Children's Day Exercises.

The Congregational Sunday-school held its "Children's Day" exercises on last Sunday evening before a good audience of appreciative people. The little ones of the school presented an exercise entitled, "Opened Door," a missionary idea put into songs and dialogue and recitation. A collection was lifted for the Congregational Sunday school Publishing Society of quite generous amount. The efforts of the little ones, as usual, were greatly enjoyed.
Nearness to "Flag Day" made the flag and bunting decorations appropriate. They always warm the heart.

Fraternal Notice.
Sunday, June 13, being Memorial day for the Ancient Order of United Workman, Degree of Honor, Modern Woodman of America and Royal Neighbors of America, the members of these societies are requested to bring flowers to and meet at Diamond's ball at 2 p. m. of said day, from where we will go in a body to the cemeteries, and decorate the graves of deceased brethren.
Services will be held at cemetery.
By Order of Committees.

"The Shadow."
"The Shadow" was quite successfully presented before a good audience in the opera hall, Tuesday evening, by the following cast:
Ned Keene C. O. Moore
Dr. Herbert Leslie Ray Shriner
Richard Glenwood George Kearns
Noah Lott Percy Bell
Bill Burke Dan O'Brien
Florence Glenwood Ethel Stephens
Milly Merton Laura McClain
Kate Burke Lillie Kearns
The play was given under auspices of the Modern Brotherhood of America insurance order.

Children's Day.
It will be observed in the Methodist church, on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A good program has been provided by the Sunday-school with a very pleasing flag drill by the children along educational lines, representing the nations. Everybody invited.

You Stand by Your Home Town

When you buy from a town merchant.
When you patronize a town tailor.
When you employ a town dentist.
When you encourage a town enterprise.
When you speak the town's praises.
When you subscribe for the town's newspaper.
Some citizens fail in some of these duties. A few fail in all of them.
