MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.
Coy Burnett was up from Lincoln, Tuesday.
Harry Stewart has been receiving a visit from his father of Alma, this week.
A. R. Scott of the McCook Electric Co. is having a tussle with a severe attack of bronchitis.
W. H. Ferguson of Lincoln, owner of large interests in this city and vicinity, was a business visitor here, last Friday.
Bert Sutton was down from Colorado, closing days of last week, guest in the home of his cousin H. P. Sutton of our city.
Master Bruce Magee had about a dozen of his little school friends in, Tuesday afternoon, to help him celebrate his seventh birthday.
Mrs. Fred Schwab was called to Hallam, Neb., first of the week, by news of the serious illness of her sister Hannah—now Mrs. Wendlein.
Mrs. Adele Phelan departed, Wednesday, for Portland, Oregon. She will visit a few days in Denver en route. Mrs. Campbell and Miss Elie accompanied her as far as Denver, where they visited briefly.
Rev. L. E. Lewis of the Methodist church went down to Bartley, Wednesday morning, on a two-days' session of the ministerial association of the church, having a paper before the session of Wednesday morning.

RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS.
Mrs. S. D. Hughes has been quite ill for the past week or two.
J. Campbell, night operator at Indianola, is sick with typhoid fever. C. C. Bauer is relieving him.
J. H. Thomas is located in Cheyenne, Wyoming, now, having recently been transferred to that city.
The pay wagon unloaded here, Monday. The boys all drew checks of increased size as a result of the late rush of business—quite a number two-checkers.
A carload of household goods was set out of freight train No. 76, at Mascot, last Saturday, and the car and contents were entirely consumed by fire, which was started inside the car by a bunch of hoboes who were stealing a ride. The hoboes made their escape into an adjacent cornfield.
The Burlington has settled a damage suit with Mrs. D. Fritzel of Chicago for $770. It will be recalled that in February last two boys sleeping on the siding at Doane, just west of Benkelman, were run over by passenger train No. 16. One of the lads was killed and the other one, Fritzel by name, lost a leg, which was amputated at Holdrege, a day or so later. Young Fritzel's mother brought suit against the company, and the settlement, close of last week, ended the suit.
Sunday evening, passenger train No. 5 ran into the rear end of freight train No. 77A, at Cambridge, where the freight engine was taking water. The way car of the freight train and the locomotive of the passenger train were both considerably damaged, but no one was injured. The freight had a flagman back, but without avail. It is said the passenger was a little ahead of arrival time. Engineer Moore of Lincoln was driving the engine of No. 5; Conductor Miller was in charge of the train. Conductor Beeler was conducting the freight.
Conductor Worth Humphrey had the bridge special and the pay car over the division, this week.

THINGS FOR YOUR THANKSGIVING
When Your Friends Dine With You, will you not need new napery? Before they are washed the first time, cheap linens look almost as good as good linens. Know that our linens are reliable, because, only reliable mills have made them for us. Those we sell you will stand the wear of washing and retain their good appearance.

We have bought such large quantities of linens for our Thanksgiving trade that we can sell all Table Damask, 72 inches wide for 75c, 90c, $1.00, $1.50 per yd.
We are sure that the sets, cloth and napkins to match, would interest you.

When the Hen Crows.
Wilford in his "Nature Secrets" (1658) writes:
"Beasts eating greedily and more than they used to do prenotes foul weather, and all small cattle that seem to rejoice with playing and sporting themselves foreshews rain. Oxen and all kinds of neat, if you do at any time observe them to hold up their heads and snuffle in the air or lick their hooves or their bodies against the hair, expect then rainy weather. Asses or mules rubbing often their ears or braying much more than usually they are accustomed presages rain. Hogs crying and running up and down with lay or litter in their mouths foreshews a storm to be near at hand. The little sable beast bleat a flea if much thirsting after food it argues rain. The cock if he crows in the daytime very much or at sunset or when he is at roost at unusual hours, as at 9 or 10, expect some change of weather and that suddenly, but from fair to foul or the contrary. But when the hen crows good men expect a storm within doors and without."

Lured Into Bathing.
In a railway carriage that the other day a London medical man told a good story which had come within his own experience. A mother was frequently bringing her child to him for treatment, but the doctor could discover nothing amiss except its need of a good wash. She was certain the infant was suffering from some terrible complaint and begged the doctor to do his best. He prescribed a daily wash with the water in which potatoes had been peeled. Never suspecting that this was merely a ruse to get the child washed, the mother followed the instructions to the letter. Rosy cheeks appeared, and a clean, healthy looking child gladdened the mother's heart. She sounded the doctor's praises everywhere and advised other mothers to test the efficacy of potato water. It never occurred to her that precisely the same result would have followed the daily application of soap and water.

A Spanish Ship Treasure.
In 1762 the largest bulk of treasure ever taken from a ship at sea was brought into London. It was the whole of the cargo of the Spanish ship Hermione, captured on May 21 by H. M. S. Active. The Hermione surrendered to the Active without an action, and the treasure was landed at Portsmouth and conveyed to London in twenty decorated wagons, with British colors over Spanish and an escort party of sailors. The strange procession reached London on Aug. 12, the day on which George IV. was born. On being sold the treasure realized £519,705 1s. 6d., and the share of the officers and men of the Active was as follows: The captain, £65,053 13s. 9d.; three commissioned officers, each £13,004 14s. 1d.; eight warrant officers, each £4,336 3s. 2d.; twenty petty officers, each £1,806 1s. 8d.; 158 seamen, each £485 5s. 4d.—Pall Mall Gazette.

At the Wrong Door.
"My health and digestion are perfect, doctor," began the caller in the office of the medical man. "I haven't an ache or a pain. The trouble with me is that I cannot sleep at night."
"Well, if that is the case, sir," said the learned physician, "I suggest that you consult your spiritual adviser rather than me."—Lippincott's.

Greatly Overrated.
"Mrs. Gaswell, while you were in Venice did you see the Bridge of Sighs?"
"Oh, yes; I saw what they called that; but, my land, I've seen bridges ten times its size without ever going out of Pennsylvania!"—Chicago Tribune.

One of Life's Problems.
It is often more difficult to forget than it is to remember.

The Unemployed.
The legislation of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth centuries abounds in bills concerning the unemployed. In the reign of Edward VI. several laws were passed against "idlers"—most of them such because they could get nothing to do. In the reign of Henry VIII. the kingdom was infested with "rogues," "vagrabonds" and "idle persons," and it is said that during Henry's reign more than 70,000 of this unfortunate class were hanged.
Drawback.
The Alpine guide waxed eloquent. "Behold," he cried, "yon beetling crags!" "They beetle for everybody, though!" sneered the rich American, and sullenly spat in token of his discontent. It was not true, however, that he lacked appreciation of the beautiful and the sublime, provided these were costly and exclusive.—Puck.
One Source of Knowledge.
A novelist can learn something from everybody—and a great deal from women; perhaps more than he thinks from these latter.
