We have 10,000 acres of the best land in the Valley for sale. No land more than three miles from shipping point. Our lands adjoin the town of La Junta, the county seat of Otero county, which has a population of 7,200.

Prices Low, Terms Easy

Our water rights are unexcelled. We have just completed the best reservoir in the State of Colarado, and in addition have an ample river decree. All lands sold by us are watered by the OTERO CANAL. This insures you abundant water.

Alfalfa nets $40 per acre in our section and is very easily raised. Forty acres of alfalfa will educate the children and leave you a comfortable margin. Compare this with the income from 160 acres in Iowa, Nebraska or Illinois. Desirable land at a reasonable figure is fast disappearing. Don't Delay.

Cantaloupes net from $75 to $150 per acre each year. We are in the Rocky Ford District and our market is established.

La Jounta is the end of three divisions of the Santa Fe Ry. and has the railroad shops which employ 1,200 men whose payroll is $90,000 per month. We can ship our products direct to Kansas City, Chicago, Denver or Los Angeles.

Our public school system is second to none.

Prices run from $20 to $115 per Acre

Very liberal terms, with six per cent on deferred payments.

The land of the Otero Irrigation District at La Junta, Colora lo, offers irresistible inducements to the homeseeker.

Transportation facilities are the very best.

The climate is pleasant the year round.

There are 10,000 acres now for sale in small and large tracts, not far from Rocky Ford, in the very heart of the most productive cantaloupe and sugar beet district.

I invite correspondenc and will be glad to furnsh you with circulars, maps. etc., and we guarantee that if you investigate this proposition and find it misrepresented either by us or by the literature of the LA JUNTA LAND CO. we will pay the entire expenses of your trip. Punishment. On one of Mr. Lincoln's excursions to Fortress Mouroe on the steamer time was treated by several doctors and Hartford in 1863 his attention was lirected to a narrow door bound with iron, the use of which he was anxious to learn.

"What is this?" he asked.

"Oh, that is the sweathox," was the reply. "It is used for refractory and insubordinate seamen. A man in there is subjected to steam heat and has very little ventilation. It generally brings him to terms very quickly."

President Lincoln's curiosity was aroused. "This," he said to himself. is treatment to which thousands of American seamen are probably subjected every year. Let me try it for myself and see what it really is,"

Taking off his hat, for he was sever al inches over six feet in height, he entered the inclosure, which he found to be little more than three feet in length or width. He gave orders that at a signal from himself the door should be immediately opened. It was then closed and the steam turned on.

He had been inside hardly three minutes before the signal was given. President Lincoln had experienced enough of what was then regarded as neces sary punishment for American seamen. There was very little ventilation, and the short exposure to the hot and hu-

Turning to Secretary Welles of the to tie in an attractive bow in the back navy department, the president ordered with long ends. The portion that is that no such inclosure as the sweatbox should ever after be allowed on any vessel flying the American flag.

It was not an hour after this order had been given before every sailor on every ship in Hampton Roads had heard of it. The effect was most remarkable on the older sailors, many of whom had themselves experienced the punishment of the sweatbox. Some of them wept from joy.

But the good results of this act of France, Germany and other European countries heard that the sweatbox had been abolished in America as inhuman. One and all of these nations in turn fell into line, and today the sweatbox is not to be found on any vessel flying the flag o fa civilized nation throughout the world.

RAN THE BLOCKADE.

Putting Through a Risky Piece of Business at Santiago.

the other evening were discussing the efficacy of the Cuban blockade in 1898. That many vessels ran the blockade at Havana, Cienfuegos and elsewhere was admitted.

"But only one vessel ever ran the Santiago blockade," said one of the speakers, "and that was one of our own vessels, the little Gloucester."

He then described how the Gloucester ran the blockade, while commanded by Dick Wainwright, then a lieutenant commander, who had previously been executive officer of the Maine when it blew up.

"We had been sent down to Asserraderos to communicate with the insurgents," said the raconteur, who was the body and arms. The head is stuff- on the Gloucester at the time. "Upon our return it was quite dark, and we were proceeding slowly to our station on the inside line of the blockade when the electric signaling apparatus broke in for eyes, and a mouth is made with down. We could not give a signal. particularly the private identification signal of the night. Had we been discovered by one of the blockading vessels it would at once have flashed the signal, and if we did not immediately respond it would have promptly opened fire. We would have been blown to pieces in a minute.

"It was a risky piece of business, but Dick Wainwright was perfectly cool, and the Gloucester actually picked its way without being discovered through the whole blockading fleet, took up its station on the inside line, under the Morro, and as soon as the signaling apparatus was repaired reported its arrival. It was a clear case of blockade running, but it was mighty ticklish while it lasted,"-San Francisco Call,

An Intelligent Cow. A few nights ago a citizen went home and found a cow in his yard. He drove her out. He then went into the house and later heard the animal in the yard again. He drove her out the second and third times. The citizen's son came home later and found the animal in the yard and drove her out. The citizen then made an investigation and found the cow got in by wading around the fence on the river side. He hung up a lantern to deceive the cow as she came in, and the next morning, so he says, he found the cow in the yard with the lantern hung on her horns, using the same to hunt out the best grapefruit in his grove.
