Supt. Koller was out from Galesburg, Illinois, to witness the graduation of his daughter Miss Adaline. He left for the east on No. 12, the following morning. The family will join him in Galesburg later. Supt. Flynn and mother will occupy the residence they vacate.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bennet visited in the city, close of last week. "Benny" is braving passenger out of Sheridan, except in the base ball season, when he does the managerial act in one of the minor leagues. Mrs. B. will be better remembered by Tribune readers as Miss Stella Fuller.

Ida, Vera, and Winona Craw went down to McCook Wednesday evening, to attend commencement exercises, and to see their sister, Alma, graduate. Vera and Winona will return home Friday. Ida, Ruth and Alma will go on to Lincoln for a visit with their sister, Laura, many relatives and friends.—Trenton Register cor.

Mrs. P. B. Hoyt had a rainy day to go to McCook to take the children to their school, Sunday afternoon, but she is feeling pretty good, and why not, she was on her way to Kearney to attend the graduating exercises at the State Normal of which class her oldest son is a member, and also a younger son will be an eighth grade graduate at McCook. This, we think, is something to feel proud of.—Trenton Register cor.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

RED WILLOW.

Paul Smith and family are visiting the old folks at home.

Mrs. Gary Dole came home for a visit and to attend Decoration Day exercises.

Practicing for the cantata, in Indianola, managed by Mr. Calvin, has been seriously interfered with by sickness in different families for months.

Rain on Sunday prevented some from here attending Memorial services in Indianola.

There was an unusual number of terribly high winds and dust storms, for May, generally such a pleasant month.

The good rain rejoices the hearts of the farmers.

Additional Wreck News.

Burst Boiler Disastrous.

Six of the deaths resulted from scalds, caused by the bursting of the boiler of one of the engines. This sent the steam roaring and seething into the chair car which was thrown up onto the boiler. At least two more deaths may be expected from this same source. Both Mrs. Feekin and Mr. H. H. Culbertson being critically burned.

Sorting and Repacking.

A force of men are at work today sorting and repacking the baggage which was damaged in the wreck. The company is providing trunks and suit cases where those damaged require it. Baggage men, however, report this feature rather mild.

Investigation Last Night.

General Supt. Allen came out from Lincoln last evening, and is still in the city. The matter of responsibility for the wreck was a matter of investigation, last night, but no decision has as yet been announced.

Word from Holdrege, this morning, announces the death of Miss Grace Dean of Minden, one of the scalded passengers.

SAINT ANN.

The string band of Saint Ann furnished the music for the second annual ball at Culbertson on Saturday night.

Mrs. J. Bash and family of Lismore, Minn., are visiting relatives and friends here.

The agents of the Blue Bell and DeLaval cream separators held a contest at J. F. Scheider's Wednesday to prove which separator was the better. Cloy Wright of Saint Ann did the testing of the cream and milk under each party doing their own separating. The DeLaval winning by about five points. Following is the test of each: Blue Bell, cream, 49; milk, 1-100. DeLaval, cream, 44; milk, 1-100. Each party being represented by several agents.

Several of the boys from here attended the dance at Culbertson Saturday night.

Another fine rain Thursday night. This was the heaviest rain of the season.

A Leading California Druggist.

Pasadena, Cal., March 9, 1911. Foley and Co., Gentlemen:—We have sold and recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years. We believe it to be one of the most efficient expectorants on the market. Containing no opiates or narcotics it can be given freely to children. Enough of the remedy can be taken to relieve a cold, as it has no nauseating results, and does not interfere with digestion. Yours very truly, C. H. Ward Drug Co., C. L. Parsons, Sec'y and Treas." Get the original Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the yellow package. A. McMillen.

Foley's Kidney Remedy.

Is particularly recommended for chronic cases of kidney and bladder trouble. It tends to regulate and control the kidney and bladder action and is healing, strengthening and bracing. A. McMillen.
