RECIPROCIITY TO HAVE FREE GO-ING IN SENATE.

DEBATE IS WELL LAUNCHED

Session From Now On to Begin Two Hours Earlier—McCumber and Curtis Speak in Opposition to the Bill.

Washington, D. C.—The senate on the first day of the consideration of the Canadian reciprocity bill, besides listening to speeches by Senators Curtis of Kansas and McCumber of North Dakota, in opposition to the measure, made the bill the unfinished business on the calendar and without opposition changed the regular daily hour of meeting from 2 o'clock to 12 o'clock noon. The change in the time of convening is expected materially to assist in disposing of the speeches.

Senator Nelson of Minnesota will speak in opposition to the bill. Senator Penrose, in charge of the bill, expressed satisfaction at the outlook, saying he believed there will be general co-operation in bringing the discussion to a close as speedily as possible.

Senator Bristow has introduced an amendment reducing the sugar duty. His amendment would strike out the Dutch standard provision of the present law and remove the differential between raw and refined sugar, so that the duty would be 95 cents per 100 on sugar testing 75 degrees and 3 1/2 cents for each additional degree. Mr. Bristow expressed confidence that the amendment would receive a considerable vote.

Dr. Freeman Resigns.

Sioux City, Ia.—Because of views on the inspiration of the Bible, expressed in a sermon in Kansas City, which were not acceptable to the trustees of Morningside college, a Methodist institution, of which he is president, Dr. Luther Freeman has tendered his resignation, which was accepted by a unanimous vote. Dr. Freeman declares he cannot be bound by a restriction of his views, while the trustees of the college hold that a person in passing such opinions is unfit to head this institution which is under direct control of the Northwest Iowa conference.

Ban on Air Navigation.

London.—Acting under the powers conferred by the act recently passed by parliament, Home Secretary Churchill has issued an order prohibiting navigation of air craft of any description over the county of London on the three days of the coronation processions and also over Windsor and London on the three other days devoted to events connected with the coronation. The penalty for violations is imprisonment for six months, or a fine of $1,000.

Suffrage Convention.

Stockholm.—The congress of the international suffrage alliance of the world has attracted to Stockholm noted equal suffrage advocates from many countries. The national American woman suffrage association will have a large numerical representation and is expected to take a conspicuous part in the proceedings of the congress. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York will preside at several of the sessions.

River Steamer Is Burned.

Paducah, Ky.—The steamer John B. Lowry, with fifty excursionists aboard, burned to the water's edge at Haultersburg, Ill., opposite Smithland, Ky., Thursday morning. Loss of life is expected to be heavy.

Dakota's Golden Jubilee.

Yankton, S. D.—Yankton is now in the midst of her golden jubilee with the main attraction, for pioneers at least, Dakota's first governor, William Jayne, with his remarkably clear memory and fund of good anecdotes.

Mrs. J. H. Wayland, wife of the editor of the Appeal to Reason, published at Girard, Kan., is dead from injuries received in an automobile accident near Girard.

Opposed to Honduran Loan.

New Orleans, La.—To make representations to congress against ratification of the proposed Morgan loan of $10,000,000 to Honduras, Dr. Policarpo Bonilla, former president of Honduras, has left here for Washington. Dr. Bonilla asserts that his country never would accept the loan unless forced to do so at the point of the bayonet. "Honduras is willing to meet her debts, but does not want to be sold on the block of a big financial syndicate which might desire the selfish exploitation of her resources," he said.

Rev. Plass Pleads Guilty.

Boston, Mass.—A plea of guilty was offered in the midst of his testimony in the United States district court by Rev. Norman Plass, formerly president of the Redeemable Investment company, who is on trial for using the mails in furtherance of a fraudulent scheme.

Charles H. Brooks, the president, and John I. Trapnager, the treasurer, pleaded guilty to "technical" fraud. All three will be fined instead of imprisoned. It is understood.

GEN. AROZCO LOSING PATIENCE

Fails to Understand Why Mexico City Does Not Give the Word—Volunteers at the Capital Are Causing Trouble.

Chihuahua.—Mexico's military comedy continues. Four thousand federal troops, commanded by three generals, are patrolling the streets, determined that the victorious insurrecto army under General Orozco shall not enter the city. Orozco's force extends north along the railroad thirty miles, with headquarters at Suaz. The insurrectos made no effort to conceal their anger. They say while reports come to them of banquets being served in Mexico City, they, in spite of peace, are being kept in the field on short rations.

While wonder is expressed that Mexico City does not promptly straighten out the tangle, Governor Gonzales anticipates no serious consequences. He says in time the federal troops will evacuate and the insurrectos will be allowed to enter Chihuahua. However, General Orozco, Madero's foremost military chief, when interviewed at Suaz, frankly expressed displeasure at the failure of the authorities to turn the city over to his forces.

Victor Swanson Unharmed.

Fez, Morocco.—Victor Swanson of Arborville, Neb., a missionary of the gospel missionary union, whose general office is at Kansas City, Mo., has arrived here safely from Sefrou, where it had been reported he was being kept a prisoner in his own home by Moroccan tribesmen. He brought no news as to the whereabouts of George C. Reed of Weeping Water, Neb., the secretary of the Moroccan mission of the gospel union.

