

A Mistaken Idea....

Some people have an idea that in order to have a bank account, they must have a large sum to deposit; that the bank does not care to be bothered by small accounts.

This, however, is not true of the First National Bank. This bank welcomes new accounts, whether of $1 or $1,000, and the same courtesy and service is accorded the small depositor, as those in more fortunate circumstances.

It is our object and wish to serve the public in financial matters in a manner that shall be satisfactory to all—old or young, rich or poor.

L. W. McConnell Gives Facts Regarding Dyspepsia.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and how to obtain relief. There is no reason why people should not get anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia. If we refuse every article of food that disagrees with us, before long we have nothing left, and find ourselves chronic dyspeptics.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to direction. They are very pleasant to take; they soothe the irritable stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, promote a healthy and natural bowel action, almost immediately relieve nausea and stomach irritation, produce healthy digestion and assimilation and promote nutrition.

A 25-cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce complete relief. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in McCook only at our store—The Rexall Store. L. W. McConnell.

Testifies After Four Years.

Carlisle Center, N. Y., G. B. Burhans, writes: "About four years ago I wrote you that I had been entirely cured of kidney trouble by taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and after four years I am again pleased to state that I never had any return of those symptoms, and I am evidently cured to stay cured." Foley's Kidney Remedy will do the same for you. A. McMillen.

Will Inspect Company M.

Major E. H. Phelps of Lincoln, assistant inspector general of the Nebraska national guard, will inspect company M of our city, October 27th, according to the announced schedule of the state department.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. A. McMillen.

Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician, said: "Watch your kidneys. When they are affected, life is in danger." Foley's Kidney Remedy makes healthy kidneys, corrects urinary irregularities, and tones up the whole system. A. McMillen.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES for JUDGES of THE SUPREME COURT. 1909.

JUDGE JOHN B. BARNES
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Re-election

JUDGE JACOB FAWCETT
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Re-election

JUDGE SAMUEL H. SEDGWICK
Former Chief Justice Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Election

EACH WITH A RECORD OF FAITHFUL SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE.

JUDGE JOHN B. BARNES
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Re-election.

Judge John B. Barnes, of Norfolk, judge of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, and present acting chief justice of the court, has been selected by the republican voters of the state as one of the candidates of the republican party for re-election to the place on the supreme bench which he has so ably and honorably filled for the past term of six years.

Judge John B. Barnes is a native of Ohio a veteran of the Civil War and a citizen of Nebraska since 1871, when he located in Dixon county and was admitted to the bar in 1873, engaging in the practice of law, to which he has since given his entire attention.

In 1875 Judge Barnes was elected district attorney of the Sixth judicial district, was re-elected and served until appointed judge of the district to fill a vacancy caused by the election of Judge Valentine to Congress, was re-elected for a full term and later declined renomination to enter upon the practice of his profession. Judge Barnes was appointed Supreme Court Commissioner in January, 1902, serving as commissioner of the court in 1903, since which date his service as a member of the court has been continuous. He is now approaching the completion of the six-year term to which he was elected in 1903, and holds the honorable position of acting chief justice of Nebraska in the absence of Judge M. B. Reese.

Judge Barnes' splendid record as lawyer and jurist has gained for him the confidence and approval of the people of the state. This is well evidenced by the general support given Judge Barnes' candidacy for supreme judge at the recent state-wide primary election.

JUDGE JACOB FAWCETT.
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Re-election.

Judge Jacob Fawcett, of Omaha, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, and Republican candidate for re-election, is a native of Wisconsin, a veteran of the Civil War, and was admitted to the bar at Galena, Illinois, in 1873. Judge Fawcett was appointed county judge of Jo Davies county, Illinois, by Governor Oglesby, and was elected to the office at the expiration of the term for which he was appointed. He resigned the office the following year and removed to Omaha and was selected as one of the lecturers in the College of Law in the Nebraska State University. In 1895 Judge Fawcett was elected a judge of the district court of the Omaha district and was re-elected in 1899, serving eight years on the district bench of Douglas county. He returned to the practice of law in Omaha in the spring of 1904, continuing in practice until appointed supreme court commissioner in October, 1907. Judge Fawcett continued on the supreme court commission until the adoption of the constitutional amendment enlarging the supreme court at the last general election, when he was appointed a judge of the supreme court, to serve until the general election of this year. He is now completing the term of one year for which he was appointed.

Judge Fawcett's long period of service on the bench, eight years as judge of the district court of Douglas county, more than a year as a Commissioner of the Supreme Court and the past year as a member of that court, has eminently fitted him for the distinguished service of a full term on the supreme bench for which he is the nominee of the Republican party.

JUDGE SAMUEL H. SEDGWICK.
Former Chief Justice Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Election.

Judge Samuel H. Sedgwick of York, Neb., former chief justice of the Supreme Court of Nebraska and republican candidate for election as judge of the supreme court, is a native of Illinois, in which state he spent his youth on the farm and in the district school, graduating later from Wheaton college. He studied law at the Michigan State University and in a law office, and was admitted to the bar at Green Bay, Wis., in 1874, since which time he has given his entire attention to his profession.

