

McCOOK'S FEDERAL BUILDING

Will Not be Delayed Longer Than the Situation in the Treasury Department Requires.

THE CONTRACTING FOR THE BUILDING DULY AUTHORIZED

And the Structure Will Come on in Regular, Although the Appropriation Will Not be Made Until Next Congress, Which Will be in Ample Time to Finance Same.

For some reason not clear to us, there are persons locally and elsewhere, who misconstrue the action of congress respecting the public buildings and sites bill, a measure in which McCook is interested to the extent of $95,000.00.

The facts are that the bill does not appropriate the money for any of the buildings, sites or improvements or additions, but it does authorize the expenditure of the money.

The bill provides in the following language:

"An act to increase the limit of cost of certain public buildings, to authorize the enlargement, extension, remodeling, or improvement of certain public buildings, to authorize the erection and completion of public buildings, to authorize the purchase of sites for public buildings and for other purposes.

"Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that to enable the secretary of the treasury of the United States to give effect to and execute the provisions of existing legislation authorizing the acquisition of land for sites or the enlargement thereof, and the erection, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or repair of public buildings in the several cities hereinafter enumerated, the limit of cost heretofore fixed by congress therefor be, and the same is

BOUTELL, CONGRESSIONAL VETERAN, IN HARD FIGHT.

Must Win Primary Nomination From Chicago Insurgents and Then Defeat J. Hamilton Lewis.

The fight for the seat in congress from the Ninth Illinois district, which is in Chicago, bids fair to be one of the most spectacular of the many combats planned by the administration and "insurgent" factions of the Republicans for the coming fall elections. The target of the latter element is the present incumbent, Henry Sherman Boutell, now serving his seventh term in the lower house and known the nation over as a wheelhorse of the party.

The primaries, held under state supervision, will decide his fate, and a determined opposition has crystallized since the defeat of Speaker Cannon, of whom he is a staunch supporter. A victory in the primaries will be hard won, but the fight will have just begun.

VETERAN REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN AND DEMOCRAT WHO MAY OPPOSE HIM.

For him, as Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, noted the country over for his eloquence and whiskers, will probably be his Democratic opponent.

Colonel Lewis first attained fame when a congressman from Washington while practicing law in Seattle. Since then he has been corporation counsel of Chicago and made former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson know he had been in a race in the Illinois gubernatorial primaries of 1908. "Jim Ham," as he is popularly known, is a lawyer of ability and a favorite subject for cartoonists, his penchant for stylish cut clothes to harmonize with his auburn whiskers making him easy prey. These characteristics led a playwright to incorporate him in a musical comedy (deceased), to which the colonel modestly admitted he could not object, "being something of a public character."

In a recent speech before the Illinois Press association Colonel Lewis said "the abstract right or wrong to society at large is lost to all consideration in the mad strife to govern our country in groups by specially directed laws" and blamed Roosevelt and Bryan, saying:

"If I am correct in my fear of the surrounding danger I must charge much of its existence to Editor Bryan of the Commoner and Editor Roosevelt of the Outlook, each of whom in his sincere desire to promote a reform in the injustice of local institutions has inaugurated in his political following a greater danger in the spirit of legislation against a neighbor or opponent for retaliation or vengeance."

RACE IN NIAGARA RAPIDS.

Motorboat Men Plan Perilous Journey For Glory and Coin.

In a tiny power boat going more than a mile a minute Joshua Hudson, a Haverhill (Mass.) leather manufacturer, is to brave death in an effort to win against all America the contest arranged for daredevil motor racers in the lower rapids of Niagara falls from Maid of the Mist to Lewiston and back.

One thousand dollars, a gold cup worth $500 and the honor of navigating at racing speed a route only a handful of men have ever dared to risk their lives upon await the winner Sept. 17.

Five-year-old an Orator.

At the memorial exercises held at Newman, O., Chester Rummings, aged five, was the principal orator. The subject of the child's address was "The Duty of the Children Toward Their Country," and he spoke fifteen minutes.
