

Furnishing Goods

We have just placed on our shelves the finest and largest line of furnishing goods shipped to this city in many a day.

Wilson Bros.' Shirts

We have them in all the values from $1.00 to $3.00—and none of the latest colors or stripes are omitted.

Hosiery and Suspenders

There is nothing to be desired that you can't find in our line in styles or colors.

Fancy Vests

Just the prettiest stock you ever saw—and they are stylish and nobby—yea nifty.

Young Men's "Graduate" Suits

A new shipment just in this week of these unexcelled suits for young men.

Rozell & Sons

The Leading Clothiers

PRINTER'S INK SPELLS

We Make It SPELL For YOU at Prices So Low They Will Astonish You

Come and Get Those Letter Heads You Have Been Needing So Long

MINOR ITEMS OF NEWS

McConnell for drugs.

Kodaks and kodak supplies. McConnell, druggist.

Kamo Brand at the White House Grocery. Phone 30.

Before making a loan see Earl Barger, the real estate and loan man.

Try our crackers in tin boxes. You will never use any other. HUBER.

McConnell's Blackberry Balsam for hemorrhoids and cholera morbus.

The proceedings of the late commissioners' meetings are completed in this issue.

We have the finest line of Olives and Olive Oil in McCook. The full Reid & Murruck line. HUBER.

The fizz tells in our seidlitz powders. They are always fresh. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

The best of every thing in pure foods are packed under Kamo Brand and label. For sale at the White House Grocery. Phone 30.

Kamo to the housewife means the choicest of foods and table delicacies that the world's markets afford. For sale at the White House Grocery. Phone 30.

Tan and sunburn quickly fade away if you use McConnell's Fragrant Lotion. It should be on every dressing table. Price 25 cents.

Keystona has no equal for painting plastered walls, metal ceilings, woodwork, floors and all interior surfaces. Sold by A. McMillen, druggist.

"Monarch," "Silver Bell" and "White Satin" spell success in good bread and cake baking. Buy the best. McCook Flour and Feed Store.

Books, in infinite variety. Three hundred popular copyrights from which to make your selection. Any one of these books for fifty cents. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

The habit of happiness can best be cultivated by finishing your floors, woodwork, furniture, walls, ceilings, buggies and wagons with Perma-Lac. Sold by Stansberry Lumber Co., McCook, Neb.

Do you have corns? Use McMillen's Sure Corn Cure.

Typewriter ribbons for sale at Tax Tribune office.

Before you start on that trip see Rozell & Sons about a trunk, suit case or traveling bag.

Have you noticed the beautiful effect of Keystona Flat Finish. Sold only by A. McMillen, Druggist.

The W. T. C. U. will hold its regular annual meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Howell on Friday afternoon, Sept. 10. All members are requested to attend.

We are now agents for the Famous Carhartt Overalls and Jackets—also for their Gloves and Caps. HUBER.

The Giannis residence has been purchased by G. W. Watkins. The price named is in the neighborhood of $4,000.

The daintiest perfumes the world produces. Always in stock. Try Thelma. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Wilson Bros. spells the acme in shirt-making. There sizes are always regular and full. In white and colors. Rozell & Son.

Life would oftentimes become dreary and slow and uneventful, lacking interest and spice and vim were it not for Shorty Hosier and his noble steeds.

Quality like blood tells. Quality explains the well-earned popularity of the Famous Loomis High Patent Fours. Sold by McCook Flour and Feed Store.

Better than "good enough" photographs at the new studio, first door north of the Commercial hotel. Sittings from 9 in the morning to 5 in the afternoon.

Excessive perspiration need not trouble you, or be annoying to any one. Just get a box of Spyro Powder. It is delightful and effective. Price 25 cents. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

ENQUIRER—You can easily make an old painted floor look like expensive hardwood. Apply first a coat of Ground Perma-Lac and follow with a coat of either Light Oak or Antique Oak Perma-Lac. For sale by Stansberry Lumber Co., McCook, Neb.

SPOKANE'S NEW CHIEF.

Jim Sam, Head of Indian Tribe, is a Progressive Red Man.

The opening of a portion of the Spokane Indian reservation to settlement under the homestead laws and the participation of Spokane Indians in the pageantry connected with the irrigation congress at Seattle give interest to one of the striking figures of this tribe, Jim Sam, rancher and friend of the white man. He is now head of the Spokane tribe on the Indian reservation, thirty miles northwest of Spokane, in accordance with the wish of Chief Oliver Lott, who lost his life by drowning in a shallow pool below Sheep Creek falls a few weeks ago.

JIM SAM, CHIEF OF SPOKANE.

The induction ceremonies were performed by eight chieftains and headmen of the Coeur d'Alene, Kalispel, Nespelem and Colville tribes and witnessed by 600 persons, including two-score of whites, who were guests at the banquet which closed the all day festivities.

