The reader's attention is directed to the new advertisement of Walter Foster appearing in this issue. He does draying in all its branches.

Cambridge is in misfortune with several cases of smallpox. We are in sympathy with our friends down in Cambridge—having in years passed "enjoyed" several sieges of that kind.

Bring the Tots to see our big doll family. Every nationality is represented here. It's the best stock of dolls we have ever shown. Dolls from five cents to ten dollars. L. W. McConnell, Druggist, First door north of DeGroff's.

Farmers are complaining of hunters trespassing on their farms, scaring and injuring animals and committing depredations. Such people have very little regard for rights of property and probably the only remedy is the strong arm of the law. Hunters have no more right on farms than they have on city residence or business properties, with guns and dogs. Snappy on your own side—and that means outside.

With the elimination of Hog Cholera, Alfalfa and hogs are here to stay and profitable pork production will be one of the chief subjects of interest to farmers to be discussed at the Agricultural Meetings in Lincoln, January 18, 1911.

You cannot overlook the big advertisement of L. W. McConnell in this issue, announcing his holiday opening in the old Model shoe store building, the Ganschow building, corner of Main and B street east. The best way to get an adequate idea of the display is to go early and look it over.

We wonder if the farmers in our vicinity know that the number of hogs in Nebraska decreased from 2,329,547 in 1908 to 1,490,232 in 1910. This fact is of vital importance to Nebraskans. What can we do to remedy this shortage of pork production? Attend the meetings of Organized Agriculture at Lincoln, January 18th to 20th and solve the problem.

"There's a reason."

Nyal's Peroxide Cold Cream is better than others because it cures. It is not greasy or sticky. It clears the complexion and does not make hair grow on the face. 25c of WOODWORTH, Druggist.

One of the prettiest store decorations for Christmas is the snow storm reproduced at Woodworth's drug store. It is worth any one's while to go see how well the idea has been carried out.

Organized Agriculture holds meetings at Lincoln, January 16th to 20th, 1911. Agricultural, horticultural and live stock subjects will be discussed each day. In the animal discussion, Tuesday will be assigned to horses, Wednesday to swine and Thursday to cattle and a general silo discussion is set for Friday morning. This is the great farmer meeting of the year and every progressive farmer in this community should be present.

A MAN'S WHISKERS.

They Should Not Be Renovated With the Shoebrush.

If men would devote as much loving care to their whiskers as women do to their hair they would contribute greatly to increasing the dignity of the sex.

A woman wouldn't think of coming downtown without having her hair properly arranged. She combs it, and fusses with it, and pads it out with rats, and puts wire cages under it, and runs ribbons through it, and she is a vision of loveliness when she appears in the busy haunts of men.

But a man gives his whiskers no attention further than to brush the eggshells or clam chowder out of them with the shoebrush. It never seems to occur to him that his whiskers might be made beautiful if he would devote one-half the time to them that a woman gives to her hair. He might easily have made a wire cage to attach to his chin, and then he could weave his whiskers around it in captivating styles and tie the ends together with a pink or blue ribbon.

The alfalfa editor gets tired of seeing the same old fashions in whiskers when it would be so easy to devise new and striking ways of wearing them.

There should be a whiskers club in Emporia. If such an organization were formed and the members held weekly meetings to exchange ideas and compare notes the results would soon be apparent. The town's whiskers would soon become distinctive, and their reputation would cover the country.

Let us have a new deal in spinach.—Emporia Gazette.

Divides the Waters.

Situated exactly at the highest point of the divide of the Rocky mountains, on the Crow's Nest division of the Canadian Pacific railway, in British Columbia, is a hotel. When it rains in the mountains the water which falls on the eastern slope of the hotel roof trickles away to join a tiny rivulet, which in due time mingles its waters with the Atlantic. The water falling just beyond the ridgepole, on the other side of the roof, flows westerly and ultimately into the Pacific.

Lots of Them.

"What is that?"
"When money talks does it always talk cents?"—Baltimore American.

His Argument.

"Dear, I only play poker for fun."
"But you bet, don't you?"
"Well, there wouldn't be any fun without a little betting."—Pittsburg Post.