To Hunt in Primitive Way.

Atechison, Kan.—Z. E. Jackson and J. M. Chellis of this city, Harry M. Richardson of Boston and W. H. Thompson of Seattle, all expert archers, will start July 2 for a hunting trip in British Columbia, armed only with bows, arrows, hunting knives and fishing tackle. All firearms are barred. The men expect to hunt mountain lion, bear and deer.

Observes Anniversary.

Washington.—The annual tribute of flowers and eulogy was paid Sunday to the soldier dead of the south in Arlington National cemetery with all its historic and sentimental associations at the tomb of General Robert E. Lee, commander of the confederate forces. The national cemetery was dedicated for the day to the memory of the confederates.

Duluth, Minn.—In order to create an endowment fund for pensions for ministers of the Lutheran denomination, a fund of $150,000 will be raised by assessment of $1 per member through the entire country. This decision was reached the synodical council of the Augustana synod of Swedish Lutheran churches of America meeting here.

Washington.—An attack upon the protective tariff system by an American manufacturer who claims to have studied labor and manufacturing conditions in many countries, held the attention of the house of representatives for two hours Tuesday. Representative William C. Redfield of Brooklyn, a new democratic member, a manufacturer of machinery and long connected with export trade, said that American manufacturers are abandoning the protective principle as unnecessary, as they develop more scientific management of their own plants.

To Prevent Chinese Inundations.

Washington.—Charles David James, an expert engineer, and once head of the engineering department of Iowa university, has been selected by the Red Cross to proceed to China to aid the Chinese government in preventing the great periodical inundations which have resulted in frightful famines.

Thirty Drowned in Volga.

St. Petersburg.—The sinking of an overcrowded ferry boat on the Volga, near Uglitch, is reported. Thirty persons were drowned.

DEMOCRATS ARE COMMITTED

Sloan Not Real Sure and Kinkaid Waiting for News from Home—Norris Says Progressives Are Intact.

Washington.—It will not be surprising if every member of the Nebraska delegation in the house votes for the democratic revision of the woolen schedule now pending in that body. The three democrats are, of course, bound to vote for the bill by the mandate of the caucus, just as they are bound to vote down all amendments offered by republicans. It was learned however, that for the first time at this session of congress, the insurgents will act in concert, there being an understanding among more than a score of them that they will vote for the bill. Representative Norris is among those insurgents, in addition to which it is entire probable that Representative Sloan will cast his first vote with the democrats. He has not yet definitely committed himself on the proposition, but it is suspected that on the roll call he may vote for the bill on the ground that schedule K is, as the president has frequently said, indefensible. That is the theory which is prompting Norris and the other insurgents. Representative Kinkaid will not make up his mind until the last minute. The judge said he had not heard enough from his district yet to enable him to judge how the folks wanted him to vote on this particular bill. He hopes to hear more before the bill is put to a vote and will guide himself accordingly.

New Woman's Labor Law.

Seattle.—Thousands of working women throughout the state of Washington are to be benefited by the eight-hour law which went into operation Friday. The new law, which is enacted by the legislature at its last session, provides that no woman or girl employed in a mercantile establishment, office, laundry, hotel or restaurant shall be permitted to work more than eight hours a day. The penalty is a fine of $10 to $100 for each violation.

Attack on the Wool Bill.

Washington.—An attack on the democratic wool tariff bill on the ground that it affords protection to the so-called worsted trust, was made in the house by Representative Victor Mordock of Kansas. He attacks the 40 per cent duty on worsted clothes which the bill contains, declaring that it meant immediate protection to the combination that controls the worsted output.

For Popular Election of Senator.

Washington.—The senate, 64 to 24, has passed the senate amendment to the constitution to provide for election of senators by direct popular vote. The Bristow amendment, giving to the federal government supervision of such elections, was adopted 44 to 44, the vice president casting the deciding ballot. The house had already passed the resolution.

Stricken With Apoplexy.

Louisiana, Mo.—David A. Ball, a prominent lawyer and several times a candidate for the nomination of governor of Missouri on the democratic ticket, was stricken with apoplexy at his home here. His condition is serious, say physicians who are attending him.

Boston, Mass.—Citizens of Dorchester, the third oldest settlement in New England, Saturday celebrated the two hundred and eighty-first anniversary of the founding of the town.

Drank Poisoned Cognac.

Torreon, Mex.—Poisoned cognac, which the insurrectos secured upon sacking a government office and which they drank in a Chinese restaurant, is alleged to have been the cause of the slaughter of Chinese in Torreon. This incident doubtless will become an issue in the adjudication of the Chinese claim for indemnity.

Andrew Carnegie has donated 500,000 florins (about $205,000) for the establishment of a hero fund in Holland.

