Lacked the Proof.

The police made two arrests. Monday evening, on the theory that a forgery had been committed. A check for some thirty odd dollars, purporting to be issued by Mr. Dack, who lives southwest of the city, was involved in the matter, and one of the men had made an unsuccessful attempt to pass the check on persons in the city. One of the men, the red-headed rooster was profoundly incensed and the "short" man charged him with uttering the check. The gentleman of the Titian hair vigorously denied the soft impeachment. His partner insisted he had torn up the check. So there seemed to be small likelihood of proving anything against either of them and they were later in the evening released. The young man with the auburn locks had a ticket for Denver on his person but not a "red" and he was allowed to depart on No. 3. The other suspect is said to have worked for Dack some time ago. The forged check was seen by a younger member of the Dack family, but failing to secure possession of it, the essential evidence.

As Leaves in Valombrosa.

Plain, unadorned, interesting drunks have been as thick in McCook, this week, as leaves in Valombrosa, or words of similar import. And they are always, altogether unlovely sights.

Obituary.

Penelope Drago Neel was born in Brown county, Ohio, August 31st, 1853, and departed this life in her home in Indianola, Friday, Sept 16, 1910, at four o'clock p. m., aged fifty-seven years and fifteen days.

The deceased was married to Mr. John R. Neel in Brown county, Ohio, April 17th, 1872, to which union were born four children, Ira, Frank, May and George, two of whom, Ira and Frank, and their father, still survive. The deceased with her husband moved to Missouri from Ohio in 1877 and nine years later, in 1886, the family came to Nebraska where they have resided until this date.

In the time of her youth the departed united with the church and eight or nine years ago she united with the Christian church in Indianola. She was a faithful companion, a devoted mother and a true friend. Her departure brings grief to all who knew her as a friend and relative and we can only hope that in a better world she will be found again.

We who are left behind are reminded that we all cling to life by a very frail thread and that only a few years will elapse until we shall reach that same mysterious end. ***

We are more grateful than mere words can express to all the friends and neighbors and to the I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs for their assistance and sympathy during the illness and after the death of our dear wife and mother and take this means of expressing to you one and all our thanks and appreciation therefor.

May Lead To a Cut-Out.

Heavy losses by customers of McCook business men, and consequent slow payments to merchants, may lead to a crusade against gambling, which is reported to be unusually heavy in this city at this time. If upon no higher grounds than finance, The Tribune however hopes the issue may be raised and prosecuted with vigor.

Instances are reported wherein men have lost their entire pay check at the gambling table within a few hours of receiving their pay checks. Other regrettable instances are related of losses.

Strength to the arm which shall be raised in defense of law and to purge the city of such undesirables as are all gamblers.

NEW STYLE SYRINGES.

Death Claimed Her.

Mrs. Henry N. Colling, of Indianola, who received treatment in this city for some time for cancer of the breast, died in a Lincoln hospital, Thursday of last week. The remains were shipped to Indianola, Friday morning, burial following in the Catholic cemetery at that place, after services in the Catholic church there.

Accepts Appointment.

Rev. A. J. R. Goldsmith of Arapahoe has accepted the appointment as rector of St. Alban's Episcopal church of this city and expects to move here early in October. Rev. Goldsmith's equipment for the sacred service is of a liberal sort. He was a student at Queen's College, Birmingham, England, and is a fellow in science and philosophy, St. Columba's College, England.

The Arapahoe Pioneer states that "All our people regret that Rev. Goldsmith and family are to leave our city. Rev. and Mrs. Goldsmith are excellent Christian people; highly respected and deservedly popular not only with the members of their own church but with all who know them."

Released the Last Case.

Tuesday, Marshal Osborn released Len Roberts from quarantine restrictions and fumigated the premises, thus releasing the only and last case of scarlet fever in the city. This welcome bit of news will be received by the people of McCook with immense satisfaction.

Proper and reasonable care now on the part of all concerned will doubtless protect the city against a recurrence of such an outbreak as we suffered from during the past summer.

They Use the Newspapers.

The Fremont Tribune says: "The business men of Beatrice, learning wisdom of the business men of Fremont, have just signed a compact to cut out all fake advertising schemes. The blokes who are looking for easy money will pass up that town, too." Holdrege merchants have decided likewise and are patronizing the city newspapers liberally.

Griening-Porter.

Mr. Charles E. Griening and Miss Daise Belle Porter were united in marriage, Tuesday of this week, at the home of the bride in Juniata, Nebraska. The groom is well known here, being in the Burlington transportation service.

