DEATH OF MRS. J. F. GANSCHOW.

Passed Away, Last Saturday, Having Been Ill for Long Time.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ganschow, formerly of this city, will be pained deeply to learn of the death, last Saturday, of Mrs. Ganschow, in their home at Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Ganschow has been in failing health for some time, but her death was nevertheless unexpected to their many old friends in McCook, where they formerly lived for many years.

The remains were taken to the old home in Danvers, Illinois, last Sunday, for burial.

The Tribune expresses the sentiment of a host of friends in extending Mr. Ganschow and son the profoundest sympathy in this sorrow and loss.

AN AGED MOTHER PASSES ON.
The End Came for Mrs. Martha J. Strine, Peacefully, Wednesday Last.

Mrs. Martha J. Strine, full of years, passed away, Wednesday of last week, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Edwin S. Walters, of our city.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church, last Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. L. E. Lewis, after which burial was made in Longview cemetery of this city.

"Martha J. Strine was born, January 10th, 1833, in Chambersburg, Penna., and died in McCook, Nebraska, December 16th, 1910.

"She was married to Phillip Strine, March 22, 1851. To this union were born seven children, three of whom are still living: David Strine of Curtis, Oklahoma, Eugene Strine of Strang, Nebraska, and Mrs. Edwin S. Walters of McCook, Nebraska. There are three stepsons: Benjamin Strine of Washington, Joseph and Peter Strine of Martinsburg, West Va.

"Mother Strine joined the M. E. church when she was 16 years old, and remained a member of the church until the end. In her last days she was ready and waiting for the end to come. She was sweetly trusting in her Heavenly Father in whom she had trusted all her life.

"The family wish to thank the neighbors and friends who so kindly helped; the lodges for their flowers and sympathy; and the singers at the funeral service.

"The funeral service was held in the Methodist church, December 16th, conducted by the pastor Rev. L. E. Lewis."

He That Would Not When He Might, He SHALL Not When He Would.

Is a pretty true saying. And nowhere does it apply more forcibly than regarding your bank account. A good many of you make pretty good money, draw big checks, but how many of you have any of it left when the next pay day comes?

Now is a pretty good time to lay up a snug little balance. Did you ever stop to figure that the time might come when it would not be possible? Sickness, loss of employment, business depression, and strikes are menacing things and especially to the man without money. Better take time by the forelock and start now with