THE "PIGS IN CLOVER" MAN

Sam Loyd, the Inventor of Numerous Puzzles and Chess Problems, is Dead.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—When Samuel Loyd, the puzzle expert and inventor of chess problems, passed away at his home in Brooklyn, the world lost a man whose contributions to the public have probably entertained more people than those of any other man of the age. Young and old, rich and poor, alike, have wrestled with the fantastic creations of his fertile brain. Born in Philadelphia in 1841 and educated in the schools of New York city, he early displayed the gifts which were to bring him fame and wealth. At the age of six he was proficient at chess and was untangling the hardest mathematical puzzles of the day. When a young man he began his contributions to the newspapers and the invention of mechanical puzzles, some of which attained an almost universal craze.

One of the first inventions to bring him fame was the "Fifteen Puzzle." Later came "The Tigers and the Men," "Pigs in Clover," "Parchesi" and "The Disappearing Chinaman." Mr. Loyd's most profitable idea was "The Donkey" puzzle, of which 1,000,000,000 were sold.

Mr. Loyd took the view that there was something more in his puzzles than the simple amusement of the moment. He believed that he had in his devices come across something which would sharpen the wits of the average man. He pointed out that they could interest and amuse men who regarded ordinary mathematics with disgust, and that the boy who had at school shrunk from the very idea of an algebraical square root, would devote his spare moments to the solution of a puzzle which involved the same principles as the sum, just because he was interested. Consequently, he maintained that he supplied something which the average system of education had missed.

Apart from his puzzles Mr. Loyd was for a time the editor of the Sanitary Engineer, and a shrewd operator in Wall street. He also wrote for a number of magazines. He was a member of the New York Press club, the Brooklyn Chess club and the Brooklyn Whist club. He is survived by a widow, one son, Samuel Loyd, Jr., and two daughters.

THE FIRST WOMAN MAYOR

Mrs. Susanna Salter of Argonia, Kan., Holds This Distinction—Her Sugar Policy Worked.

Topeka, Kan.—The troubles of Mrs. Wilson, mayor of Hunnewell, Kan., recalls the fact that Mrs. Susanna Salter was the first woman mayor of the world. She held office for one year at Argonia, Kan., a town located in the same county with Hunnewell. Mrs. Salter was elected mayor of Argonia in 1887 and served for one year.

She is an active suffragette and believes that women should hold office, but should not be on the police force or hold offices of a similar nature, no more than a man should cook the meals and keep house in their homes. Mrs. Salter believes that sugar catches more flies than vinegar, and says that while she was in office, by applying the sugar, she had little trouble.

"I just made those men of the council believe they were the nicest men in the world, and we got along admirably," she said. "When Mrs. Wilson was elected mayor of Hunnewell I wrote her a letter and advised her to adopt this policy, but she is having lots of trouble. I was very anxious for Mrs. Wilson to make a success just to demonstrate that women are capable of holding office."

POOR RETURN FOR CHIVALRY

Incident That Probably Has Forever Discouraged Kind-Hearted Mr. Jones.

Chivalrous Mr. Jones purposely dropped a fifty-cent piece at the foot of a poorly dressed woman who passed through the Subway turnstile loudly lamenting that the ticket agent had cheated her out of a half dollar, then he picked the money up and gave it to her.

"Excuse me, madame," said Mr. Jones, "I think you dropped this." "Oh, no," she said, "it can't be mine. Perhaps you dropped it, yourself."

"Oh, no," said Mr. Jones. "It is yours, I am sure. I picked it up just as you passed."

She took the money, and hurried after another man who had passed at the time the money dropped.

"Excuse me sir," she said, "I think you lost this."

"Thanks," said the other man, and jumped aboard a train that was ready to start.

"—!" said chivalrous Mr. Jones.—New York Times.

Publicity Law Badly Needed.

Connecticut, District of Columbia, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and Vermont, have laws which provide specifically for the reporting of tuberculosis and which make provision for the proper registration of living cases of this disease. In fourteen other states, laws or regulations of the state boards of health require that tuberculosis be reported simply as one of a list of infectious diseases. The following 28 states and territories have no provision whatever for the reporting or registration of tuberculosis cases:—Arizona, Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Kissing Breach of Peace.

The better half of a respected citizen of New Jersey recently had the temerity to hale her lord and master before the court on a charge of having kissed her against her will. For this heinous offense this shameless Jersey benedict was bonded over in $100 bail to keep the peace, and, moreover, was warned by the judge never again to kiss his wife without first obtaining her consent in due form. If he is any kind of a man, probably he will never want to kiss her again.—Washington Herald.

His Instinct.

"I see the family dog slinking out of the room. What's the matter with him?"
"Precedence. Presently there will be a tremendous family row on."
"But how did the dog know that?"
"Well, so to speak, his nose is something of a storm scenter."

Bella—Well, all her friends threw cold water on the bridegroom.

COMES A TIME
When Coffee Shows What It Has Been Doing.

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a matron from Rome, N. Y.

"Its lightest punishment being to make me 'logy' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood."

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit the coffee and try Postum."

"It went right to the spot!" I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well.

"All my ailments, the 'loginess' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am rejoicing in sound health which I owe to the use of Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
