TEMPERANCE COLUMN

Conducted by the McCook W. C. T. U.

Nothing that renders men less able to give to their community and to their God their physical and mental and moral powers, can help that community or glorify that God. When the enemy tempted our Lord and Master, and, trying to entrap Him, asked Him whether they should pay tribute to Caesar, He said, "Bring me your tribute money;" and they brought him a penny, and he looked at it and said, "Whose image is this?" They said, "It is Caesar's." Then these immortal words fell from His lips: "Render unto Caesar and unto God the things that are God's." Caesar stands for Nebraska; Caesar stands for America; Caesar stands for your state and for my state, and the word of our Master is to render unto our state and to render unto our country what justly belongs to the state and to the country. And what belongs to our state and our country? Every muscular power, every mental energy, every moral influence. The man who puts himself in such condition that he cannot render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, is that much less a patriot. Any man who becomes besotted and drunken and destroys his physical, mental and moral powers, fails to be a patriot. Any man who stands for any influence in our land that brings poverty and shame and ruin and death upon that country or that state, lacks just that much of being a patriot.

Then, my friend, I ask you, will the whiskey traffic bring crime? Will it bring shame? Will it bring ruin? Will it bring death? Is there one of you that dare to deny it? Then if you vote for it, I stand here tonight and brand the man who helps to bring that infamy and that shame upon us, is that much less a patriot in the land and state in which he lives.

Now for argument's sake let us admit that prohibition is going to add a little to your tax. Some poor man in Nebraska on account of all these licenses being done away with, will have to pay twenty five cents a year more; some of you fifty cents; some of you a dollar; some five dollars; some that God has prospered, a hundred dollars; some that are millionaires, possibly a thousand dollars. You want to save that twenty-five cents, don't you? You want to save that fifty cents, that dollar, that hundred dollars, that five hundred dollars, that thousand dollars?

Now, over on this hand, I will put the body, I will put the mind, I will put the immortal soul of your pure-eyed child, your sweet little girl, your manly noble little boy, who might be influenced by this curse of strong drink, to drink, and drinking, become a drunkard, and the drunkard die, and in dying be damned. Is there a man in this audience, is there a woman in this audience, so low, so contemptible, as would measure the soul, the mind, the body of that precious girl or boy against dollars and cents?

But there never was a more miserable lie told on the face of the earth. This miserable pitiful little license we are getting from these breweries and distilleries and saloons does not begin to compensate us for what we are paying out every day on account of their existence. Put on one side the license money; then put on the other side the cost of crime, the cost of poverty and sickness, and the debit side is ten times greater than the credit side, in the state of Nebraska or in any other state in this Union.

RADICAL REDUCTION ON LADIES' AND MISSES' TAILORED SUITS

This announcement coming as it does earlier by several weeks than is usual, and just at the beginning of Winter, is doubly important. For the many women who have delayed purchasing a suit because of the mildness of the past few weeks this sale offers an unequalled opportunity at this most fortunate time. Little need be said of the style and workmanship features of our garments; their high standard of quality and correct interpretation of fashion is well known.

Now is the time to buy

Where the Shoe Pinches

It is not only because they are not going to wear well, but from the discomfort they will cause you that you will complain most about ill-fitting shoes, still it "serves you right" for had you come into our store you would have been fitted so there would be no place where the shoe pinched. Remember that a well fitted shoe means comfort and it lasts twice as long. So although you can select good leather and know the correct styles when you buy in our store, you can't get anything but a good fitting besides.
