Red Willow county did very well in the state conventions: J. R. McCarl of McCook was chosen Republican committeeman and N. J. Uerling of Indianola, Democratic committeeman, for 26th district which is composed of Red Willow, Frontier, Hayes, Dundy, Hitchcock, Chase and Perkins counties.

The "wets" won the day in Texas in the election this week. While it was quite an even break, the result indicates that the time is not ripe for prohibition in Texas. It takes a good working majority to make effective legislation of this nature. The result, however, indicates a marvelous temperance awakening in that great state.

It adds somewhat to the interest of the Lorimer inquiry, of which, however, the country is growing sick, to learn that Senator Penrose regards Mr. Hines, the lumber mandate, as a "patriot." Exactly what kind of a patriot Mr. Hines has been, is likely to receive further demonstration. It is also possible that Senator Penrose's conception of a patriot is peculiar and distinctive.—Springfield Republican.

NORRIS IN RACE

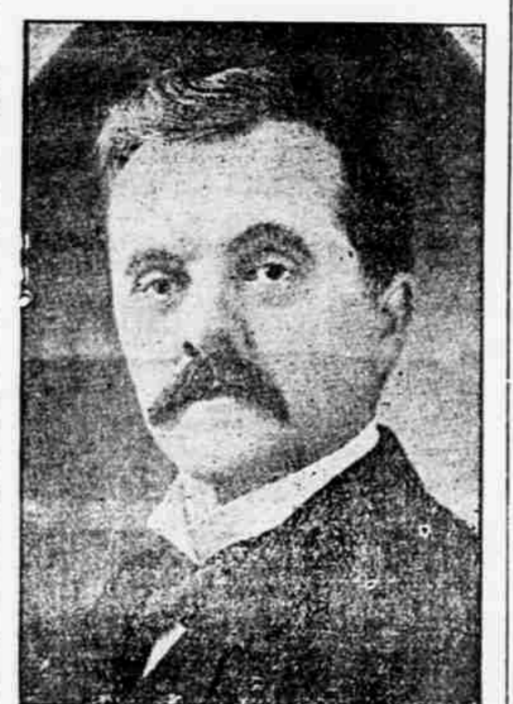

FIFTH DISTRICT CONGRESSMAN TO SEEK SENATE SEAT.

ADMITS HE IS A CANDIDATE

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT ON HIS RETURN HOME.

No Surprise To Senator Brown, and Both Men to Make Thorough Campaign Embarrasses Progressive League.

Washington, July 26. — (Special.)—Representative George W. Norris will be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Norris Brown. Representative Norris made this definite statement today to the correspondent of the State Journal in response to a direct question as to his plans for the future. He will not issue a formal statement at this time announcing his candidacy, but may do so shortly after his return home at the adjournment of congress. The determination of Mr. Norris to seek the seat of Senator Brown in the senate means he will either leave the house for the upper branch of congress, or retire to private life. He is willing, it is understood, to allow some other man in his district seek the congressional nomination. Representative Norris' announcement that he would run for the senate caused no surprise among insurgent republicans in Washington. They have been expecting it for some time. Even Senator Brown expressed no surprise when informed that Mr. Norris had finally made up his mind to run against him.

Both Senator Brown and Representative Norris recognize that they differ on enough important subjects to make it necessary to cover every section of the state. Senator Brown has already made his plans for an extensive campaign. He will readjust these slightly as result of the Norris statement today, and will make them more elaborate than ever. Mr. Norris will lose no time in starting his campaign after he reaches Nebraska.

From statements made by both men it is apparent that the republican candidate for the presidency and Canadian reciprocity will be the two most important issues to be fought out by the senatorial candidates. Senator Brown refuses to commit himself to any candidate at this time on the ground that the primary law gives the voter an opportunity to express his choice and that for him to declare for any particular candidate would be an attempt at dictation. His known friendliness for President Taft, however, places him at odds with Norris, who is not only an ardent supporter of Senator La Follette for the presidency, but is determined to make Taft and La Follette one of the issues of his campaign, thus making Senator Brown take sides.

The two men are likewise opposed on Canadian reciprocity, Brown having voted for it and Norris voted against it twice in the house. The action of the Red Willow county convention in endorsing Norris for the United States senate and La Follette for the presidency is largely responsible for the determination of Norris to get into the senatorial race. He said today that he could not afford to ignore the preference of his home county.—Lincoln Journal.

The famous reciprocity bill with Canada is now an assured fact, so far as the United States is concerned. President Taft signed the bill yesterday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

A. L. Cochran of Bartley is a candidate for nomination for the office of county treasurer on the Republican ticket. It will be remembered that Mr. Cochran was appointed in June, 1907, to fill the unexpired term in this office of Ben G. Gossard. The condition of this office at this time will be remembered by many taxpayers. During his incumbency, Mr. Cochran collected taxes to the amount of over $100,000, besides adjusting grievances extending from York state to California. That he turned over to his successor the office in perfect condition, with a splendid set of books, and everything in ship shape. Mr. Cochran is the logical candidate, and is entitled to the office. You will make no mistake in casting your vote for him.

HON. J. E. COBBEY
Republican Candidate Supreme Judge.

The disgraceful manner in which England's house of lords went down to defeat, this week, in the veto bill, is one of the marvels of modern times. Usually thoroughbred sports, Englishmen have the reputation of being good losers; but the lords show a streak of yellow in accepting this defeat that dethrones them in this respect and marks them as eads rather than lords. But the commoners have them licked to a frazzle just the same.
