Norris Would Admit Arizona

Washington, May 22. (Special.)—Two members of the republican wing of the Nebraska delegation of the house took issue today on the floor concerning certain particulars of the statehood bill now pending.

Mr. Norris and Mr. Kinkaid will vote for the bill, but while Mr. Norris warmly commended the Arizona constitution approving of the referendum and recall clauses, Mr. Kinkaid seemed to think that these were too radical and objectional.

Mr. Norris warmly favors the initiative, referendum and recall, except as the latter is made applicable to the judiciary.
