A "Sane Fourth."

If an absolutely colorless, event-less Fourth may be properly denominated "sane," why McCook had it. Many people had to pinch themselves occasionally and to require the assurance of their neighbors that the day was in fact the Fourth.

There was little decoration and but a minor individual discharge of fireworks. Business was suspended during part of the day and quite a number went elsewhere or to neighborhood celebrations or nearby groves and quietly picnicked.

There are a few subscribers for Chautauqua tickets that I have not been able to call personally on yet. It would be a great favor if you would get all ready to take your tickets and I will send some one to deliver the ticket before Wednesday. If that is not convenient call at either one of the three drug stores and they will give you your tickets, before Wednesday morning.

The well known fees case, the case of Red Willow county against Hans I. PAINT TO SATISFY.

When you paint it's a satisfaction to know that your money and labor are well spent. They are well expended when you cover your buildings with pure lead, zinc and linseed oil. Paint that looks well when applied can be had anywhere. Paint that will look well three or four years hence is not so easily found.

BEST MEETING IN THE ASSOCIATION'S HISTORY

The Republican Valley Medical Association Makes a Record in Its

Big McCook GATHERING OF LAST WEEK

Greatest Attendance Ever and Strongest Program Presented in Years—Fine Banquet, Toasts and General Felicitations.

The Tribune feels like congratulating the association and the local committee especially upon the signal success of the meeting of The Republican Valley Medical Association held in McCook, last week Thursday.

The attendance totaled between 50 and 75, a record-breaker; and the strength of the program offered was a common source of congratulation.

In addition to the doctors of the association there were present several from outside, among them being Dr. Davis of Omaha, who commenced the practice of his profession in this city in 1885, and who has since gained a state-wide reputation as a surgeon; also Dr. Rich of Omaha, and others.

The professional session commenced at ten in the morning and occupied the rest of the day until about supper time when an automobile ride over the city gave them the proper gastronomic condition to enjoy the splendid dinner spread by the ladies of the Order of the Easter Star in the banquet room of the Temple at six o'clock.

Following this daintily prepared and cleverly served banquet were a few toasts, with Dr. W. C. Bartlett of Alma as toastmaster.

There were responses by Dr. B. B. Davis of Omaha, Dr. Rich of Omaha, Dr. Henry Farrell of Axtell, Dr. C. L. Fahnestock of McCook, Dr. J. O. Hoffman of Orleans, and for the laity by F. M. Kimmell of McCook, which concluded a social session quite enjoyable.

The personnel of the association represented a fine intellectual manhood—men of standing and force in their respective communities, and the net professional and social results garnered could not be inconsiderable. Quite a number of the doctors were accompanied by their wives, which added to the social side effectively and gracefully.

The menu of the banquet translated into the lingo of the fraternity is appended:

- Stomach Teaser
- Jewish Rarebit—Emulsion
- Chinese Spuds Pills in Capsules
- Tomato Poulitice Casein Granules
- Hospital Rolls—Poison
- Gall Stones
- Ice Pack Taste Remover
- Depresso Motors

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary Happily Celebrated Today.

The celebration of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Nettleton today marks the sixtieth milestone of the road which this interesting couple has traveled together.

The story of Mr. and Mrs. Nettleton's early life reads like a chapter from an old-time book. Mrs. Nettleton was born in Massachusetts 77 years ago and Mr. Nettleton in Connecticut 82 years ago. They were married in Berkshire county, Mass., June 21, 1850. They lived in Massachusetts until 1872 when they moved to Red Willow county, Nebraska, where they settled on a homestead.

In Nebraska they had all the trials of pioneer life to contend with, at one time losing everything they possessed in a prairie fire, and having their crops eaten by grasshoppers two or three times.

Mr. Nettleton was the first superintendent of Red Willow county, serving in that capacity for two terms. The family moved to Colorado in 1896 and Mr. and Mrs. Nettleton celebrated their golden wedding in the Cripple Creek district ten years ago.

Mr. Nettleton is a carpenter by trade, and still spends his time at the business. He is a musician of ability, and has taught both vocal and instrumental music for years. He still retains his purity and clearness of tone, and can sing better today than the average young person.

Mrs. Nettleton has retained the thrifty habits engendered by years of life on the frontier and is always employed at something. She has a liking for fancy work and especially knitting, and has several pieces which have taken prizes at various exhibitions.

They have raised a large family of nine children, four boys and five girls five of whom are now living. Mrs. William Fitch, the oldest, who resides at McCook, Neb., and R. F. Nettleton, who is in Idaho, were unable to attend the celebration today, which took the form of a picnic at Prospect Lake.

Mrs. Gaddy of 1026 East Costillo street, C. A. Nettleton, 818 East San Miguel street, and Miss Elizabeth Nettleton who lives with her parents, were present to enjoy the delightful festivity.

The Nettleton family enjoys the distinction of four living generations, being represented by Mrs. Nettleton, her daughter Mrs. Fitch, aged 56, her grand daughter, Mrs. Fred Adams aged 25 and her great grand daughter Miss Mildred Adams, aged 3.

These are busy times on the farm. The farmer's working day lasts from daylight to dark, and leaves him little time to get to town. If any of you, however, get any sum of money and wish to deposit it, just send it in by mail. You will receive full credit for it, just as if you handed it over the counter. Don't run the risk of keeping your cash around the house, even for a few days, when you can so easily put it in the bank.

Dodo? Nono!
