Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt.

Owing to the fact that Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt is returning to Lincoln to prepare for a trip with her distinguished father the department of university extension is offering a few Nebraska dates for her special lecture on her way home. The High School Athletic association offers her to you next Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium for 25c. The success of Mrs. Leavitt on the lecture platform seems almost as phenomenal as that of her distinguished father. The press comments all over the country are loud in the praises of her work. Her lecture will be: "A Pilgrimage Through Palestine."

Of her lecture at Grand Junction, Colorado, the Sentinel says: "Mrs. Leavitt in her own way gave her impressions of old Palestine, the center of the world's most sacred memories. It was the clear, interesting narrative of a splendid and thoughtful young woman's view of her travels, her impressions, her observations in the land where walked the Man of Galilee and where the prophets and saints of old lived and breathed. There was nothing stilted, nothing stale, nothing tiresome about Mrs. Leavitt's talk. Her talk gave her hearers many new and true views of the Holy Land, many new appreciations of its cities, its people, its life, its past, and its present. There was much that was inspiring about her talk, much that was intensely instructive. In a clever manner, with the aid of a blackboard, Mrs. Leavitt convincingly illustrated some parts of her talk. With a strong, but not at all harsh, voice, gentle but clear as well as pleasingly penetrating, with the knack of illustrating pointedly, with a fine reasoning power, with a charming personality, this young woman, making no pretensions of being an orator or a remarkable speaker, is one of the most entertaining women speakers we have ever heard, and her powers along this line are certain to develop. Mrs. Leavitt's talk, she says it is not a lecture, was most enthusiastically received, and nothing but favorable comment has been heard, not only concerning the talk but concerning the speaker."

Tickets may be had at McConnell's. All proceeds over and above expenses will go into the Athletic Association treasury.

Reception to the Pastor.

The Dorcas society of the Congregational church gave an informal reception of most happy particulars in honor of the new pastor Rev. R. T. Bayne at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Knipple, Tuesday evening, which was enjoyed by about one hundred members and friends of the church. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rodgers received the guests, who were introduced by Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Clapp to the pastor. While others assisted in the cloak room and in required capacities.

Refreshments were served in the dining-room from a large table over which Mrs. I. S. Clapp and Mrs. E. H. Doan presided, being assisted by Mrs. Henry Best, Mrs. A. R. Scott, Mrs. C. R. Knowles, Mrs. Frank Smith, and Miss Maude McMillen. In the realm of entertainment shone Mrs. Mattie Welles in two readings and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Best in piano and violin numbers. It was an affair of genuine sociability and enjoyment.

HIGGINS WAS THE LUCKY MAN.

L. M. Higgins of Bartley Will be Our Next County Sheriff.

As indicated in our last week's issue the vote on sheriff was a tie, Sheriff Peterson and L. M. Higgins, the Democratic candidate, each receiving 977 votes. After the canvass had been completed, last Thursday evening, and the result finally and conclusively known, the two candidates "drew" for the office, which fell to Mr. Higgins.

The Tribune hears nothing of Mr. Higgins but fair words from those in the eastern part of the county, and we believe that he will make the county a conscientious and efficient sheriff.

A High Class Entertainment.

The citizens' entertainment course committee is to be congratulated upon the artistic success of their opening number, last Friday night.

The Kellogg-Haines Singing Party is composed of ladies and gentlemen of high class musical ability. Their program was largely made up of compositions from the masters, and their encores, which were numerous, were of the better sort of popular music. The entire second part of the evening's program was given over to the rendering of the popular and tuneful opera, "Martha." Besides they sang several other selections from operas. Their offerings were all worthwhile and well received. The little sketch of the pianist was clever.

Few companies have appeared in this city and given so unanimous satisfaction and pleasure.

Jayhawkers Too Much For 'Em.

"The House of a Thousand Candles."

It is said that six property men are required to work the effects in the third act of "The House of a Thousand Candles," the attraction at the Temple theatre, McCook, on Saturday, Nov. 13th. During the action, of this act, the audience can hear the distant murmur of a storm, every once in a while see a flash of lightning and hear yells of the sheriff's mob trying to gain an entrance into Glenarm estate.

The scene is said to be one of the most realistic ever presented on the stage, and came in for a great deal of favorable comment during the New York and Chicago engagements of the play.
