REPORT TO OFFICE.

The Tribune is now being delivered to city patrons, and the publisher would be pleased to have all patrons who fail to receive their papers to report failures to the Tribune office. Don't forget, however, to give your street number in doing so. And in case you move to new street number, kindly report promptly this fact. So that no delay may be experienced in the prompt and regular delivery of your papers.

A Woman's Form

is most attractive when made neat by an American Beauty Corset. The makers of this celebrated corset do not attempt to "paint the lily," but, recognizing nature's art as far above art's nature, have aspired only to second nature—not to lead her. The result is the most satisfactory corsets ever produced to exhibit the true lines of grace while skillfully furthering the current style of costuming. $1.00 to $2. at the Thompson D. G. Co. Utmost service.

Repair Your Stoves

now and have them ready. We furnish repairs for any stove and do the work if wanted.

The county received another "Little Western" grader for use on the county roads. It was taken out for service, yesterday.

If your scalp sheds hair there is a cause for it. Don't consider it a simple matter unworthy of a second thought. Neglect your hair and it is only a matter of a short time when your hair will be all gone. By using Rexall 93 Hair Tonic you'll restore your scalp to a healthy condition and your hair will cease to fall.

Norris Will Follow Wilson at the Fair

Fifth District Congressman Will Deliver Address on Reciprocity, September Sixth.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Congressman George W. Norris will speak at the Nebraska state fair, September 6, according to a telegram received here today by Frank Harrison. Congressman Norris' talk, which it is believed will be upon his attitude toward reciprocity, will follow that of Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, the latter having accepted an invitation to speak here Tuesday, September 5. The Iowa member of President Taft's cabinet, it is said, has also indicated that he would talk in support of the reciprocity measure fostered by the nation's executive.—Omaha Bee.

Co. Commissioners' Proceedings

McCook, Nebraska, August 22, 1911. The Board of County Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Present: F. S. Lofton, Edward Sughroue and W. N. Rogers, county commissioners, Chas. L. Ritchie county attorney, and Chas. Shalla, county clerk.

THE MAN WHO SUCCEEDS

Is the man who is continually saving his money. And he puts it in a strong bank for safe keeping until he finds a place where he can put it to work in some sound investment. Every dollar that he adds to his surplus makes him that much the happier. Why? Because he is on the road to prosperity and he knows that in his declining years he will not suffer, but will have enough money to care for all his needs.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

L. C. Stoll is in Chicago on business. He is expected home, Saturday.

Mrs. F. E. Hamilton was a passenger, this morning, for Trenton on a visit.

F. G. Stilgebauer of the Bartley bank had business in the city yesterday.

Principal A. O. Thomas of the Kearney State Normal school was in the city, today, and a Tribune caller.

Rev. House and family arrived in the city, this morning, from Holbrook, where a camp meeting has been in progress for some time.

Ross J. Harper, the Democratic nominee for judge of the Fourteenth judicial district, was over from Beaver City, today, doing a little missionary work.

Seth S. Silver returned, yesterday, from spending some time on the big ranch up the Frenchman Valley. He informs the writer that they are preparing to plant 1,000 acres to wheat. A goodly part of this wheat will be planted on summer tilled land, which Mr. Silver states is in splendid condition. Mr. Silver has just received his commission from Governor Aldrich as a delegate to the International Dry Farming Convention to be held in Colorado Springs, Colorado, on October 16-20.

Mr. Vergie Barbazette was the object of a miscellaneous and numerous tin "shower" last evening, by the members of McCook lodge K. P.

The same evening at the home of Miss Maude Burgess, Miss Deborah Heckman was showered by her friends in a most enthusiastic manner.

There is magic in the words "Advo." They are the final word in canned excellence. And Huber is the prophet.
