Mr. and Mrs. Dorwart Entertain. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Dorwart entertained a company of young people in honor of their guests Miss Hazel and Miss Ethel King, of Victoria, Texas. The residence was prettily decorated for the event, roses and carnations affording a choice floral vehicle for the purpose. The evening was one of distinct enjoyment, games and music adding to its pleasurable flight. A two-course lunch was later served, and it being Flag Day, the national colors were carried out cleverly in the refreshments served.

I. O. O. F. Memorial.

The members of McCook lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., will attend Memorial Day services next Sunday morning at the Congregational church. They will assemble at their hall at 10 o'clock, and march to the church in organization. Rev. Bayne will preach the sermon. After the services in the church the decoration of the graves and the ritualistic work will take place at the cemetery.

Filed Tentative Report.

Representatives of the Audit and Bond Co., of America, who have been doing some checking of county officers for the county commissioners, made a preliminary report to the board, Wednesday, but the contents of the report will not be made public until at a later date. The county commissioners will be in session again on Monday.

RISKY.

It's risky to buy drugs just because low prices are quoted. Quality determines value. Extremely low prices generally mean inferior quality. There's a limit and our prices are the limit of lowness for goods of worthy quality.

HE IS GETTING ALONG NICELY

The Tribune is pleased to print the fact that Sam Montgomery, who was severely injured at the Perry crossing on Monday morning, is at home, and recovering nicely. He can't tell much as to how the accident happened, but is mighty happy it is no worse than it is.

An eye-witness states, however, that the young man, apparently not knowing of the approach of the train, was waving a handkerchief at some one in the neighborhood; and that at the same time the engineer was leaning out of his cab and looking back toward the rear end of the train looking for a signal from the train men.

SOME OF CUPID'S DOINGS

Simmons-Browne.

Mr. Ralph M. Simmons and Miss Winifred E. Browne were married in St. Albans Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon, June 14th, at 4 o'clock. Rev. Alric J. R. Goldsmith, rector, performing the impressive ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one and witnessed by only the immediate members of the family and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons left on No. 10, same afternoon, for the eastern part of the state, to be absent about a week on a short wedding trip, visiting Mr. Simmons' folks, etc.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Conductor and Mrs. Will Browne and is an accomplished and estimable young lady with a wide circle of friends. The groom is a brakeman in the Burlington freight service; stands well with the company and with his fellow railroad men and among all in this city "who know him."

The Tribune adds to its congratulations its hearty well wishes.

Hughes-Barritt.

On the evening of June 14, 1911, at 9 o'clock, a quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Barritt, when their daughter Hazel was united in marriage to H. Guy Hughes, Elder Harry M. Mitchell of Indianola, officiating.

The couple were attended by Lloyd Barritt, brother of the bride, and Miss Frances Hughes, sister of the groom. Immediately following the ceremony a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout with white carnations. The bride and groom left on No. 3 for Denver, for a week's outing in the mountains.

They will be at home on West 2nd street, to their friends, after July 15, 1911.

Ladies' Dresses, Coats and Suits at 20% discount from June 15 to 24. C. L. DeGROFF & CO.

A Few Junior Normal Notes.

INSTITUTE WEEK.

The institute week for Red Willow county will be the week beginning June 19. This week promises to be one replete with the kind of work which will make you glad to be here.

All of the Junior Normal faculty will have concentrated, specially prepared work for institute week, while the reading and geography-agricultural work will be presented by specialists in those lines.

Prof. N. A. Bengston. — The students who were here last year will be delighted to know that Prof. Bengston is to be with us again. He is able to do so only by special arrangement for his absence at the summer session of the state university. His work as Adjunct Professor of Geography and Economics Geography at the University of Nebraska, of which department Dr. G. E. Condra is at the head, is too widely known to need advertising. The inspiration he brought us last year will be sure to again make his class rooms crowded ones. Many of his lectures will be illustrated in our well equipped dark room. His work will be in three general lines: Geography of Nebraska, (particularly the southwestern); Industrial Geography; Agriculture.

Miss Margaret Dunlap.—Miss Dunlap is well prepared for the presentation she will make. She is a graduate of the Department of Expression at Peru, and spent last year at the Columbia College of Expression in Chicago, one of the largest schools of expression in the west. Her line will be that of story-telling and reading. She comes to us from Chicago where she has been working, and will surely bring us the latest and best thoughts in these subjects. It is an art to be able to tell a story well. All children love to be told stories, and a teacher is much strong er who has that ability. Miss Dunlap will tell how this may be acquired.

