Pythian Memorial Day.

Last Sunday, McCook lodge No. 42, Knights of Pythias, observed the anpual Memorial day of the order in their usut . .mpressive manner. Meeting at their castle ball, at one o'clock, the regular ritualistic service was held, af ter which preceded by the Pythian Brigade band they marched to the Congregational church, where Rev. and Sir Knight G. B Hawkes delivered an appropriate address on the subject of "Friendship," one of the cardinal teachings of Pythianism. There was an appropriate anthem by the church choir. From the church the order proceeded to the city cemeteries, where the graves of departed members, and of extravagance has brought her to the dear ones of Pythian families, were duly divorce court and wrecked her happiand lavishly decorated, attended with suitable ceremonial.
