To Be Split Up Says Att'y Gen'l

Hancock, Mich., July 21.—"Big combinations like the Standard Oil company and the tobacco trust are going to be split up into a number of separate and distinct parts' without connection or monopoly powers." This was the prediction made in an address here today by Attorney General Wickersham, answering people who are saying the decisions of the supreme court do not really mean anything. "Don't believe any such talk," the attorney said to the crowd assembled here for Hancock's "homecoming celebration."

Criticisms seeking to minimize the value of the supreme court decisions came largely, he added, from those who would like to embarrass the administration with the sort of "general assault on all business which would compel every business man to turn to the other party for relief."

Incidentally Mr. Wickersham took occasion to trace the guiding hand of President Taft in the policy of the department of justice, concluding his speech with the remark that "no matter who should be the head of that department, so long as William H. Taft is president, no other policy could be obtained."

NORRIS THE STRONGEST MAN IN THE STATE.

A large number of Mr. Norris' friends urged him to enter the race against Mr. Burkett, and the Sun is now of the opinion that had he been the nominee we would have had another republican senator. How the conditions this year compare with last year involves a comparison of the strength of Senator Brown and Mr. Burkett. The one disagreeable feature is a fight in the primaries, and with advantage of his position Mr. Brown would be a hard man to defeat.

While for the above reason there might be a question as to who is the stronger man at the primaries, we are of the opinion that George W. Norris is the strongest man in the state today at a general election.—Clay Center Sun.

Chas. Skalla, county clerk of Red Willow county calls out attention to the fact that neither he nor his deputy have drawn any county funds except such as are allowed by law. Mr. Skalla will have no opposition at the primary for a third term, which indicates that the republicans of his county believe he has been an efficient clerk.—Cambridge Clarion.

The chief of the bureau of chemistry of the Department of Agriculture is loved for the enemies he has made because of services that are to his credit. It is to be expected President Taft will spare Dr. Wiley—but it must also be said that there are wiser men. As the result of long observation and with no idea of joining forces with the patent medicine folks or anybody else, it is to be recognized that there seems to be no more persistent personal advertiser in Washington than Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the pure food expert—and that some of the observations credited to him that get currency in the newspapers are extreme to the point of silliness. His trouble is like unto that of the old lady's parrot who talked too much, and his weakness long ago reached the point of wearying able readers.—Springfield Republican.

THEN YOU'LL BE A MAN.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
And make allowance for their doubting too,
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good or talk too wise.

If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph and disaster,
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to have the truth you've spoken,
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or see the things you gave your life to broken,
And turn and build them up again with worn out tools.

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you yet none too much,
If you can fill each unforbearing minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And, which is more, you'll be a man, my son.

The Lincoln State Journal neither had the nerve nor the grace to publish Red Willow county's Republican convention resolutions, which the standpat Bee and the Democratic Star gave in full. Perhaps they did not have enough asbestos in their shop on which to print them.

The Associated Advertising clubs of America will be in convention in Boston, August 1st to 4th. The Nebraska Publicity League will attend this gathering going to Boston by special train, which will leave Lincoln July 27 at 4:30. They hope to make this one of the biggest publicity stunts for Nebraska ever attempted. An loyal Nebraskan who believes in Nebraska and is a booster will be welcome on that train.

The cable reports the destruction by fire, on Sunday, of over 2,000 houses in Stamboul, the distinctively Turkish section of Constantinople. Stamboul covers the whole area enclosed by the Theodosian walls of Constantinople. It is the Mohammedan part of the city. Within its wall are the Seraglio, the principal mosques, the mausoleums of the sultans, the baths, the bazaars, the public offices of the government, and the remains of ancient Constantinople.