A HAIR DREAM THAT COMES TRUE.

No one who is losing or has lost his hair fails to hope and dream that some remedy will be found that will prevent hair from falling. It has already been found.

REXALL 93 HAIR TONIC.

Many preparations have been devised but this is the first one that actually cures baldness if the hair follicles have not been absolutely destroyed. This means that it will not cure every case, but under actual test it has, time after time, produced a growth of hair where the baldness appeared to be permanent. For the less advanced conditions it is always a prominent and certain remedy. L. W. McCONNELL, Druggist.

THE MILLINERY OPENINGS.

They Were Perhaps the Most Notable in the City's History.

The opening occasion of the three millinery establishments of the city, last week's end, were perhaps the most notable in the history of the city in that particular. The establishments were each quite lavishly decorated, and flowers and music gave emphasis to the elaborate and stylish display of the millinery art. Both days—Friday and Saturday—afternoon and evening—were graced by large attendance of the ladies of the city and surrounding towns, which was very gratifying to the dealers who lavished time and means in meeting the highest expectations of the patrons. And then, too, the sales were in no sense disappointing.

AT H. C. CLAPP'S

This was the largest display ever attempted by this house, 375 made-up hats being on exhibition. Their opening sales were unprecedented.

The colors in the decorative plan were yellow and white, and natural flowers were utilized, sunflowers and marguerites. The two front windows were done in pink and blue respectively.

In the ready-to-wear department, furs and fur coats were the principal items displayed.

A five-piece orchestra—Pythian—provided the music, Friday, and on Saturday, Mesdames E. O. Vahue and W. B. Mills.

The management is distinctly elated over the success of this season's opening.

MRS. J. P. NIES.

Mrs. J. P. Nies is more than pleased with the successful outcome of the first opening in her new location in the DeGross building.

She devoted but one day to the occasion—Friday, and a large participation rewarded her efforts to please. Her's was a very large showing of stylish and tasteful creations of the season, and the opening sales met her highest expectations.

In connection with this showing on the second floor of the DeGross building was the display of ladies' ready-to-wear goods by this establishment, which was one of the finest ever attempted by the company.

The color scheme was in green, potted plants in profusion were in evidence throughout the big establishment.

Mesdames E. O. Vahue and W. B. Mills were in charge of the music.

MISS PECK.

This popular west B street establishment came in for a large share of the opening success, Friday, the evening attendance especially taxing those in charge of the display.

They featured the cunning sugar-scoop hats, the new duchess satin hat with zebra feathers, the exquisite beaver plush with willow plumes, and other special designs.

Marshall Niel roses, carnations, ferns, palms, etc., provided a tasteful and ample decoration, together with the windows in white and yellow and black respectively.

The sales and orders were most satisfactory.

Disappointed in the promised Italian orchestra, a Victor was requisitioned for the occasion.

does not make a fortune anymore than one swallow makes a spring. But one dollar deposited as a start on a bank account may mean a fortune in time, just the same as the one bird indicates that spring is coming.

After you have made the start it is only necessary to adopt a rule of saving a certain part of your income REGULARLY, to lay by a substantial sum. Suppose you decide to save one-fourth or one-fifth of every dollar that comes into your hands, wouldn't that give you an excellent start in a year or less?

We would courteously ask you to consider this bank when selecting a depository for your money. We will be glad to see you at any time and explain any points that you do not understand.

COUNTY JAIL DELIVERY.

The Only Inmate, Harry McCuller, Digs His Way Out to Liberty.

Wednesday morning, Red Willow county's jail was found empty. During the previous night, Harry McCuller, the sole occupant, dug a hole through the brick wall into the boiler room, and from a rear door easily made his way to freedom.

McCuller had not been placed in the steel cell, the night before, and thus was enabled to work his way through the brick wall with the aid of a piece of steel handed him through the grating of a rear window.

McCuller was in jail to answer to the charge of burglary at the November term of district court, not being able to secure the $1,000 bond required.

Some months since he burglarized a Burlington boarding car at Indianola. No trace of relatives could be found. He is said to be only 16 years of age. Sheriff Higgins was out of the city at the time the jail delivery occurred and at this writing has not returned.

Besides the six saloon men and the three drug dealers, there are four other federal licenses held in McCook. They have been issued in the names of Laura Hughes, Blanche Elliott, Lucile Darrel, and Eagles' Club.