Reading—simple interpretation from the printed page—is a subject which needs more emphasis. It is at the very foundation, so to speak, of all other work. It must be a live subject. Just how its enlivenment may be accomplished Miss Dunlap will show us. In fact, as presented by her it will be inspirational as well as grounded in the mechanics and methods from the primary through the grades.

Evening Entertainments.—At High school auditorium. Monday, June 19—Informal reception. Tuesday, June 20—Lecture, "Story-Telling as an Aid in Securing the Child's Greatest Inheritance," by Miss Margaret Dunlap. Wednesday, June 21.—Illustrated lecture, Prof. N. A. Bengston. Thursday and Friday evenings will be free to attend Chautauqua which will open Thursday, June 22. Fee for institute will only be $1.00 with full privileges of Junior Normal.

The members of the Junior Normal will indulge in an informal picnic, this evening at the water works park. Rev. Goldsmith addressed the Junior Normal Wednesday morning, on the subject, "The Schools of England."

There was a worthwhile program of music and recitations, on Thursday morning. Senator Cordeal will address the institute Monday morning on the subject dear to his heart, "Southwest Nebraska's Early History."

There will be special programs at chapel each morning next week. Ten o'clock is the hour. Rev. Mr. Goldsmith addressed the Junior Normal on Wednesday morning in the high school building.

NOTICE.

Out of consideration for ourselves, our employes and the respect of the community, we the undersigned merchants of McCook, hereby agree to close our respective places of business at 6:30 p. m., for the remainder of the day, every day except Saturdays, pay days and two nights after pay day, by locking our doors and pulling down our blinds. Upon violation of this pledge by any signer it is agreed that a penalty of $50.00 shall be forfeited by the violator to the public library of McCook, enforceable upon the complaint of any one signer. It is provided that upon special public events such as fairs, races or other equally public doings this agreement may be voided for the time by the signatures of a majority of the undersigned. This agreement not deemed violated by accommodations of customers in cases of emergency.

This agreement binding when signed by all dealers handling dry goods, clothing, groceries or shoes.

Signed this 12th day of June, 1911, and to take effect June 19th, and deposited with the city attorney.

New Early Closing Agreement.

In another column will be found another early closing agreement by the merchants of McCook. The hour has not been changed, remaining at 6:30 p. m., except on Saturday evenings, and for the two evenings following each monthly pay day. Provision is made in the agreement for emergencies and special occasions.

There seems to be no urgent reason for prolonging the open hours for business. On the other hand there are sane reasons why both merchants and clerks should have more time out of their places of business, time they may devote to pleasure and improvement.

The Tribune hopes the public will take this reasonable view of the matter, and cheerfully acquiesce in this arrangement, by making their purchases before the evening closing hour, 6:30 o'clock.

Change of Proprietors.

Wednesday morning Carl Marsh took possession of the Ryan feed store recently purchased by him. Mr. Ryan will for the present at least maintain an office in the store. Carl has the rustling qualities to make his new business a success, and such we hope will be the case with him.

Rev. Mr. Goldsmith was present at Holdrege last Monday, when Mr. L. W. Doud, formerly lay reader at Arapahoe, was advanced to the deaconate. Other clergy present were those from Grand Island, Hastings, Lexington and Red Cloud, also Bishop Beecher of Kearney, who officiated. Following the above the Rev. Mr. Goldsmith visited friends at Arapahoe, returning to McCook on No. 5, Thursday evening, to take part in the 8th grade graduating exercises Friday afternoon in the high school.

CARL LEHMANN A LIVE WIRE.

His Meetings in McCook on Sunday Were Most Interesting and Instructive.

Carl Lehmann, field secretary of the United society of Christian Endeavor, spent Sunday in McCook, making two addresses and infusing much of his boundless enthusiasm into his hearers.

He spoke at the Congregational church in the morning on "World-Wide Christian Endeavor," showing the growth and development of the movement in the world today. In the afternoon at four, he conducted a conference at the Christian church on "Methods in Young Peoples' Work," in which he proved himself a walking encyclopedia of C. E. methods and principles.

In the evening he addressed a large audience in the Congregational church on "Christian Endeavors' Three Big Words," followed by another conference. He left same evening for Holdrege. The rally was attended by a number of Endeavors from Trenton and Indianola.

Mr. Lehmann is a live wire charged with Christian Endeavor, his words scintillate with wit and optimism.
