Dedication Next Sunday.

The German Evangelical Lutheran church of this city will be formally dedicated, next Sunday, September 19th. The sermon of dedication will be preached in German in the morning by Rev. R. Finster of Culbertson. The sermon of dedication in English will be preached in the afternoon by Rev. L. Grotheer of Oxford. The building has been erected under the direction of Rev. Wm. Brueggemann, local pastor. Following is the order of services to be observed:

Though according to this programme the altar service for both the morning and the afternoon services will be conducted by Rev. Grotheer may conduct the entire afternoon service himself.
Mr. Lemke will accompany all hymns sung by the congregation.
The Evangelical Lutheran Peace Congregation herewith extends a glad welcome to all.

To Make More Clear.
It has been intimated to the writer that perhaps the account of the Macy-Rebman case in last week's issue might not be clearly understood. We stated that the case ended in favor of Macy. Practically this is correct. As we stated before, after murdering his wife, J. Frank Connors placed his two children in the keeping of his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Macy, who were also charged by Connors with the care of the property. Subsequently, Macy and wife sought to secure adoption papers on the boy in question, the little girl having died, last summer. This application came up before County Judge Moore, who denied the application. Macy and wife still retain the boy, under the verbal authority of the father, who is now serving a life sentence in the Nebraska penitentiary. The mother of the murdered mother, Mrs. Lucy M. Rebman, some time since, sought to secure guardianship papers over the child in Oberlin, Decatur county, Kansas,—in which she was successful. (Good legal advice, however, questions the legality of a resident of Kansas being guardian of a minor Nebraska.) Upon Mrs. Rebman's return to Cedar Bluffs, Kansas, Macy forcibly took the child from Mrs. Rebman. At the recent trial in this city, Mrs. Rebman applied before County Judge Moore for temporary possession of the child, but the application was denied on the grounds that Mrs. Rebman is a residence of Kansas and the child a residence of Nebraska.

As the matter now stands, Macy and wife are in possession of the child and property, and probably will retain possession until a court of proper jurisdiction appoints an administrator of the property and a guardian for the child.
