Edgar Howard, one of the most prominent democrats in the state and editor of the Columbus Telegram, produced photographic copies of a number of letters which passed between Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. Bartley, while Bartley was still holding the c fice of state treasurer, and relating to money transactions. Bartley turned out a defaulter to the extent of over half a million dellars of state funds. and served a term in state prison for the offense. It has always been a mystery where the money went. It will be noticed that the letter is addressed to Bartley as treasurer and not as a banker or an individual, and cause. Nailed a Few Lies. David City, Nebraska, Oct. 24th, 1910.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NEBRASKA: Ever since the beginning of this campaign a great many stories have been set in circulation regarding Chester H. Aldrich of this city, candidate for governor.

The Ministerial Union of David City on its own motion assumed the responsibility of investigating the following charges with reference to Mr. Aldrich, and we believe it our duty to report the facts to the voters of the state:

(1) That Mr. Aldrich has been married several times.

(2) That Mr. Aldrich made himself wealthy in the race horse business. (3) That nine years ago Mr. Aldrich obtained a divorce for a New York woman on perjured testimony. (4) That Mr. Aldrich failed in David City and settled his indebtedness at 20 cents on the dollar.

(5) That some six years ago Mr. Aldrich sustained a bro'ten leg as the result of a brawl in a house of illfame

(6) That Mr. Aldrich is in the habit of drinking, and of beloming intoxicated.

We find that each and every one of the above charges is absolutely false and malicious and we believe they are being circulated with a deliberate purpose to cloud the issue, and confuse and deceive the voters of the state, with reference to the moral life and good citizenship of our fellow towns man.

We believe further that we have conclusive proof that these stories emanated from brewery sources for purpose of scattering the church vote.