Judge Sedgwick removed to York, Neb., in 1878, and entered at once into active practice in which he was eminently successful. Serving one term as judge on the district bench, he was later supreme court commissioner and was subsequently elected a justice of the supreme court at the general election in 1901, serving as chief justice in the closing two years of his term.

At the close of his first term Judge Sedgwick was a candidate for renomination, but was defeated in the primaries by Judge M. B. Reese, who had been denied a renomination some years previously, the republican voters of the state seeming to desire to right without delay the wrong done Judge Reese at the previous period. In this decision no one acquiesced more cheerfully than Judge Sedgwick, although feeling that patient, faithful work fairly entitled him to a second term.

Since the expiration of his term, Judge Sedgwick has successfully continued the practice of law at York. The splendid vote cast for him at the recent primaries evidences the desire of his fellow citizens of Nebraska to return him to the supreme court, upon which he rendered such distinguished and meritorious service.

FOR regents of the State University the republican party has nominated three of the prominent citizens of the state best equipped to perform the duties that fall to the board in charge of the state's most important institution of learning.

Charles S. Allen of Lincoln, William G. Whitmore of Valley and Frank L. Haller of Omaha, the republican candidates for regents, constitute a trio of citizens who will bring to the work they undertake almost ideal qualifications for its performance. Neither of these men were or are candidates in the sense of personally seeking for the honor conferred by membership on the directing board of the University. Each is a candidate in response alone to the insistent demands of many who know well their exceptional fitness for the duties involved and who have close at heart the best and broadest interests of the University.

Messrs. Allen and Whitmore are both completing a term of six years' service on the Board of Regents, a term of service which has redounded to their personal honor and credit in the same full degree that it has been of exceptional value to the growth and prosperity of the University. Those who know best the present and future needs of the University are the most insistent that their service be not interrupted, but be continued to the great and lasting benefit of the institution. In this lies the highest praise, the highest of personal compliments.

Mr. Frank L. Haller, a leading business man of the state, a man of large experience, broad culture and great executive ability, completes the trio of candidates on the republican ticket.

For fourteen years Mr. Haller has been a member of the board of directors of the Omaha public library and is at present the president of the board. Mr. Haller is also president of the Nebraska public library commission, a position which he has held since the resignation of Chancellor Andrews from the commission in 1906. He is a member of the executive committee of the Omaha Commercial Club and a moving spirit among the directors of the National Corn Association.

A graduate of the Iowa State University, he has long taken a particular interest in the Agricultural College of the Nebraska University and will bring to the Board of Regents a ripe experience in business affairs and a broad general knowledge that will be of the utmost value to the continued progress of the University. Mr. Haller is of German descent and has spoken the language from childhood. In addition to university training, he has broadened his education by extensive travel in this country and Europe.

THERE is one overwhelming reason why the Republican party can successfully appeal to all the people for support at the ballot-box for the candidates of the Republican party. It is this—The Republican party has given the state Responsible, Effective, Economical and Intelligent Government in every department, Executive, Legislative and Judicial, whenever entrusted with authority by the people. The record is before the people and it is a good record. You can trust the Party which has proven true and responsible in every test. On that record the party asks the support of the voters of Nebraska for its candidates for the Supreme Court, Judges Barnes, Fawcett and Sedgwick, all of whom have served on the Supreme bench with ability, honor and fidelity to the interests of the people and asks also for the approval of its candidates for Regents of the University, Messrs. Chas. S. Allen, W. G. Whitmore and F. L. Haller, the first two of whom have served with distinguished ability and usefulness on the Board of Regents for nearly six years past, the last named an able, prominent and self-made business man of the state who has long given much attention to the University School of Agriculture. The candidates of the republican party have responded to every test of citizenship every test of official duty. The party they represent as candidates in the coming election has proven true to the people in every emergency. On this broad foundation of performance of duty well discharged, the republican party asks for its candidates the confidence and support of the voters of Nebraska.

The highest medical authority on foods, Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.—F.R.S. of London, gives the best reasons for eating more Quaker Oats

In an article published in the Youth's Companion of September 23rd, 1909, Dr. Browne, the great medical authority on foods, says, about brain and muscle building—

"There is one kind of food that seems to me of marked value as a food to the brain and to the whole body throughout childhood and adolescence (youth), and that is oatmeal.

"Oats are the most nutritious of all the cereals, being richer in fats, organic phosphorus and lecithins."

He says oatmeal is gaining ground with the well-to-do of Great Britain. He speaks of it as the mainstay of the Scottish laborer's diet and says it produces a big-boned, well-developed, mentally energetic race.

His experiments prove that good oatmeal such as Quaker Oats not only furnishes the best food for the human being, but eating it strengthens and enlarges the thyroid gland—this gland is intimately connected with the nourishing processes of the body.

In conclusion he says—

"It seems probable therefore that the bulk and brawniness of the Northerners (meaning the Scotch) has been in some measure due to the stimulation of the thyroid gland by oatmeal porridge in childhood."

The Scotch eat Quaker Oats because it is the best of all oat-meals.
