Will Aspire for Senatorship.

Congressman Norris made the definite statement yesterday to the Washington correspondent of the State Journal that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator to succeed Senator Brown.

The action of the Republicans of Red Willow county, in presenting his name to the consideration of their party throughout the state was generally considered as implying that Congressman Norris had fully decided to make the race for the seat in the higher body. And yet when there came no definite statement from Washington, friends of both Norris and Brown had felt that, possibly, there would yet be no contest between these two Republicans.

The announcement means that there will be a spirited campaign for the Republican nomination for senator, the candidacy of the congressman being aligned with the candidacy of La Follette for the Republican nomination and disapproval of the Canadian reciprocity treaty, and the candidacy of Senator Brown being aligned with the candidacy of President Taft for renomination and the approval of his record, including Canadian reciprocity.

Congressman Norris expects to make a more formal statement shortly after his return home, upon the adjournment of congress, according to the Washington correspondent.

The decision leaves the field somewhat more clear with reference to the congressional nomination. There are already four candidates and it is expected that there will be a few more.—Grand Island Independent.

Nebraska's state bank guarantee law becomes operative today in the 664 state banks of the state.

It will be worth while to determine just how genuinely progressive Nebraska is. The April election will amount to a show down, with the Canadian reciprocity and presidential preference well to the front. And a lively U. S. senatorial incident to boot!

The entry of Congressman Norris against Senator Brown will reveal the leanings of the Republican ranks on the questions of Taft and of reciprocity. Here the contest will rise above the level of a personal squabble for office. Well conducted as it no doubt will be, this contest will be a dignified discussion of the president's record and of the reciprocity measure for which he is peculiarly responsible. — Lincoln Journal.

Congressman George W. Norris has openly announced that he will be a candidate for the senate in Nebraska, and that he will campaign the state advocating the principles fought for by La Follette and the other insurgents. The people of Nebraska will now be enabled to line up without reference to the ridiculous convention declaration made last Tuesday under direction of the office-holding element. The Capital expects to take an active part in this contest, and there will be much interesting reading before next April. — Frank Harrison's Lincoln Capital.

The dignified, earnest campaign being waged by C. E. Eldred of our city is entirely in keeping with the character of the man. His is an earnest nature,—one disposed to get down into the heart of things. Not satisfied or content with surface indications, but seeking the hidden facts and truths of life. This characteristic marks him a lawyer with traits unmistakable and pre-eminent of a just and honorable judge. Those who know him in social and business ways have come to admire the fineness of his character and to repose great confidence in the high quality of his legal attainments. So it is no surprise to the Tribune to hear and read the many favorable expressions from people and press of the Fourteenth Judicial district of his candidacy. And to know personally by many years observation that Mr. Eldred is deserving in every particular is an added satisfaction. The people of the Fourteenth district are most deeply interested in who shall be their next judge. They will make no mistake in nominating C. E. Eldred of McCook as the Republican candidate for that important office at the primary election of August 15th, 1911. Vote for him, work for him. Tell your neighbors and friends of his worth as a man and ability for the judgeship.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

A. L. Cochran of Bartley is a candidate for nomination for the office of county treasurer on the Republican ticket. It will be remembered that Mr. Cochran was appointed in June, 1907, to fill the unexpired term in this office of Ben G. Gossard. The condition of this office at this time will be remembered by many taxpayers. During his incumbency, Mr. Cochran collected taxes to the amount of over $100,000, besides adjusting grievances extending from York state to California. That he turned over to his successor the office in perfect condition, with a splendid set of books, and everything in ship shape. Mr. Cochran is the logical candidate, and is entitled to the office. You will make no mistake in casting your vote for him.

FOR SHERIFF.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of sheriff, on the Republican ticket, subject to the decision at the primary election August 15th.

ORVILLE B. WOODS.

We are reliably informed that Furnas county will have a candidate for the nomination of district judge of the 14th judicial district, in the person of E. B. Perry, of Cambridge, and it goes without saying that Mr. Perry will have strong support in this end of the district. His active law practice extends to every county in the district, and he is recognized as the leading attorney in this part of the state. He is a man of honor, and has always been an anti-corporation attorney, and the News gladly endorses him for district judge believing him to be an ideal man for the place and especially fitted for the bench.—Stratton News.

Hon. E. B. Perry of Cambridge, is the Enterprise's choice of candidates for district judge. Mr. Perry hardly needs any introduction to any one in this district. He has been in active practice as attorney in the district for many years, and his honesty, fairness and legal ability is acknowledged by every one all over the district. No better choice could be made. The Enterprise not only gladly endorses the candidacy of E. B. Perry of Cambridge, for district judge, but feel it a duty to present to the voters of this judicial district a man that has been tried for many years, both in his profession and as a citizen, and not found lacking in any of the essentials that go to make up true manhood. Mr. Perry is one of the ablest lawyers in western Nebraska, and coupled with this, a reputation for integrity and uprightness. A clean man in his profession, and that is what the 14th judicial district of Nebraska wants.—Curtis Enterprise.

HAIL AND HEAVY WIND DO DAMAGE AT CULBERTSON

School House Partially Wrecked and Heavy Loss to Crops.

Culbertson, Neb., July 30.—(Special Telegram.)—A severe wind and hailstorm struck this town this afternoon, destroying property to the extent of $5,000. The cupola and roof of the new school were blown off, damaging it about $2,500. Window lights were broken all over town. Late fruit here is an entire loss. Hunter's nursery was damaged $2,000. Rain to the extent of 1.3 inch fell in twenty minutes. Hail fell to the depth of about three-quarters of an inch. The hail belt is three miles square, with Culbertson about the center.—Omaha Bee.

Peter Miesen of our city was the contractor for the school building damaged. He places the damage at $1,000. As no cyclone or hail insurance had been written on the building, the loss falls heavily upon the contractor, who will have to make good the damage.

It will likely be discovered that bonds voted for water works purposes are not available for other purposes than that for which they were voted.

The name of County Judge J. C. Moore will appear on the ballot at the coming primaries as a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket.

Mr. Moore was born in Ohio, was raised on a farm, receiving his education in the public school and at Wylie Academy and Mercer College in Illinois. Came overland to Red Willow county, Nebraska, in the early history of the county, taking up a homestead in Tyrone precinct, which was his home until removing with his family to McCook to take the office of county judge. Was a first grade teacher in this county for several years. Applied himself to the study of law, being justice of the peace in his home precinct.

Recent laws have added considerably to the work of county judges—and also increased somewhat the pay of the office. Hence it is not strange that four men are opposing Judge Moore for the place. However, the office has no salary, being wholly a fee office.

Mr. Moore's friends are urging his nomination on the ground of his past success, his experience in the office, his unquestioned honesty, his ability to perform the important duties of the office. Also, it is claimed that county judges, like district judges, usually are allowed somewhat longer terms than other county officers. Those who know Judge Moore know that if given another two years in this office he will continue to give it his entire time and attention, and discharge its duties in a conscientious and fearless manner.

Smith bought some pigs from his neighbor Jones. The price came to $6.42. Smith paid Jones in cash, but as usual neither had the proper change, and Smith said; "Just make it even money." Smith lost 8 cents. Jones bought some pigs from his neighbor Johnson. The price came to $6.42. Jones had his money in the bank and gave Johnson a check for the exact amount. Jones did not lose a cent. This is only one of the advantages of a checking account. Come in and let us explain further.
