Marriage of W. H. Anderson.

At a dinner party given by Mrs. O. L. Lewis Monday evening, at her home, 2725 Holdrege street, in honor of her sister, Miss Delia Walz, the announcement of the engagement of Miss Walz and Mr. Wilber H. Anderson of Billings, Mont., was announced. The wedding will take place June 23. The dinner was served at 2:30 p. m. in five courses and the announcement came as a surprise to the guests present. At the appointed time, a dove was lowered from the decorations above the dining table, into the hands of one of the guests, who found a message carried by the bird with the names of the contracting couple. After the surprise of the announcement had subsided, a photograph of the groom was lowered from the ceiling in the same mysterious way. After the last course each of the guests wrote a short poem to the groom. The decorations of the table were magnolia blossoms.—Lincoln Journal.

Vivisection Thieves.

Breaking into houses where funerals have just taken place and plundering them is spoken of by the Berliner Tageblatt as a trick of the thieves of that city. While this may be a new form of criminality in Berlin, says the writer, it is really only an imitation of an incident described by Dion Cassius as having taken place 2,500 years before Christ. The historian says that when the consort of the emperor was laid away in the mausoleum at Memphis a band of Greek marauders entered the deserted palace of the pharaoh and took all the precious stones and metals and the women slaves and reached the banks of the Red sea with their plunder. Only two of the band were captured, and they were turned over by the ruler to the wise men, by whom they were vivisected in the interest of science. No matter how much the robbers of the modern houses of mourning may be despised, they need not fear that form of punishment.

A Telegram That Talked.

At one time when Georgie Drew Barrymore was playing in San Francisco a fabulous sum was offered her by a local theater for her services for a few weeks. The offer was exceedingly tempting, but her contract with Charles Frohman stood in the way. However, on the nothing-venture-nothing-won theory, she telegraphed a detailed statement of the offer she had received to Frohman in New York, explained how anxious she was to accept it and wound up with the plea, "Will you release me?" In due course of time she received the following telegram in answer:
Mrs. Georgie Drew Barrymore, Palace Hotel, San Francisco:
No! CHARLES FROHMAN.
Albeit disappointed, Mrs. Barrymore at once sent this characteristic reply: Charles Frohman, New York City:
Oh!
GEORGIE DREW BARRYMORE.
