Football With Trenton Tomorrow.

All lovers of the game of football, as played under the new rules, should see the game tomorrow at the East Ward School grounds at 3:00 o'clock. At that time the McCook High School will meet the BIG TRENTON GIANTS who are now claiming the High School championship of South-West Nebraska for 1910. They are BIG. They play the game hard. Let the man who claims that football is simply a game of muscle, weight and brute force come out and see what a small, light team can do against a handicap of 25 to 30 pounds per man. Archer has been mixing a lot of new dope which our boys will turn loose on the Trenton bunch tomorrow. This will be the equal in interest of any game that has ever been played in McCook. The boys need you on the sidelines to encourage them. Dr. White of Holdrege will referee the game through both halves.

McCook 10 Culbertson 0.

The McCook High School defeated the Culbertson High School in a game of football at Culbertson last Saturday by the score of 10 to 0. The Culbertson team averages 155 pounds while the McCook team averages less than 130. The game was a fine exhibition of clean hard playing where a small team by superior skill defeated a larger team clear out of its class in weight. All the McCook boys were stars. Andrew Wilson and Carl Schmidt were the players who carried the oval over the line for McCook touchdowns.

The Senior Class of the High School met and elected officers last Tuesday. Fred Archibald, President; Gertrude Sues, Vice President; Helen Schwab, Secretary and Adaline Kohler, Treasurer.

"The Squaw Man,"

H. E. Pierce and Company's great play of Western ranch life, will be the attraction at the Temple theatre soon. The selection of this drama of the West will meet with wide approval in McCook and the production, itself, promises to be one of the most pretentious that will be seen here during the present season. "The Squaw Man" is a genuine American play, replete with virility and strength. Edwin Milton Royle, the author, has skillfully combined his ingredients of dramatic interest with the proper mixture of comedy, and has succeeded in evolving a rare play wherein swiftly alternating laughs give place, frequently, to moments of intense pathos. The management has furnished a complete scenic production, the same as used in Chicago and New York, which will be used, in its entirety, during the engagement.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP EAST

Dix Defeats Stimson in New York by Plurality of 65,000.

WILSON WINS IN NEW JERSEY

Baldwin Wins Governorship of Connecticut to the Democracy—Foss Elected in Massachusetts—Democrats Capture Congress and Make Gains in Senate.

New York, Nov. 9.—More complete returns from the elections held throughout the country serve to emphasize rather than diminish the Democratic landslide. There is hardly a section of the entire nation where the Republican vote did not slump notably and in many cases disastrously. The Sixty-second congress will be Democratic by a good working majority, while in the United States senate the Republicans have only a scant lead over their opponents.

PHOTOS AMERICAN PRESS ASSN.

Four influential eastern states—New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Jersey—take their places at the head of the procession with Democratic governors and strong Democratic representation in their legislatures. Ohio, too, is Democratic. The two great leaders of the Republican party, Taft and Roosevelt, alike met defeat in their own states. Roosevelt's home town of Oyster Bay went against him; his congressional district chose a Democratic representative to replace Congressman W. W. Cocks; Roosevelt's warm personal friend; his state repudiated the Republican candidate for governor by 65,000 plurality. As an additional blow the New York state legislature is Democratic and will elect a Democratic senator to succeed Chauncey M. Depew.

House is Democratic. President Taft today finds himself face to face with the one danger which he has most dreaded and which he has sought the Republican voters of the nation to prevent—a hostile house of representatives to nullify what remains of his legislative program. A Democratic house, President Taft has pointed out, will paralyze the administration and make any party legislation impossible. On the other hand, the effectiveness of the Democratic majority in the lower house will be largely nullified with the hold the Republicans still retain in the senate.

A striking feature of the voting throughout the country was the repudiation of Republican leaders in their own homes. Vice President Sherman's home town, Utica, went Democratic by several hundred. Seneca Payne's home city, Auburn, defeated him by 800 votes, although the rural districts aroundabout came to his rescue and made his seat secure for another term. In New York city Congressman William S. Bennett was beaten by Henry George, Jr., and Herbert Parsons by Jefferson M. Levy. Congressman J. Sloat Fassett of Elmira, who went down to defeat in 1891 as a Republican candidate for governor, yesterday lost his seat in the lower house, and Hamilton Fish was defeated for reelection as the Republican candidate in the Twenty-first New York district.

Another feature of the voting in the east was the fact that in a majority of the big cities the Republicans gained while they lost in the country. In New York state, for instance, the early returns from upstate seemed to indicate the election of a Republican governor. In Ohio, similarly, Harmon, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, lost heavily in the city and gained in the country. The Republican leaders here explain this as due to the hostility of the labor vote to the Democratic candidate.

