Let Him Wag as He Wags. A well known veterinary surgeon of Lemberg, Austria, was recently called to the telephone, when this conversation followed: "Hello! Is this Dr. N.?" "Yes. What do you wish?" "My horse is standing stock still on his hind legs, with his forefeet in the air, and nothing can make him come down on all fours. Did you ever hear of such a queer case? What shall I do about it?" "The case is extraordinary," replied the astonished doctor. "I can give no opinion without seeing the animal. Where do you live?" "Carl-Ludwig strasse." "And your name?" "Sobieski."

Cambridge vs. McCook.

McCook defeated Cambridge at Cambridge last Friday by the score of 11 to 9. The game was marked by loose play on the part of both teams. Minnick pitched very good game but the McCook team slugged better than his team mates and won. He had eight strike outs to his credit and allowed 11 hits. Amsden was very wild and passed six men and also hit several batsmen. Cambridge had the bases full four times and only one out and "Ams" struck out the next two men. Otherwise he pitched a good game allowing only three safe hits and striking out ten men. With the score 9 to 8 in McCook's favor, two down and men on second and third Amsden poked a clean single to right bringing in two men and winning the game. Knowles made three safe singles. Schwab, Dorwart and Amsden two each. Score by innings: H R Cambridge 3 1 0 1 0 0 1 2 1 - 3 9 McCook 1 0 2 0 1 0 4 0 2 2 - 11 11 Batteries: Cambridge: Minnick, Weeks and Carroll. McCook: Amsden, Emerson. Umpire, Carroll.

Arapahoe vs. McCook.

McCook won her first home game by the score of 13 to 6. Arapahoe was the victim. Prime, the visitor's

Well Patronized by Pupils.

The benefit for the McCook high school athletic association held in the high school auditorium was well patronized by a patriotic pupil body last evening. There were two short plays presented by the following members of the school: "My Lord in Livery"—Lord Thirlmere, Fred Archibald; Spiggot, the Bullard's have dry stove wood.

Mosaic Work.

The origin of Mosaic work is unknown. We may be sure, however, that it began among some oriental people. It had attained to great excellence in Greece in the time of Alexander and his successors. The Romans also excelled in Mosaic work, as is shown by the many preserved specimens today to be seen in the museums. The art was revived in Italy by Giotto, Cimabue and others and from Italy made its way into the other European countries. Some of the achievements of the Mosaic works of the best Italian period are little less than miraculous.—New York American.

Grim Recollections.

"Now that you are famous, Mr. Rimer, we propose to place a tablet on your former home." "Well?" "What would you wish us to say?" "You might say that I was ejected for nonpayment of rent," replied the somewhat embittered bard.—Washington Herald.

Widely Separated.

"Are you related to Barney O'Brien?" Thomas O'Brien was once asked. "Very distantly," replied Thomas. "I was my mother's first child; Barney was the sixteenth!"

pitcher was about the whole team. He pitched a splendid game, getting ten strike outs to his credit. The McCook sluggers made 14 safe hits off his delivery, but several of them could have been cut off by faster work on the part of his team mates. Arapahoe started well, scoring twice in the first and once in the second, but they were blanked in the other innings excepting the 6th, when they made three clean hits which coupled with a few errors by the home team, were enough to score three men. Dorwart pitched a good steady game, getting 11 strike outs and allowing only 9 hits. "Heap" Emerson caught a splendid game besides getting two nice hits, one good for a circuit of the bases, thanks to Arapahoe's right fielder. "Heap's" pegging to second was fine, not a man stole on him. Arapahoe's catcher was very weak at pegging. He did not throw out a man at second in 12 attempts. Knowles was the leading slugger, getting three timely hits. One a home run that scored two men ahead of him. The attendance was small. Score by innings: H R McCook 1 1 0 3 1 3 2 1 2 * - 14 14 Arapahoe 2 2 1 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 - 9 6 Batteries: Arapahoe: Prime and Curry. McCook: Dorwart and Emerson. Umpire, Downs.
