLong passed to rest, Tuesday afternoon of this week. Funeral services were conducted at the home, Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. M. B. Carman, burial ensuing in Longview cemetery.

ANNIE MAY VINCENT was born on July 22, 1862, in Harmony, Rock county, Wisconsin. Was united in marriage with Frank DeLong in Clair county, Illinois, May 13, 1879. Seven sons were born to them, four surviving. Came from Oberlin, Kansas, to McCook about nine years ago. Departed was a member of the Methodist church. Had been a great, but patient, sufferer since last November.

Bereaved husband and sons have the sympathy of many in this sorrow.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to remember in gratitude and thankfulness all who assisted during the long illness and after the death of our dear wife and mother.

Frank DeLong and sons

Hoisting Machinery Wrecked.

The hoisting machinery at the coal chute was partially wrecked, Wednesday morning, and the upper part of the engine house damaged considerably by an unusual and remarkable accident, resulting from the failure of the dog in the drum to hold and letting the machinery run at an impossible speed. Pieces of the cog wheels and machinery were hurled through the bottom and end of the house with incredible speed, but most fortunately neither of the two men in that part of the building were injured. A large piece of casting was hurled through the round house and on into the machine shop, and smaller pieces rattled against the round house and about the neighborhood.

Work is progressing on repairs, broken parts have been wired for, and operations will be possible in a few days.

Robert Moore, Jr., Dead.

After two months of sickness, Robert Moore, Jr., of Coleman precinct, passed away, Wednesday morning, fortified with all the rites of the church. Departed was 17 years of age. Solemn high mass was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Kirwin, celebrant, Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock, interment following in Calvary cemetery.

Robert Francis Moore was born in Edgemont, S. D., January 25, 1892.

Joke on the Jokers.

Those gentlemen who connected with the telephone wire, Tuesday, to secure cheap light service, doubtless appreciated the joke when they awoke on the following morning, to find about forty feet of wire missing.

The phone people were annoyed by the short circuit created, and located the difficulty, removing the wire while the gentlemen occupying the room were sleeping, without disturbing them.

On "Bargain Square."

About twenty-five lace curtains used for samples and slightly soiled and mused. Regular prices up to $5.00 a pair. Offered now from 25c each up. This is the time of year when you need curtains. The watchful prudent housewives will get them. Will you be one of the number? The Thompson D. G. Co. The Utmost Service.

Rip Van Winkle.

S. C. Beach and the Players' club achieved a highly gratifying histrionic success, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week, in their rendering of Rip Van Winkle. The performances were highly creditable and worthy of even greater appreciation than was accorded.

They Attended State Meeting at York.

Mrs. W. G. Dutton, Mrs. Mary Walker and Mrs. Mary E. Rhoad attended the state meeting of the Ladies of the G. A. R. at York, last week, representing the local order. Mrs. Dutton was made a member of the national council and Mrs. Rhoad was chosen a delegate to the national meeting.

THE PUBLISHER.

Rev. Kirwin Arrives Home.

Rev. Kirwin of St. Patrick's church arrived home, last Friday evening, from his trip abroad, where he was called unexpectedly a number of weeks since. During his absence he visited Naples and Rome in Italy and Nice and Lourdes in France.

Last Sunday at both masses, he described his audience with Pope Pius in vivid colors, to the keenest appreciation of his parishioners. His description covered particularly St. Peter's and the vatican. Rev. Kirwin had the pleasure of obtaining the apostolic blessing for himself and family and for all the members of St. Patrick's church and their families. While the pope is 74 years of age, Rev. Kirwin states that the holy father carries himself remarkably considering the great pressure of many duties.

Of the places of note visited by Rev. Kirwin, none impressed him with more power than did Lourdes, France. He told of this great shrine of miraculous healing, especially of the grotto where the blessed virgin is said to have appeared to Bernadette, and of the basilica built almost over the grotto, etc.

Rev. Kirwin expressed himself as greatly pleased to be back among his people of St. Patrick's.