Chief Sam is a fine specimen of the North American Indian, and his conduct of the red men's affairs since the death of Chief Lott shows he has many of the qualities of leadership. He is twenty-six years of age, six feet in height and is as straight as an arrow. He has competed in many of the games on the various reservations in the northwest and has many trophies. He is popular with members of his tribe.

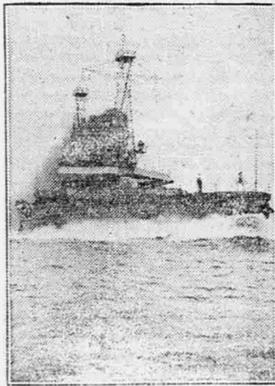

FASTEST BATTLESHIP.

Uncle Sam's New Sea Fighter, the Michigan, and Her Work.

If naval battles of the future are to be the terrible affairs the experts predict, then Uncle Sam's latest addition to his fleet, the Michigan, is the type of sea fighters most needed. Not only did she prove during her recent trial to be the best all around vessel in the navy, but also the fastest battleship we have, making an average speed of between 19 and 20 knots.

The new sea fighter, which is of 16,000 tons displacement, is of what is known among naval men as the semi-Dreadnought class. Her armor and armament being fully up to the standard for her displacement, naval officers are extremely gratified over her fine speed showing. It means, they say, the extreme of efficiency for her size.

Even in the American navy there are faster ships than the Michigan, but not of the battleship class. The cruisers Minneapolis and Columbia can, as a naval officer expressed it, "beat the Michigan with one leg." They have a speed of 23 knots. And the scouts the Chester, the Birmingham and the Salem have made 26 knots. How it impedes a ship to carry fighting implements and defensive equipment is shown by the fact that the Maureana and the Lachand regularly maintain a rate even part to part of 25 knots.

THE BATTLESHIP MICHIGAN.

There are now under construction five sister battleships of the Michigan and four heavy and speedier vessels. Two 23,000 ton battleships have been authorized by congress. When all these are completed America will have thirty-five battleships as distinguished from cruisers and other lighter vessels.

During the trial trip of the Michigan naval officers on board expressed themselves as highly pleased not only with her speed, but also with the workings of her machinery and the ease with which she could be maneuvered. She was announced the best all around ship in the navy. It is declared that she has the ability to average more than 20 knots per hour. The previous record holder for speed of the American navy was the Georgia.

AN AUTHOR'S START.

When Marion Crawford Began His Career as an Author.

Marion Crawford I had known since he was a lad of fourteen years. I, too, was a youngster in those days. We were living in a New Jersey town and he came there to visit his aunt, Mrs. Adolphe Maillard, a sister of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe. Although he came from Italy he dressed as an English lad, with high hat, Eton jacket, wide collar and long trousers. You can imagine the sensation that he made in that quiet New Jersey town. We had had kings and princes as our neighbors, but a young boy in a high hat was unknown to us and therefore much more of a novelty. From those days, which were filled with youthful escapades, I did not see Frank Crawford, as he was then called, until he was a full grown man and had knocked about the world a bit. His uncle, the well known Sam Ward, brought him to the office of the Critic, then consisting of a single small room over Danell's dry goods store in Broadway, New York. "This lad wants to be a writer," said his Uncle Sam. "I wish that you would give him a chance to earn the business." We gave him the chance, not only for old times' sake, but because we liked his looks. "That fellow can do anything he cares to," I remarked after he left the office. So we let him write. He wrote book reviews, editorials and even poetry, and after that he wrote "Mr. Isaacs." You know the rest. From that on it was easy enough. He won out and we knew that, though we had given him the chance he wanted at the time that he wanted it, he would have found it quick enough anywhere else. But he never forgot what he chose to regard as a favor.—Jeannette L. Gilder in Putnam's.

POLENTA.

A Woman Tells of Her Introduction to the Italian Dish.

Did you ever eat polenta? Hear what one woman has to tell you before you say no.

"Just let me tell you about my introduction to this Italian dish. Last summer, after I had closed our camp in the mountains, I was invited to spend the night with an acquaintance who had the next camp.

"She is a charming woman, one who has lived abroad more than in this country. She is devoted to Italy and things Italian, and her cook from southern Italy has been with her several years.

"As I was about to retire my hostess said to me, 'Pardon me, but I didn't think to ask you what you preferred to have for breakfast.' Really, before I had opportunity to frame a reply, she continued, 'We always have polenta; Antonina makes delicious polenta, so I always have it.' I did not know polenta, I was quite sure, but it certainly sounded most attractive, and so I replied, 'I am sure I should like it,' and I went to my room with my appetite already whetted for polenta made by Antonina.

"The next morning I awaited that meal with the greatest expectancy. The polenta was served, and I tasted it. Was it good?

"It certainly was, but I had eaten it hundreds of times before, only we prosaic Americans call it cornmeal mush. 'Truly, that is polenta. A name makes lots of difference, doesn't it?' she concluded.—Houston Post.

