

500,000 ACRES Of Fruit and Wheat Land Open for Home Seekers in Southern Idaho.

I want about 100 families to come to RICHFIELD, IDAHO, to take up homesteads where the land will produce from 36 to 60 bushels of wheat per acre, from 80 to 125 bushels of oats, from 50 to 110 bushels corn to the acre, from 350 to 650 bushels of potatoes per acre, and from 4 to 7 tons of hay to the acre, all kinds of berries, fruit, vegetables, plenty of timber at the foot-hills. This excellent opportunity applies to business men. These are our wants: Flouring mill and Elevator, warehouse, a wholesale house, Dairy and Poultry Farms, an Electric plant and many other lines of business would do well. There is one railroad through the town and another being built this summer. For further information call or write to

HENRY MAPES RICHFIELD, IDAHO.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS
 McCook People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them.
 Sick kidneys give many signals of distress.
 The secretions are dark, contain a sediment.
 Passages are frequent, scanty, painful.
 Backache is constant, day and night.
 Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent.
 The weakened kidneys need quick help.
 Don't delay!! Use a special kidney remedy.
 Doan's Kidney pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. McCook evidence proves this statement.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Kummer, 208 E. Fourth St., McCook, Nebr., says: "I was subject to backaches and headaches and I knew that my kidneys were weak, as the secretions from these organs were badly disordered. Upon taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I found immediate relief and continued use made my health much better. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and advise their use in all cases of kidney complaint."
 For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Easter Lilies and a Daisy

As the Chicken Sees It.

people don't give presents on Easter." "That is just it," said Rose. "Nobody was expecting presents, and I had the most glorious time." And she had—we know she had, as she stood in happy thought looking out of the window at the newly blossoming earth caressed by the sunshine and kissed by the breeze. There was a light in her face that made us forget clothes and presents and anger and think only of Easter. As we went away neither of us said anything for some time. At the corner we met old Buck Tiekner and his cane that forever went peck-peck-pecking viciously along the walk. For many years old Buck had been saving up for a rainy day—his rainy day. He had let his wife die because he was too stingy to have a doctor, and all his children had fled before they were scarcely grown. His grasping mouth, his withered, wrinkled face, his narrow suspicious eyes, always made me shudder. "Isn't he horrid?" Mary spoke first when we were past. And then in a moment as her eyes wandered to the blossoming orchard at the edge of town she sighed resignedly: "I don't know what we will ever do with her, but isn't she a dear? And if one must go to the extreme I guess it is best to fake the highest one." "I am going to, if I can," I said, and Mary looked at me wonderingly. Next morning was Easter, indeed. The world was full of sunshine and early flowers and songs of birds and soft winds. Rose came to the door herself, for the church bells were just ringing. Never had she looked more beautiful, and that is the end of praise. I stepped into the hall and closed the door behind me. She looked up at me a little surprised, a little agitated. "Rose"—her lids drooped and hid her soft gray eyes, and she breathed a little quickly—"you have made everybody happy by your gifts, everybody from Bombay to Maine, everybody but me. Won't you make me a present, an Easter gift?" "What?" she said softly, and her voice fluttered. "The lady with the lily soul." And I held out my arms waiting. When we went out into the sunlight a little while later I said most sincerely and gratefully: "Rose, you are such a wonderful giver!"

Easter Morning.
 Waken, little people;
 Waken, children, dear!
 Listen! From the steeple
 Bells are pealing clear:
 "We ring
 For the birthday of the spring;
 We bring
 The happy Easter day."
 Bells of silver lilies
 Softly stir today,
 Though their chime so still is,
 Yet they seem to say:
 "We ring
 Only perfume music as we swing;
 We bring
 On the happy Easter day."

Las, if I had not been hatched, Had never burst my shell, Had never wandered forth and scratched for food my craw to swell, I should escape the woe-fate invited by my present estate.

MISS PATSY PULLET
 I'm now a chicken fat and fine, And since their Lenten fast My owners will expect to dine— I real feed at last— And in a stew I'm sure to be When I am carved for fricassee.

"I COULD HAVE BORNE MY YOLK"
 But if I had remained in shell I could have borne my yolk, In white imprisonment to dwell (This isn't any joke!) O time, turn back, I plead, I beg, And let me be an Easter egg! PATSY PULLET.

Easter Superstitions.
 Draw the egg of violet hue, Means friends fond and true.
 Pink will bring you luck, A lover full of pluck.
 Gladly take the egg of green, Good fortune soon will be seen.
 Wealth and happiness with the egg of gray, Keep it and hide safely away.
 The egg of blue Means lovers few.
 Do not touch the egg of red, If you do you'll never wed.
 A lover this very night If you draw the egg of white, You'll marry in another town If you choose the egg of brown.

 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at last one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
