MCCOOK WON DISTRICT CONTEST.

Miss Gertrude Morrissey Took First Prize in a Field of Ten With a United Judge's Decision.

Miss Gertrude Morrissey won the prize at the declamatory contest in Alma, last Friday evening. She used the same selection used successfully in the home contest, and won by a unanimous decision of the judges, which makes the victory the more satisfactory and sweet.

This victory places McCook in the list of state contestants and with a champion who will certainly give a good account of herself at the state meet to be held in early May.

There were eleven contestants at Alma, ten of them in the dramatic class with Miss Morrissey, which is an additional feather in Miss Gertrude's cap.

The only representative in the oratorical class came from our neighbor Culbertson, and they secured the gold medal, and will also have a representative in the state meet.

The McCook contingent returned from Alma more than elated over their success in the contest, and highly pleased with the effort made by Miss Morrissey, whose offering of "How the Larus Stakes Were Lost" is described as having been very effective and touching.

The meeting had the largest paid enrollment in years—456.

McCook was strongly represented—the entire Red Willow county delegation numbered 45.

Death of Grandma Odell.

Mrs. Eliza Odell, mother of Mrs. B. F. Olcott and Eliza Odell of our city, died, about nine o'clock, Tuesday night, at the home of her daughter, in this city. The other child, E. C. Odell of Brooklyn, Iowa, arrived in the city a few minutes before the last, but the aged mother was not conscious.

The departed was born in Ohio, April 17, 1832, hence was almost 78 years of age.

The remains were shipped, last night, to Brooklyn, Iowa, for burial.

Grandma Odell was a woman of earnest Christian character and passes on to her reward.

Victim of Pneumonia.

Oscar Drake, a member of the blacksmith force, died on Sunday evening about six o'clock, after an illness of a few weeks with pneumonia and attendant results effecting heart etc.

Deceased was born in Oregon, Mo., August 22, 1871. Of late years he has lived with his parents at Bird City, Kansas.

He was taken ill a few days since while employed here in the blacksmith shop, with pneumonia. Heart complications completed the work of death.

Brief services were held at the rooms occupied by the deceased, Monday evening, participated in by the A. O. U. W., of which he became a member but a few days before he was taken to his bed from which he never again arose.

Tuesday morning, the remains were taken by the father and mother to Bird City, Kansas, where services were held, after which the body was taken to Atwood, Kansas, for burial.

OBITUARY.

Oscar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Drake of Bird City, Kansas, died in our city, Sunday evening, at 6:35, at the home of Louis Meyer, 206 east 2nd st., after a continued illness of pneumonia. Oscar was employed in the Burlington blacksmith shop here and owing to his cheerful disposition and sterling qualities made many friends among his fellow-employees. He was a member of the local A. O. U. W., having identified himself with that order a few days previous to his illness. Oscar was patient and obedient all through his suffering. His mother was with him during his illness and at death, his father and twin brother Delbert arriving a few hours after death.

Services were held at Mr. Myers' home at 9 o'clock on Monday evening, conducted by Rev. Howe and assisted by Rev. Iams. Oscar attended the Methodist church since coming to McCook, and a few hours before his death surrendered himself to the will of His Father and expressed great faith in Christ as his Redeemer. The body was taken to Bird City, Tuesday, and was interred in the Atwood cemetery, today. M.H.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION.

Red Willow Largely Represented in The S. W. Nebraska Teachers' Association.

Red Willow county was represented in the meeting at Alma, April 6-8, of the S. W. Nebraska Teachers' association, by over forty teachers, and all with whom the writer has conversed are united in declaring the session eminently worthwhile and profitable from every view.

Among those on the program were some of Nebraska's best educators and the atmosphere of Alma was charged with a sympathy most helpful and stimulating.

Sup't Taylor of the McCook public schools and most of his corps of teachers were present at the sessions.

Among the head-liners were: Governor Shallenberger, State Sup't E. C. Bishop, Director J. L. McBrien of the University Extension, Dr. George E. Condra, Sup't W. M. Davidson of Omaha, Sup't N. M. Graham of South Omaha, and the Steckleberg Concert Co. for entertainment.

