MEN'S SHOES

of the

BETTER CLASS

—There's the greatest difference in the world between good shoes and ordinary shoes—they may look very much alike when new, but what a difference after a little wear.

—The distinctive features that make the FRENCH, SHRINER & URNER shoes stand out as shoes of the better class are made plain to every man that will let us show them.

—For instance, these shoes are lasted and sewed by hand—a hand made shoe—making them more pliable and eliminating the "breaking in" process which is responsible for many a morning grouch.

—Another feature—they hold their shape after a long hard wearing and that means a stylish shoe until it is worn out, for when a shoe LOOKS old it IS old.

—Among the styles shown in these leathers will be found the straight, conservative lasts as well as the more stylish and extreme, among the latter we feature the new "drop toe" made in a patent colt button.
