"OH, IT'S MONEY":—ain't it funny? but it's money: money:—money:—everywhere." So ran the old time popular song. In order to get money we are selling off our light, soft, summer dresses for half price! Same is true of a big bunch of White Waists. Also true of about a dozen men's suits. Also of men's fine straw hats. To get money prompts us to sell Men's $1.50 fine ribbed balbriggan union suits for $1.13, ladies' fancy parasols one-third off, and many items of summer goods. If you work for your money make it go farthest possible. The Thompson D. G. Co., bent on clearance.

The Man Who Fails

Is the man who spends all he is able to earn from day to day. He knows he should save money, or when he is too old to work, he will have to rely on the charity of his neighbors and relatives, but he doesn't make a start. The harder it is to acquire the saving habit.