Summary by States. Summed up the results of the various state elections were as follows:
Democratic.
Alabama. New Jersey.
Connecticut. New York.
Florida. Ohio.
Indiana. Oklahoma.
Massachusetts. South Carolina.
Nevada. Texas.
Republican.
Colorado. New Hampshire.
Delaware. North Dakota.
Idaho. Pennsylvania.
Kansas. Rhode Island.
Michigan. South Dakota.
Minnesota. Tennessee.
Nebraska. Wisconsin.
Doubtful.
Iowa.

One of the most astonishing over- turns was in the rockribbed Republican state of Massachusetts, where Eugene N. Foss (Dem.) had a majority of 30,000. The long contested split in the Democratic nominating convention had appeared to indicate a state of disruption, which gave the Republicans great hope, but voters seemed to have forgotten this at the polls. Foss' campaign was made on a straightout tariff issue. The Massachusetts legislature is Republican and will elect Senator Lodge.

In New Jersey Dr. Woodrow Wilson, who resigned the presidency of Princeton University to take up the work of campaign was swept into the governor's chair by 20,000 votes, carrying with him a Democratic majority in the joint session of the legislature insuring a Democratic successor to Senator John Keam. Most of New Jersey's ten congressmen will sit with the Democratic majority in the Sixty-second congress. Connecticut has elected a Democratic governor for the first time since 1833 in the person of Judge Simeon E. Baldwin. The Republicans lost heavily in Rhode Island, re-electing Governor Aram J. Potier by a scant 1,200 votes, as against his plurality of about 12,000 in the last election. Senator Aldrich's success was a Republican.

Pennsylvania appears on late returns to have elected John K. Tener, the straight Republican candidate, by a reduced plurality. Berry (Dem.), running on the Keystone independent ticket, led him a hard fight all along the line.

Tennessee elected a fusion candidate, Ben W. Hooper, by a generous margin. Michigan was overwhelmingly in favor of Charles S. Osborn, the Republican nominee, while Wisconsin chose Frank E. McGovern (Rep.) by a reduced plurality.

In Indiana, it seems assured Senator Beveridge has been defeated, that the Democratic state ticket has been elected and that probably the entire Indiana delegation in congress will be Democratic.

In New Hampshire, Robert P. Bass, Republican candidate for governor, defeated C. F. Carr, Democratic candidate, by about 6,000 plurality.

In Iowa the Democrats claim the election of Claude R. Porter for governor, but this is not yet conceded.

In Nebraska, C. H. Aldrich, Republican candidate for governor, is apparently elected by 15,000 over James C. Dahlgren, Democratic.

GOVERNOR HARMON RE-ELECTED IN OHIO

Plurality is Largely Increased, According to Returns.

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Returns over the state show the reelection of Governor Judson Harmon (Dem.) by a plurality of 40,000. He not only gained in the cities, but the rural districts showed increased plurality.

Cleveland, Nov. 9.—Judson Harmon (Dem.) was re-elected governor of Ohio by a largely increased plurality, according to returns from about 250 precincts of the 4,526 in the state. Even the approximate figures are still in doubt, owing to a considerable switch in various districts of the state. Two years ago he was elected by 19,372.

In fifteen Cleveland precincts Harmon shows a gain of fourteen votes to a precinct, partly overbalancing the Republican gain of thirty to a precinct in Cincinnati. The complexion of the legislature is still in doubt.

The rural districts are showing large Democratic gains.

Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 9.—The Democrats gained nine of the first forty-seven representatives reported elected. This is a gain of about 20 per cent, and if maintained through the state would give the Democrats between eighty and eighty-five seats out of a total of 240 in the house, which would not be enough to affect the election of United States senator.

Governor Eben S. Draper gave out a statement conceding the election of Mr. Foss by a substantial plurality and congratulating him.

Illinois. Chicago, Nov. 9.—Returns from more than 100 precincts in Chicago, according to the City Press association, indicate a Democratic landslide. The election of the entire Democratic ticket by a plurality of 40,000 is probable. The returns indicate that the Democrats have carried the city by about 50,000 plurality and that they may gain five or six of the ten congressional districts in the city.

Returns indicate the re-election of Speaker Cannon in the Eighteenth district by a reduced plurality over William L. Cundiff (Dem.).

Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Republican State Chairman Walton claims the election of Congressman John K. Tener (Rep.) for governor by a large plurality. Berry, his Keystone party opponent, does not appear to have been as strong as his friends had expected, while Grim, the Democratic candidate, is running far behind.
