Victim of Terrible Accident.

Tuesday of last week, while stacking hay on his farm east of Hayes Center, L. A. Blatchley was knocked off the stack by the stacker, falling onto the upright handle of a pitch-fork near the stack. The handle of the fork penetrated his body in the region of his stomach fully twelve inches. He was hurried to McCook in an auto and a specialist was summoned from Omaha. He was operated upon, but died on last Thursday night. The remains were taken to Hayes Center, Friday, and after services were held the remains were laid away in the cemetery at that place.

Masons Observe Memorial Sunday.

The members of McCook lodge No. 135 observed Memorial Sunday, by attending services in the Methodist church, last Sunday morning.

Rev. Bryant Howe's sermon was on "The Temple in History," and contained many Masonic allusions of interest. It was a thoughtful and instructive effort and lacked nothing of appreciation.

The music came from a large choir and was an enjoyable feature of a service which filled the edifice with worshippers.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY OF MCCOOK LODGE 35, A. F. & A. M.

Event is Befittingly Observed With a Banquet, Toasts, Music, Sketches Etc.

JOINT INSTALLATION BY LODGE AND STAR

Hall is Handsomely Decorated for the Auspicious Occasion, Which is Largely Attended and Keenly Enjoyed by All.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the institution of McCook lodge No. 135, A. F. & A. M., was befittingly observed, last Friday evening, by the membership.

The observance opened with a banquet at six o'clock. It was spread at three long tables in the banquet room and offered every attraction to the lovers of substantial and dainties in the culinary art.

Music was provided by an orchestra during the early part of the evening, and during repast.

A series of toasts followed the banquet, Lon Cone acting as substitute toastmaster for J. F. Forbes, who, though compelled to be absent, left in verse a clever introduction to each of those responding. Mrs. Z. L. Kay, Mrs. George Willetts, Mr. J. A. Wilcox and Rev. Bryant Howe were among those on the toast list; their remarks were much appreciated.

Mrs. C. W. Britt captivated all with a spring song, and responded with an encore in lighter vein. Mrs. Britt's occasional vocal offerings are always richly enjoyed.

Mr. F. M. Kimmell read a brief historical sketch of McCook lodge

No. 135, A. F. & A. M.

Following a most acceptable violin solo by Mrs. Vahue came the public installation of the officers of No. 135. Zachueus L. Kay was installing officer, Justin A. Wilcox, grand chaplain, and M. O. McClure, grand marshal.

A selection by the Acacia club and a duet by Misses Viersen and Rosebush were very favorably received. Seth S. Silver read a paper on the history of Eureka chapter No. 86, Order of the Eastern Star.

Following which the officers of the chapter were duly installed, Mrs. C. W. Wilson acting as installing officer, Mrs. A. C. Wiehe as grand conductress, and F. M. Kimmell as grand chaplain.

Selections by the Acacia club concluded the formal program of the evening, which will be a memorable event in the history of both lodge and chapter.

Both lodge room and banquet hall were lavishly decorated with national colors, flags galore and tri-colored streamers. Two special pieces were the square and compass and the five-pointed star, both done in appropriate colors and design.

Some Temple Bookings.

Managers McConnell & Pennell are prepared already to announce the following bookings for the next season. They are having no trouble, this year, to secure desirable plays, last season's reputation placing McCook on the desirable list.

Wilson-Wersig Wedding.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson on the Morlan ranch occurred a quite wedding when their daughter Miss Nellie E. Wilson was united in marriage to Mr. William Wersig of Champion, Neb. The bride was beautifully gowned in white. A very brief and impressive marriage ceremony was read by Rev. Francis E. Iams of the Baptist church making them husband and wife. They left on Monday morning on an early train for Champion, where they will make their home. Many friends unite in wishing them joy and success in life.

Harvest began last week. Early grain is reported fair, but late grain is smutty or none at all.

Emil Elbert was hurt, last Saturday morning by falling from a tree and striking his back on a piece of binder attachment, rendering him unconscious for about thirty minutes.

He is all O. K. now, being able to go see his girl the next day.

S. Hughes had an exciting runaway, Monday, when four horses ran away with his binder. There was no serious damage done.

Ella Schuetz is suffering with an abscess of the throat.

Jacob Degele unloaded his new threshing rig, Monday.

The Farmers' Busy Season

These are busy times on the farm. The farmer's working day lasts from daylight to dark, and leaves him little time to get to town. If any of you, however, get any sum of money and wish to deposit it, just send it in by mail. You will receive full credit for it, just as if you handed it over the counter. Don't run the risk of keeping your cash around the house, even for a few days, when you can so easily put it in the bank.