A Notable Political Event.

Those who attended the Democratic love feast in Stratton, Monday, are vocal and earnest in praise of the hospitable manner in which the people of Stratton entertained them, regardless of politics,—the people of the town uniting in making the event notable in the town's history. Governor Shallenberger was among the prominent personages in attendance, and the crowd was augmented from all over this section of state.

Entertained.

The ladies of the Priscilla Club entertained their husbands at O. M. Knipple's last Thursday evening at a 7 o'clock dinner. The evening was spent playing cards.

Commercial Club Meets.

The McCook Commercial club held the most business like session in months, Monday evening, with a fair representation of the membership present.

The matter of the approaching census-taking was discussed and a committee consisting of L. Thorgrimson, L. Sues and M. Lawritson was appointed to assist the enumerators in any way possible in securing a complete census of the city of McCook.

Consideration was given the matter of inviting the state high school declamatory union to hold its meeting in May in our city, and a liberal offering was voted for the expenses of the meet.

For the meeting of the Republican Valley Medical association to be held in McCook, June 30th, the privileges of the commercial club rooms were voted.

The matter of the proposed joint county bridge between Red Willow and Hitchcock counties was discussed and a committee composed of A. Barnett, L. W. McConnell and J. F. Cordeal was named to investigate the case. There was no inconsiderable opinion that the proposed expenditure is not warranted by the needs and requirements of the case, there being a bridge over the river within two miles of the proposed structure.

Messrs. Clapp, Fahnestock and Kimmell were reappointed a committee to look into the prospects for securing a rest room and its equipment and maintenance.

The question of the telephone rates paid by the city of McCook was broached, and the secretary of the club was requested to ascertain from the state board of railroad commissioners the status of this city in the matter of rates, as to whether they are just and equitable.

It was noted that at the next regular session of the club, will occur the annual election of board of directors.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Friday evening, some fifty friends and members of the Christian Aid Society, met at the Barrett home and surprised Mrs. Barrett, it being her thirty-sixth birthday. They presented her with some elegant chinaware as a token of remembrance and esteem. Refreshments were served and a good time was had in social intercourse. At a late hour all departed, wishing Mrs. Barrett many happy returns of the evening.

Would You Throw Away $1,000?

The man who could save and bank $5 per month, and doesn't do it, is throwing away $60 per year—the gross earning power of $1,000 at 6 per cent interest.

Safe investments which annually pay 6 percent net are not so plentiful as they used to be.

MATRIMONIAL SHOWERS.

Wednesday evening, Miss Ethel Morrissey was the object of a miscellaneous shower at the residence of Mrs. Leroy Kleven. The guests followed strings to their "fortunes!"—Miss Ethel to another apartment and a basket full of beautiful gifts in linen, cutglass and silver. The hostess prearranged a seat for the guest of honor under an electrolier from which a box of rice was subsequently precipitated over the bride-to-be. A brief program of music and dainty refreshments were details. Mrs. Alvin R. Scott won the honors in moulding a cupid from a stick of chewing gum. The library decorations were in hearts and cupids. The nuptials of Miss Morrissey and Mr. J. Roy Weidenhamer is calendared for April 30th.

Wednesday evening, Misses Stasia and Rose Brady entertained the "A.W.L.O.s". It was a miscellaneous shower for Miss Vergilla Ludwick, who will be wedded to J. Wesley Ridenour, April 20th. Miss Vergie was blind-folded and given a string, which she followed to a large bell suspended in the dining room, in which were placed the smaller gifts, many and of the nature to appeal to the feminine heart. The library was decorated in the club colors, yellow and white. Following a brief music program, a two course luncheon of quality was served. Miss Vergie's membership in the club is one of several years.

Pleased a Large Audience.

The Georgia Minstrels of local talent and fame pleased a large and notable gathering of McCook people at the Temple, Tuesday evening, with their minstrelsy. There was nothing spectacularly novel in the offering, but a wholesome bit of music and joke and dancing and a second part of college musical comedy. The Tribune's bouquet covers management and players.