Professional Orators.

When Lord Rosmead, then Sir Hercules Robinson, was governor of New South Wales, in the early seventies, it fell to his lot to admit the erstwhile cannibal kingdom of Fiji as an integral part of the British empire. During the incidental ceremonies he noticed that none of the great fighting chiefs spoke in person and that each of them had a professional orator on his staff. As an Irishman, with a strong sense of humor, Sir Hercules was naturally tickled by such a novel situation, and when he got back to Sydney he repeatedly eulogized the arrangement, pointing out that the man of action was very rarely a man of words and that civilization might very well learn a lesson from Pacific chiefs.—London Chronicle.

Well Trained.

A farmer, finding a motor horn in the road, took it home, determined to turn it to some use. So he taught his poultry to gather for meals at its foot, and all nature may be said to have smiled till one morning a motor car passing the farmyard blew a loud blast. The full strength of the poultry yard instantly ran out into the road and began to pursue the car with all the ardor of railway travelers charging into the refreshment room. At the end of the fifth mile fourteen pullets and three roosters succumbed through exhaustion. The rest are still running.—English Paper.

What's in a Name.

Epicure—Walter this steak is positively bad. It must be three weeks old. Walter—Ah, pardon, monsieur! I have made ze mistake and have brought you ze venison. Epicure—Venison? Oh, yes! Then you may leave it. (Tastes it.) Ah, to be sure, it is venison, and very nice, too—very nice, indeed!—Town Topics.

The Poor Poet.

"My husband never gets what he should for his poetry," said the poet's wife, with a tinge of sadness.

"Oh, don't be too hard on him," replied the girl absentmindedly.—Yonkers Statesman.

Who teaches often learns himself.—Italian proverb.

FASHION'S LATEST IDEAS

are correctly pictured in our large and complete showing of Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts and Waists for Fall!

Our new Ready-to-Wear Department opening out on West C Street is now well equipped and we are prepared to show you the best assortment of Ladies' and Misses' Ready-to-Wear Garments, in the lightest, most airy and spacious department in McCook. Make an early visit to this department and you will agree that the style and workmanship of our garments are the very best and our prices the lowest.

New Fall Dress Goods and Silks

All the new weaves in every new shade are shown in this department and you will find our assortment of Black Novelties, Serges, Herringbones, etc. the most complete to be seen in this or even larger cities. Call and give us the opportunity of showing you our line.

Distinctive Millinery

The New Fall Hats we are now showing have a distinction of style—a richness of appearance—an elegance and grace not found in other lines.

Our Tailored Street Hats

are what you are wanting right now. Pay us the courtesy of an early visit.

H. C. CLAPP

Exclusive Dry Goods, Millinery and Ladies' Furnishings

22 MAIN AVENUE PHONE 56 MCCOOK, NEBRASKA

To be satisfied use Kamo.

Everything in drugs. McConnell.

Mrs. J. Jackson, nurse. Phonered 251.

Typewriter ribbons, papers etc. for sale at THE TRIBUNE office.

Feed of all kinds, baled hay etc. at McCook Flour and Feed Store.

School tablets, slates, pencils, ink, erasers, rulers and all school supplies at McMillen's Drug Store.

We have a full line of California Canned Goods in both the Advo and J. M. brands. Nothing superior.

Skins differ as much as faces. Try a bottle of Rexall Cream of Almonds. Special protection to any skin. Price 25 cents.

L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Here's a reliable recipe to follow: Get a good painter to spread Bradley & Vrooman Pure Paint and you've got a good job. Sold by Stansberry Lumber Co., McCook, Neb.

McConnell fills prescriptions.

Mary Harrison, nurse. Phone black 296.

Of course you know Huber keeps the Wedding Breakfast Coffee.

Several apprentice girls wanted at Miss Anderson's millinery store. Apply promptly.

Patronize home industry by smoking "Commercial Club", 10 cent cigar and the "Smoke", 5 cent cigar.

Wauneta and that section of Chase county was quite numerously represented at the McCook chautauqua, last week.

You will make a fair decision if you decide to use the "Sherwin-Williams Paints."

L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

Christopher Columbus reported that the Indians used paint. Must have been Bradley & Vrooman Pure Paint. It lasts longer. Sold by Stansberry Lumber Co., McCook, Neb.

WE all get fooled in these days of automobiles and strange noises, but it is wicked to fool your good money away for high priced low heat-unit coal when you can get the best for the same price. Stop and think—there is Coal, Good Coal, Better Coal, then the Best Coal—and they all bring about the same price in McCook. It would make us blush to say that we were the only ones in town that had the best—but we say, and say it hard—that there is none better in McCook than our Economy and Black Nugget. Quality, Service and a satisfied customer is building our lumber business away beyond our expectations—and we promise you that we will handle our coal business in the same manner—ask our customers—"nuff" said.

Stansberry Lumber Co.