The Peoples' Water Ticket

BY THE COMMITTEE.

HOW THEY DID IT.

The Republican caucus assembled itself in the court house last week and proceeded with the labor of delivering a city ticket. There was evidence of generalship and control exercised from the rear corner of the room where Councilmen Stansberry and Billy Woods and City Attorney McCarl posted themselves with field glasses in hands. Out in front on the firing line were Hons. Starr, Sam Dulaney, Comrade Underhill and Syl Cordeal. The skirmish began with nominations for mayor. Among those nominated were W. B. Whittaker (by Fahnstock), ex Mayor Stephens (by Starr), W. R. Starr. (by Sam Dulaney), Sylvester Cordeal (by W. R. Starr). After speeches by Hons. Starr and Dulaney and declinations for ex-Mayor Stephens and by Hons. Starr and Cordeal, and after the chair had put a motion closing nominations Candidate Whittaker was named for the honor. After that there seemed to be no trouble in settling on the other nominees.

H. P. Waite and L. W. McConnell were easily and surely named for the city council to succeed themselves. Meanwhile the chair had appointed a committee on resolutions that related to prepare the party's bid for the voter's support,—viz., the platform. This detachment filed off from the field in a southeast direction with the evident intention of getting in the rear of the enemy and taking possession of their powder and ball. The battle waged. Col. Starr carried himself off the field and stood over by the door as though retreating. Cols. Dulaney, Underhill and Cordeal stood their ground through it all, evidently having confidence in the sortie of the resolutions committee. After all the candidates had been nominated and speeches of acceptance applauded there remained only the declaration of principles for the candidates to stand (or run) upon. This was eventually provided by the return of the resolutions committee triumphantly bringing with them whole and entire, the thunder of the Peoples' Water Caucus which they had successfully captured in their heroic sortie. Without a hitch or a break this platform was slipped under the feet of the wailing candidates and the labors of the caucus were complete.

BUT VOTERS! Do you think the candidates of that caucus will hold themselves even formally bound by a platform adopted subsequently to the nominations? Heretofore those same men have refused to be bound by the unanimous mandate of the whole community. Will you send them back to the city council to sit on the lid another two years? It is a show-down this time. Vote for McAdams for mayor and for Wm. Middleton and H. C. Brown for Councilmen.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY.

There is a word which Webster's Unabridged Dictionary defines as follows: "a state of government or society where individuals do what they please with impunity." Hence Confusion." It is not necessary that buildings be burned or houses and stores plundered; the condition exists all right if the sovereign will (the mandate of the people) be disregarded or disobeyed. McCook has seen some of it in the past two years. The sovereign voters recorded their mandate as duly provided by law. They did all that is laid down. No act was omitted. Their command was complete. It was to the city council. It ordered the construction of a municipal water plant. It specified the cost. It provided the funds. It left nothing to the council except the exercise of its business judgment in the matter of the DETAILS of the enterprise. It was to be carried out with reasonable dispatch and without postponement. The sovereign will disposed of the principal matters of when to build, what to build, how much to pay. Yet we find the council—men upon whom this mandate was laid presuming to use the following language. "If after a careful consideration of the entire question it shall seem for the best interests of the city that a municipal plant be installed at this time the Republican candidates will be in favor of its installation."

Thereupon they proceeded for the past two years to do nothing to carry out this mandate of the sovereign power. On the contrary we find them very busy in concocting a new franchise for the old plant at a largely increased rate for twenty years to come. When questioned in public meeting as to why they had not sold the bonds and built the plant they answered weakly that they couldn't sell the bonds and didn't think it the right time to build and said in general terms there were other reasons besides. By inference they didn't think and do not think the "right time" will occur within the next 20 years, as they attempted giving the right to own and operate the plant to the same old company regardless of the expressed will and decree of the people to own and operate it for themselves.

Yet these are the men, Voters of McCook, who ask you to return them to the positions they have abused, that they may still further work their own pleasure in place of doing the commands of the sovereign people. Voters of McCook: Let your rebuke be with no uncertain voice. Let your votes be cast for Jas. McAdams for mayor, and Wm. Middleton and H. C. Brown for councilmen. These are the men who have led the present indignant uprising of the voters of McCook against the high handed proposals of the present council, and they may be trusted to do the will of the people, as laid down by the people.

TWO YEARS AGO.

Two years ago the people feared the influence of the Water Company with the city council as it would consist if the Republican candidates were elected. They forced from the candidates (Messrs. Waite and McConnell) a written and signed statement which was circulated by the candidates on the 2nd day of April, '09, in which they denied the rumor that they proposed to "extend the franchise of the Water Co. for 20 years or for any other period."

How does that agree with their very recent effort to give the old Water Co. a 20 year franchise?

In that statement they declared "The Republican candidates are unalterably opposed, as they have repeatedly said, to the purchase of the old water plant by the city." If unalterably opposed, how can they now well serve the people in the possible purchase of the old plant at a fair valuation? New measures demand new men. They are on the shelf and discarded by the march of events. New men are needed.

Their statement further said in black and white, "The city council is equally without power to extend the franchise of the present company at this time, the franchise now in existence still having more than four years to run." Yet we see them in less than two years coming to the front with a new 20 year franchise at a great increase in the price of water. How is that for faithfulness?

Their card further said, "So far as the question of rates is concerned, there is not now any proposition to increase them." What! No proposition to increase them? Why! At that very minute the Water Co. was engaged in a tussle with the city in the courts in which they were contending for an increase in the rates, in which contention the courts did not sustain them but sent them back to pump the water at the 16c rate. They failed to convince the district court or the supreme court that they could not run at 15c.

They further said: "The ordinance fixing the 16c rate is in existence and has four years to run, and the Republican candidates are not in favor of an increase in the rate."

Well, Fellow Citizens, they said all that, but inside of twenty-four months we find them at the front with a new franchise ready to hand it over to the same old Water Co. raising the rate 25% on the people and extending the Water Co.'s franchise for 20 years.

Yet the people had recorded their mandate! Will we send them back for (Continued on page 8.)

Department Not Required.

A fire alarm was sent in Monday night from the Kendlen cottage on 2nd street west, occupied by James Steinmann and family, but before the department could reach the residence another phone announced that the fire had been extinguished by the family and it was not necessary for the department to throw any water. A high wind was blowing and it was dangerous time for a fire, so the end was fortunate.

Nursery Stock.

As usual we will have a car load of nursery stock for sale after April 1st. Come to the greenhouse and look over the stock. Shade trees of all kinds and sizes, fruit trees that will bear inspection also small fruit, rose bushes, shrubs, vines, bulbs and greenhouse plants.
