"The Rosary."
Founded upon an emblem of purity and full of human interest that goes straight to the heart, "The Rosary" a new play by Ed. E. Rose, has made a most favorable impression. The production is a new one, and Messrs. Rowland and Clifford have given it a magnificent staging. The theme of the play as expressed by the title is presented in gripping and forceful manner that strikes home and at the same time there is an abundance of original and moral comedy. Seldom is a cast more fitted to their respective parts than the members of this company.
Every member is so well placed that there is not the slightest jarring of any part in the play and the result is a perfect rendition.
In "Rev. Brian Kelly" played by one of the best portrayals of this nature that has ever been seen on the stage. Mr. Harlan is forceful, sympathetic and impressive, and gives just the right touch of realism to character. "The Rosary" has just completed a most successful three months run in Chicago and is now playing at the Garden Theatre in New York City. At Temple theatre January 21st.

A Detail Correction.
Percy Bell asks the publisher to correct one item of the story of the fire in the Lehn brick building last week. One of the two fires, he says, did not start in his barber shop, but in the "club room" adjoining his shop. As the fire started near the partition separating the shop from the club room, the flames soon ate their way through into his shop.

Death of Baby Bos.
Little Juanita Mae, the 9-months-old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bos, died on Sunday, Monday on No. 16 the body was shipped to Prairie City, Kansas for burial. The sorrowing parents accompanied the remains. Mr. Bos is employed in the dry goods department of C. L. DeGroff & Co.

He That Would Not When He Might, HE SHALL NOT When He Would.

Is a pretty true saying. And nowhere does it apply more forcibly than regarding your bank account. A good many of you make pretty good money, draw big checks, but how many of you have any of it left when the next pay day comes?
Now is a pretty good time to lay up a snug little balance. Did you ever stop to figure that the time might come when it would not be possible? Sickness, loss of employment, business depression, and strikes are menacing things and especially to the man without money.
Better take time by the forelock and start now with

Sheriff Higgins has moved his office into the apartments formerly occupied by the county attorney. The sheriff's former quarters will be made a part of the office of the clerk of the district court—a needed convenience for that office.

The Kansas City Times says of the Tilly Olson show which will be the attraction at the Temple January 14: "Tilly Olson" a Swedish comedy drama, is the offering at the Auditorium theatre this week. It tells a story of a Swedish girl employed as a servant in the home of a Minnesota farmer. She does many quaint things because of her lack of knowledge of the ways of this country and also succeeds in stopping the plans of the villain in the interest of the daughter of the farmer. Agnes Nelson appears as Tilly, and she does very well in the character. She was especially good in portraying the many eccentricities of the Swedish girl and in the use of the dialect. Several specialties are introduced in the play which are well up to the standard.
