

Largest Circulation in Red Willow Co.

Entered at postoffice, McCook, Nebraska, as second-class matter. Published weekly.

What has become of the Nelson Clothing Co., and Johnson Bros., of Holdrege. Partial or complete eclipse?

It is the tragedy of reforms of every character that so many selfish crooks seek shelter and source of operation under their skirts.

Is it just a coincidence? All this Judson Harmon publicity among the Nebraska weeklies? A remarkable vogue? Whole pages in Republican weeklies! My countrymen! Even to Harmon epigrams! But they haven't the peerless' flavor.

The Standard this week publishes the formal announcement of C. E. Eldred of McCook, as a candidate for district judge. Mr. Eldred is a successful attorney and the press of the district speaks very favorably of his qualifications for the bench.—Oxford Standard.

If our Holdrege friends will just calm down a wee, The Tribune has no misgivings that McCook would enthusiastically endorse our sprightly neighbor up on the brave loess divide for the location for the tuberculosis hospital. But come out of it, boys.

The McCook Tribune, for the past thirty years, always one of the best weekly newspapers in the state, has just launched into the semi-weekly class and there is no question but that Editor Kimmell will keep his semi-weekly up to the standard of the former weekly.—Trenton Register

An exchange says Iceland has no jail, no penitentiary; there is no court and only one policeman. Not a drop of alcoholic liquor is made on the island, and its 78,800 people are total abstainers, since they will not permit any liquor to be imported. There is not an illiterate person on the island, not a child ten years old unable to read, the system of public schools being practically perfect.

The announcement of C. E. Eldred of McCook, for the nomination of judge of this, the 14th judicial district, subject to the will of the republican electors at the coming primary election, appears at the head of this column. Mr. Eldred needs no introduction to the voters of this county from this paper as he has practiced good law in this district for the past twenty years and is eminently qualified to fill the responsible position to which he aspires.—Trenton Register.

Barritt-Hughes Wedding.

On the evening of June 14, 1911, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Barritt, occurred the marriage of their only daughter Miss Hazel to H. Guy Hughes. At the hour of nine, Miss Stella Mathes took her place at the organ and as the sweet strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin pealed forth, the happy couple attended by Mr. Lloyd Barritt and Miss Francis Hughes, a brother and sister of the bride and groom, took their places before a beautifully decorated window. Carnations and ribbon in the bride's colors, blue and white, were used, making a dainty and very beautiful decoration. In the presence of nearly thirty guests, Rev. Harry M. Mitchell of Indianola, spoke the words which made this worthy couple man and wife. The bride was most becomingly dressed in a gown of white silk messaline and with her bridal wreath looked very sweet indeed. The groom wore the conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony a dainty two-course lunch was served by Mesdames Ruby and Mathes and Misses Maysie Light and Stella Mathes.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barritt and has spent most of her life in southeastern Nebraska, but during the past three years she has lived in McCook. She has won a host of friends. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hughes, an intelligent and industrious young man of the firm of Jennings & Hughes. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents, such as checks, cut glass, hand painted china and silver-ware.

The guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Newlon of Palmer, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Newlon of Central City, Neb., uncles of the bride, and Misses Flora and Molly Newlon of Central City, cousins of the bride, Mr. Wilcox of Lincoln, and Mrs. Ray of Norton, Kansas, uncle and cousin of the groom.

The same evening, a merry crowd of young friends of the bride and groom accompanied them to No. 3. Amid laughter and a shower of well wishes they left for Denver and other points in Colorado. After June 24th, they will be at home to their many friends on West 2nd street.

OPENS JUNE 27TH.

Information for the public concerning the postal savings bank to be opened in the McCook postoffice on June 27th:

Object.

The postal savings system is established for the purpose of providing facilities for depositing savings at interest with the security of the United States Government for repayment.

Safety.

The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of deposits made in postal savings depository offices with accrued interest as provided by the postal-savings act.

Who May Deposit.

Accounts may be opened and deposits made by any person of the age of 10 years or over in his or her own name and by a married woman in her own name and free from any interference or control by her husband. No person can have more than one account at any one time.

No person may open a postal-savings account at any post-office who is not a patron of that office.

All accounts must be opened in person by the depositor or his authorized representative. After opening an account a depositor may forward subsequent deposits to the post office by mail.

Deposits will be accepted only from individuals, and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm or partnership, or in the names of two or more persons jointly.

No account will be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

Service Free.

The service of the postal savings system is free, and no charge or fee is collected or required in connection with the opening of an account or the withdrawal or money deposited.

Privacy of Accounts.

No person connected with the post office department or the postal service is permitted to disclose the name of any depositor or give any information concerning an account except to the depositor himself, unless directed to do so by the Postmaster General.

How to Open An Account.

When a person applies to open an account he must furnish the necessary information for the postmaster or his representative to fill out an application, which he will then be required to sign. If the applicant signs by mark his signature must be witnessed by a disinterested person.

Deposits.

Deposits are evidenced by postal-savings certificates issued in fixed denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50, and $100, each bearing the name of the depositor, the number of his account, the date of issue, the name of the depository office, and the date on which interest begins. The postmaster or his representative will make out a duplicate of each certificate issued, which the depositor will be required to sign and which the postmaster will retain in his records. No account may be opened for less than $1, nor will fractions of a dollar be accepted for deposit.

No person is permitted to deposit more than $100 in any one calendar month nor to have a total balance to his credit at one time of more than $500 exclusive of accumulated interest.

Savings certificates cannot be transferred or negotiated and will be payable only to the person to whom issued.

On opening an account a depositor is supplied with an envelope in which he may keep his savings certificates. On this envelope is printed information for his guidance, and also a blank ledger record on which to keep an account of his deposits and withdrawals.

In case a savings certificate is lost or destroyed the depositor should notify the postmaster. If deemed proper, a new certificate will be issued upon compliance by the depositor with the necessary requirements.

Postmasters are not permitted to receive savings certificates for safe keeping.

Savings Cards and Stamps.

Amounts less than $1 may be saved for deposit by the purchase of 10-cent postal-savings cards and adhesive 10-cent postal savings stamps. Each postal-savings card contains blank spaces to which savings stamps may be affixed from time to time as purchased, and a postal-savings card with nine 10-cent savings stamps thus affixed will be accepted as a deposit of $1 either in opening an account or in adding to an existing account.

Savings cards and stamps will be redeemed only by the issue of savings certificates and are not valid for postage. They will not be received in exchange for postage stamps nor will postage stamps be accepted in exchange for postal-savings cards or stamps.

The Citizens National Bank has been designated the postal savings bank depository for this city.
