Peace Be Still

The Psalmist wrote, "Be still and know that I am God," to all below.
Within the silent shining spheres
We learn of God's unnumbered years:
And so within the dew-drop's gaze,
We note the Great Creator's praise.
The troubled sea was stilled when He
But gave command on Galilee:
"Be still!" He said, and all was o'er,
Each wave grew still from shore to shore.
J. F. FORBES.

Iron.

Pure iron is only a laboratory preparation. Cast iron, the most generally useful variety, contains about five per cent. of impurities, and the curious thing is that it owes its special value to the presence of these. Pure iron can be shaved with a pocket knife; impure iron can be made almost as hard as steel.

EASTER OBSERVANCES.

BAPTIST.

Special sermons morning and evening by Pastor Iams, and appropriate anthems by the choir featured the Easter observance at the Baptist church, which was given tasteful floral decoration for the day.

METHODIST.

In the morning there was the usual service followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. The sermon was appropriate, and the choir, enlarged in membership, offered two special anthems. The Sunday school children were also remembered at the morning school hour.

In the evening the Rogers orchestra added to the interest and program. A special anthem number, short greeting by Rev. A. W. Coffman of Akron, Colo., a former pastor, and a short illustrated (candle) sermon by Rev. Howe, composed the order of exercises, which filled the church with an appreciative audience.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

There were fitting services of the day, morning and evening, at St. Alban's, with specially prepared Easter music by a surpliced choir, and decorations in tasteful harmony. The lenten boxes were presented at the evening service. The offerings of the day were placed to the credit of the building fund of the proposed new church edifice.

CENTER OF LARGE INTEREST.

The Congregational church was the center of large interest and attracted large audiences at both services.

In the morning the presence of the members of St. John Commandery, Knights Templar, was a stirring feature, and in the evening an Easter cantata was a tuneful detail.

Among the particulars of the morning program were:

Solo "Hosanna"..... Granier.
Mrs. LeRoy Kleven.

Chorus.

At the evening service Miss Edith Waite sang "Our Lord Has Risen" by Laud.

The rendition of Geibel's Easter cantata, "Light Out of Darkness," completed the program, which follows:
