Oxford and McCook Tie.

The first game of football for this season was played on the East Ward grounds, last Saturday afternoon, with a final score of 0 to 0. The Oxford team was considerably heavier than McCook by at least ten pounds to the man. The McCook team this year is an entirely new team, only two members having played last year.

The game was free from rough play on both sides. Oxford could only gain on the old cross and the quarterback run. Only one forward pass was worked successfully by Oxford, while McCook pulled off three to advantage. McCook gained at will through the line of Oxford. On account of the very hot weather both teams agreed to shorten quarters, this undoubtedly kept McCook from scoring. McCook held Oxford for downs repeatedly. Oxford played much slower than McCook. The whole McCook team played a good fast clean, hard game and every man was in the game from start to finish. McCook made consistent gains by line plunges, skin tackle plays, and worked a delayed halfback plunge for good gain.

Saturday, McCook goes to Trenton, to play and a week from Saturday to Oxford for the return game.

Harold Schwab fractured a bone in his forearm in the game, Saturday. he was easily one of the stars as long as he was in the game.

Another Fling at the Poet.

"I'm a toiler in life's vineyard," man made it "tallor." Still, this isn't so bad. Most poets would be glad if
