NET PROCEEDS OF THE RENTALS

To Be Used In Further Financing the Big Temple-Theatre Project, Which Requires About $10,000 More To Complete Same.

Though the meeting of the stockholders of the Masonic Temple-Theatre project was not numerously attended, Monday afternoon, very considerably more than half of the stock was represented, almost 2,700 shares being represented in person or by proxy.

Reports were read showing financial condition of the enterprise, and indicating that $10,000 more money would be required to complete the building in first-class style in every particular.

The alternative of issuing more stock, or of using the net proceeds of rentals from the building was offered, and by a unanimous vote of the stockholders it was decided, and we think wisely, to devote the net proceeds from the building's rentals, rather than to issue additional stock, which would require also that the capital stock of the association be increased.

It was the aggregate opinion that the building should be completed in good style, not skimped in final and interior details, which has not been the intention of the board of directors.

This action of the stockholders places the board of directors in position now to push along the enterprise to its final completion without much delay.

As a National Bank.

The Citizens Bank received telegraphic instruction, Tuesday, to commence business on June 9th, 1909, as a national bank, hence on Wednesday morning, under orders from the comptroller of the currency, the Citizens National Bank of McCook opened up for business with a capital stock of $50,000; surplus of $25,000, and undivided profits of $9,000.

We are advised that the bank has purchased government bonds to the amount of $50,000 at a very low premium and will issue bank notes in full of that sum.

The Citizens Bank was established in McCook in 1882 and has always kept pace with the development and growth of the city and country, meeting all the requirements and demands of its patrons for financial assistance; at the same time being regarded as one of the strong and conservative state banks of Nebraska.

Consequently, we have no doubt but that the Citizens National Bank will rank among the strong and progressive national banking institutions of the state.

The officers remain practically unchanged, but to meet the requirements of the national banking laws two additional directors have been elected; they are: G. H. Watkins and Vernice Franklin.

The entire directorate is: V. Franklin, president; James S. Doyle, vice-president; A. C. Ebert, cashier; G. H. Watkins, assistant cashier; Vernice Franklin, director.

BRYAN DOYLE'S TERRIBLE DEATH

Is Thrown From Horse and Dragged and Kicked to Death by the Frightened Animal.

ACCIDENT SUNDAY EVENING AT BOX ELDER

Dead Boy Was Mounting to Attend Church -- Services and Burial at Box Elder on Tuesday Afternoon -- Large Attendance of Sympathizing Friends and Neighbors.

Last Sunday evening, Bryan, the thirteen year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Doyle, Sr., of Box Elder, came to his death in a most tragic and terrible manner. Bryan was on his way, horseback, to church at Box Elder, when the animal became unmanageable and threw him off. One of his feet caught and remained in a stirrup, and the frightened and maddened horse kicked and dragged the unfortunate boy for a distance of about eighty rods, until the stirrup broke near the store at Box Elder. Life was practically extinct when the body was released from the runaway horse. Medical assistance was called from this city, but death had closed this chapter of the frightful accident before the arrival of the doctor. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Box Elder on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. M. S. Satchell of Oxford, a former pastor of that church, conducting the same. A large outpouring of the relatives and of friends from that neighborhood and from this city attested by their presence their deep and tender sympathy for the bereaved parents and family in this appalling accident and great sorrow. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Box Elder.

Bryan Doyle was born on the ranch near Box Elder, July 3rd, 1896. Died at Box Elder, June 6th, 1909.

A Recommendation.

Miss Emma Burrows entered Ripon College Conservatory of Music in the fall of 1906, with the intention of completing the course in piano for graduation. She brought not only a good measure of musical talent, but also considerable musical knowledge and experience gained through previous training, to the task she had set herself, and was thus enabled through diligent and intelligent effort, to progress rapidly toward her coveted goal. She played her public recital in June, 1908, with credit to herself and to her teacher.

Her character and personality are splendid, and I take great pleasure in recommending her as a teacher, a performer, and as an individual and a lady.

Sincerely,

THEODORE F. MEIER,

Director of Ripon College Conservatory of Music.

Attention, I. O. O. F.

All members and visiting Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are requested to meet at the hall, next Sunday morning at nine o'clock prompt, when they will proceed to the cemetery to pay their tribute to the members who have gone before. All are requested to bring flowers. Returning, we will attend the Baptist church for the morning service.

Drowned in Irrigation Ditch.

Last Thursday, the three-year-old son of Dave Eckhart of near Culbertson was drowned in the irrigation ditch which passes near their house. The members of the family were preparing to go on a visit and during the time the father was getting the horses ready and the mother was making final preparations in the house, the little boy was given over to the attention and care of the other children. It is not known how he fell into the ditch, but his body was found about a mile down the stream. The remains were buried in the Culbertson cemetery, last Friday. The family formerly lived south of this city.

No Club Quorum.

The play, the rain and other affairs denied the commercial club a quorum, Tuesday evening. It is hoped to begin arrangements for some appropriate celebration of the removal of the club into its new quarters in the temple-theatre block, about July 15th, and a special session will likely be had soon of the club or its executive committee to complete the necessary details for the auspicious event.

Stage Scenery and the Decorating. After practically an all day session, last Friday, the board of directors of the temple-theatre block have made contracts covering the decorating of the entire interior of the building and for the stage settings, fixtures etc. This leaves the seating contract about the only one of any moment to be provided for.

JUNIOR NORMAL OPENS

Seventh Annual Session Commences Auspiciously.

A SATISFACTORY ENROLLMENT

Hitchcock Unites With Red Willow in County Institute, This Week—Roberson Lecture Given, Last Night.

The McCook Junior State Normal School commenced its seventh annual session, last Monday morning, June 7th, Sup't Charles W. Taylor of the McCook public schools, as principal in charge. He is assisted by County Sup't Claudia B. Hatcher, registrar-treasurer; Sup't H. M. Garrett of Ashland, Neb., teaching physiology, botany, physics, penmanship and drawing; Sup't W. T. Davis of Beaver City, arithmetic, pedagogy, and geography; Sup't L. W. Colebank of Curtis, history, orthography; book-keeping, and agriculture; Miss Julia Bednar, principal McCook high school, grammar, English composition, reading, and music; Sup't C. F. White of Trenton, mental arithmetic, civics, algebra, and geometry; Miss Mima C. Doyle of Omaha in charge of model school.

The sessions open with an enrollment of approaching 150, almost all of them full-term enrollments.

This being institute week for both Red Willow county and Hitchcock county these two counties are exceptionally well represented.

The late date at which arrangements were, under the new law completed, precluded the usual large attendance, but opening week enrollment is very satisfactory and there is every reason to expect the most thorough work and results from this session of eight weeks opened thus auspiciously.

Thursday night Frank Roberson gave his famous "Messina" motion picture lecture before a crowded auditorium in the high school building.
