KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH HOME

When the family is separated by business trips or distant visits, the Bell Telephone keeps them in touch with one another. Nearly everywhere you travel you will find the "Bell," like an old friend, there to meet you.

There is something cold and bloodless about a letter. It carries only expressionless words. The telephone reproduces your voice, just as you speak for hundreds of miles.

It is Just One Dollar the Year

Offers a Criticism.
A Nebraska railway official offers this criticism of the newspapers: "The newspapers, and I mean newspapers generally, play up the construction of a new depot here and there, of small buildings and other improvements of like nature and look over other expenditures of far greater import to transportation companies and their patrons. A railroad may put down one hundred miles of new steel and get a passing notice from the newspapers, but if it builds a new depot at some way station, at an expense less than the cost of putting down one mile of new steel the matter is given great publicity. A little wreck where a few hundred dollars is lost in damage to property is a matter of considerable concern but the expenditure of many thousands to prevent these wrecks gets no publicity. The lameness of newspapers in this regard has always been a mystery to me."—Lincoln Journal.

City Council Doings.
The city council was in session in the council chamber Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. The mayor; all councilmen except J. R. Stansberry; City Clerk Stoll; City Attorney F. L. Wolff were present. After discussing obtaining reduction of interest on unsold water bonds before state treasurer shall dispose of them, city attorney was authorized to write the state treasurer in regard to the same. Permit was granted to A. L. Knowland and Harry Barbazette to install card tables.

Hurt His Back.
George Critser of the icing gang, slipped and fell between two cars in the local yard, painfully injuring his back in falling on the draw bar. His injuries are not serious, however, and he will be about again in a few days it is thought.

Fresh fruits at Magner's.

Mr. Lambach settled in Indianola in 1877, but went west in 1882. Naturally, he is much interested and surprised in seeing in Red Willow county such a modern and up-to-date little city as McCook.

Some of our people got bit this week by traveling vendors in rugs. It seems that the fellows sold high priced rugs for a less than cost price without asking a cent of money on the rugs but what you had to do, was to pay the freight money in advance. This done, something unusual, you were promised that the rug would come soon. It looks like someone got flimflamed.—Red Cloud Commercial Advertiser.
